Dearest Cousins,
I have been meaning to write a long time ago, I don't think I've ever been as busy as I am now though, being a Mommy and all that, but I can't say anything else than ... I LOVE IT!! I hope you are all doing well and that Spring has come even to Michigan. We were ready for Spring here, the Sun shined and the flowers started popping up here and there along the house but then it hit us, the snow that is. Like a blow to the stomach, but now it's starting to melt away, We are all ready for some summer now. Easter is coming up and Gun-Mari is here to celebrate it with us, We are going out to Grandma's to have an Easter get-together, on Friday we'll paint eggs and spend some quality time together.

Petra will also be w/ us. Peter + Petra broke up after New Year, but after so many years together I think they both handled it pretty good, I guess the parting wasn't so painful for them. I suppose you know about our

Påsk (Easter) celebration with Påskkärringar = lady witch, nice the children dress up and go from house to house and sing songs and get candy in their coffee pots, for they ride on brooms to Blåkulla (- the hills where Påskkärringarna all lives)  I thought I'd send this little paper-clip of a few dressed up Påskkärringar to give you an idea. Victoria is also dressing up, it's a surprise for everybody since she is a little young, I hope you like the picture, it's a little out of date, it was taken on the 27th of December. She is growing so fast that it is hard to keep up w/ her.

She turned 5 months on the 3rd which also is Morfar's (Werner) birthday, he turned 59 or was it 29, well he doesn't seem to age at all...

I'll make sure to take a Påskkåring Picture of Victoria and send it to you, I hope I didn't bore you w/ all the information if you already knew about it.

We are doing really good here, Rick is getting so good at speaking Swedish, you wouldn't even believe.

I'm so proud of him, he gets out in May, it will be nice of a little break in the studying. We recently moved down the street to a different apartment,

Dear Frances & George!

I'm sorry I've not been written any letter lately. I've been working a lot. Actually too much. I have change school and when you are new it takes a little time to settle down. The kids are very strange. Some days it's very good and some days I'm fired so I would like to quit. I'm also workin a lot with our apartment committee. We are soon free from the head organisation. I had a great holiday in Iceland. It's a fascinating country.

I hope everything is alright with you two in the sunny Florida. I read about the hurricane. I hope nothing happened to you.

Enough for this time. Just a few lines so you see I'm still alive.

Much Love

Dear Frances,

My father was Frans Nilsson, in the U. S. spelling Frank Peter Nelson who was a brother to Ida next to her in age, five years older than Uncle Karl who this past few weeks passed away at age 98 + 9 mo. Uncle Karl was the only brother of my Father I had met + not any of the sisters but I have met all of Regina Children in Minnesota and Minnie in Sweden when I visited in Sept. + Oct. of 1985. I had written to Edward Nordby since 1944 + later to Trygve and Aune + Magot so I always wanted to visit my fathers homeland. It was my understanding that all of Ida's children had died + didn't realize she had Grandchildren or Great Grandchildren or I would have contacted them. I might go back to Sweden next year.

My Father went to Rathdrum, Idaho where he met + married my Mother after eight years of courtship. Lived there until his death 1973.

I have two older brothers Francis David Nelson living in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho + John Walter Nelson living on my Dads place in Rathdrum.

I married Edward Henry Lampert, Dec. 5, 1954 and moved to Worley, Idaho where we lived all our married life. He died Feb. 27, 1982 Cancer Brain Tumor.

The have three sons, John Edward Lampert, David Peter Lampert & Lawrence Michael Lampert.
Born Feb. 26, 1956, Aug. 29, 1957 & Dec. 22, 1958.

They are married - John & Mary (mami) have Amanda Michelle age 2 last Feb. 24. David & Debbie have Peter Michael will be 2 Aug. 14 & expecting a nother one about Aug. 10. Lawrence & Robyn have two little girls Wendy Marie was three Dec. 27 & Brenda Maxine was 1 Nov. 27.

I remarried Sept. 27, 1986 to E. G. Akins & moved to Othello, Washington. He also has three grown children.

If you come to our area be sure to look us up, it would be great to talk about our heritage.

Thank you so much for the contact!

My Swedish Connections

Frances Froberg Wooley*

This is the story of how I found my Swedish relations.

Shortly after the beginning of my search a few years ago in order to fill the gaps on my husband's pedigree chart, I decided I would try to obtain information concerning my Swedish grandfather.

At this point in time, the only thing I actually knew was that Olof Froberg (Fröberg), my grandfather, had gone to sea as a young man. The story I had been told was as he left Sweden, his mother stood on a hill above him waving her apron in farewell. He was never able to return to his home in Sweden. On one of his sea voyages he had met my grandmother who was traveling from Norway to the United States. They were married in Chicago, Cook County, IL in 1880.

With only the above information and the year of his birth, obtained from his marriage license, which was 1856, I submitted a query to SAG. A response was received sent by the late Dr. Jan Vegelius of the Department of Statistics at the University of Uppsala in Sweden. He provided some information about the name Froberg (Fröberg) and gave me names and addresses of nine individuals bearing this surname. I wrote letters to all these people but received only one reply, which turned out to be a non-relative.

In the meantime, in a collection of postal cards, which my grandmother Froberg had given me when I was a child, I found two which had been sent from Sweden and which were written in the Swedish language. I located someone who could translate them and learned that they had been sent from Härnösand in northern Sweden. They mentioned some changes which had occurred in a building which had been done since my grandfather last had been there (the restoration of the Cathedral of Härnösand). They were signed by Hanna Fröberg. This was exciting and so I sent this information to Dr. Vegelius together with the one reply I had received from the listing he had sent me.

Dr. Vegelius wrote again. He had continued to work on my query and with the additional information I had furnished him, he made several inquiries on my behalf. The following is the text of his next letter:

* Frances Froberg Wooley resides at 886 La Costa Lane, North Ft. Myers, FL 33917.

"I went to our city library and asked to be shown the telephone directory for the province of Ångermanland, located in the north of Sweden. In the Ullånger telephone area, which also contained the listings for Nora Parish, I found a dozen people named Fröberg.

In the afternoon I called the church in Nora and the person who answered, (probably the clergyman), mentioned that the only Fröberg he found in Nora having a telephone was Per Fröberg in Frök.

I phoned Per Fröberg, who said that there had been Fröbergs in Utvik, a village in Nora Parish, but he did not know where their descendants lived. He recommended that I call Sture Frölén in Härnösand, whose uncle had married a daughter of Dora Fröberg from Utvik. After a long search in the telephone book he found Sture's number.

I called Sture Frölén and he could give me telephone numbers to several children of Dora Fröberg Nilsson.

Finally I called Dora's daughter, Aina Nilsson Lindström, who confirmed that her grandparents had lived in Utvik in Nora Parish. She became very interested in getting a letter from you. She says she is not too good at reading English, but she has a daughter who could help her."

I assure my readers that I will always be deeply indebted to Dr. Vegelius as Aina Lindström and I have corresponded for several years. From the pedigree that follows one can determine our relationship.

Then on Christmas Day 1991, an early morning call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlin had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and she wanted to meet me. She was on leave from her duties as a member of the Swedish delegation of the United Nations interim forces stationed in Lebanon. My husband and I immediately went to the motel where she was staying and after introductions, invited her back to our home for the balance of her visit in Florida.

Then another surprise. Gun-Marie's daughter, Charlotte, was attending high school as an exchange student in Spokane, WA. Her mother made a few phone calls and arrangements were made for her to fly into Ft. Myers. Within hours we had met two Swedish relatives, whom we had not known of before. Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina Lindström, was planning to fly to Florida on 1 June. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing.

It was a long time from the first part of January until 1 June. Many overseas telephone calls were made - many letters and maps were sent and received. Explicit directions had to be given as Aina and her party would fly into Ft. Lauderdale on Florida's East Coast, rent a car and then drive across the state to Ft. Myers. It would be after dark before they would reach our home. None of the party had ever been to America before. The hours of 1 June 1992 passed very slowly.

Finally, a car pulled up outside our home. The doors opened and for the first time in my life, I met my half-cousin from Sweden - a relative, who until a couple of years ago I hadn't known even existed. It was truly an exciting and awesome experience.

Those who came were Aina and her husband Werner Lindström. Neither of them speak English although they do understand a little. Aina's sister, Esly Syrén, sometimes acted as a translator, but it was difficult. Aina's granddaughter, however, Petra Sohlin, and her fiancée, Peter Westin, speak very good English, since they had learned it in school and they did most of the translating.

Not only did Aina bring me many gifts, typical of Sweden, she even brought me several jars of home-made jam, that she had made in her own kitchen. She also brought the name and address of yet another member of our mutual family - a granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. Since my grandfather's sister had thirteen living children, I now shall have many more Swedish cousins to attempt to find.

Aina and I poured over photo albums and exchanged notes on what we each knew of our grandparents and their families. We talked of her grandchildren and of mine. She taught me a few words of the Swedish language and I tried to teach her some English phrases. Getting acquainted with each other was not difficult. We had a most enjoyable time together.

The visit with my Swedish relatives has ended and they have returned to their homes in Härnösand and Uppsala. To say that this was one of the most important and exciting events in my lifetime is an understatement. From not ever knowing of any Swedish relatives, I now have dozens! And now is the time to begin planning my trip to the land of my forefathers.

Should anyone reading this account be a relative or have information that can be added to my family history, I would certainly be interested in hearing from them. And again, my thoughts go to the late Dr. Vegelius, grateful for all the time and energy he spent on my behalf. It was he who encouraged me to write this account of how I found my Swedish connections.

BLESSED SEASONS GREETINGS TO ONE AND ALL --

From 888 La Costa Ln., N. Ft. Myers, FL 33917 to your house -- may your Christmas be merry and bright and may you know happiness and good health throughout the coming years!

Our past year has been full of miracles and surprises. Starting with the miracles -- after being in a great deal of pain for several years, George had total hip replacement surgery on June 3. We had planned to attend the Glad-Peach Festival activities in Coloma the first week in August but a very serious infection that developed after the operation kept us from attending. But we did get to spend about a month in Michigan. George has almost totally recovered now and is feeling better with each day.

Now to the surprises. Last Christmas Day an early morning phone call informed us that Gun-Marie, daughter of our newly-found Froberg cousin in Sweden, had just flown into Ft. Myers and wanted to meet us. She had arrived the night before from Lebanon where she was stationed as a Swedish member of the United Nations peace-keeping force. We invited her to stay with us for the rest of her vacation. Her daughter, Charlotte, was in Spokane, WA as an exchange student. Arrangements were made to have her fly to Ft. Myers and we had the marvelous opportunity of getting to know these relatives.

Then another surprise -- on June 1, Gun-Marie's mother and stepfather, Aina and Werner, Gun-Marie's other daughter Petra, and her finace, Peter, and Aina's sister Elsy came from Sweden to visit us. Although this was at the same time as George was having his surgery, all of us had a good time getting acquainted. Only Petra and Peter spoke English but we communicated very well with each other. None of them had ever been to U.S. before.

Early in November, our dear friend and neighbor, Ethel Germain, moved from our park to an apartment complex near the downtown area where she will have better security and no yard to take care of. We miss her very much!

All this excitement -- hard on the old blood pressure! George's operation will take Frances several years to recover. A lot of home nursing was involved until he could finally ride his bike over to the pool, get his shoes off by himself, and get in and out of the pool without aid. Genealogy was put on "hold" for a few months but is now going full force again.

Erin and Amy, Jim and Toy's little girls, are now both in school full time. Sean, Bob and Linda's youngest one, started kindergarten; Steven started beginning band with the cornet; Kevin will graduate from high school next June. Right now he is busy investigating colleges.

Nancy still resides and works in Phoenix. She wasn't able to get to Michigan this summer due to work conflicts. Wes came to Ft. Myers from Holland for spring break and hopes to drive down for Christmas. Last year he was able to visit both Nancy and Jim during Christmas break.

During the short time we were in Michigan this summer, we saw the renovation of the Coloma U. M. Church -- it is truly beautiful! Also had breakfast several times with our Coloma friends. During the winter months, we meet regularly for brunch with Coloma folks who are in the Ft. Myers area.

We enjoy receiving all your cards and letters -- come see us if you are in the area.

—My Swedish Connections

Frances Froberg Wooley*

This is the story of how I found my Swedish relations.

Shortly after the beginning of my search a few years ago in order to fill the gaps on my husband's pedigree chart, I decided I would try to obtain information concerning my Swedish grandfather.

At this point in time, the only thing I actually knew was that Olof Froberg (Fröberg), my grandfather, had gone to sea as a young man. The story I had been told was as he left Sweden, his mother stood on a hill above him waving her apron in farewell. He was never able to return to his home in Sweden. On one of his sea voyages he had met my grandmother who was traveling from Norway to the United States. They were married in Chicago, Cook County, IL in 1880.

With only the above information and the year of his birth, obtained from his marriage license, which was 1856, I submitted a query to SAG. A response was received sent by the late Dr. Jan Vegelius of the Department of Statistics at the University of Uppsala in Sweden. He provided some information about the name Froberg (Fröberg) and gave me names and addresses of nine individuals bearing this surname. I wrote letters to all these people but received only one reply, which turned out to be a non-relative.

In the meantime, in a collection of postal cards, which my grandmother Froberg had given me when I was a child, I found two which had been sent from Sweden and which were written in the Swedish language. I located someone who could translate them and learned that they had been sent from Härnösand in northern Sweden. They mentioned some changes which had occurred in a building which had been done since my grandfather last had been there (the restoration of the Cathedral of Härnösand). They were signed by Hanna Fröberg. This was exciting and so I sent this information to Dr. Vegelius together with the one reply I had received from the listing he had sent me.

Dr. Vegelius wrote again. He had continued to work on my query and with the additional information I had furnished him, he made several inquiries on my behalf. The following is the text of his next letter:

* Frances Froberg Wooley resides at 886 La Costa Lane, North Ft. Myers, FL 33917.

"I went to our city library and asked to be shown the telephone directory for the province of Ångermanland, located in the north of Sweden. In the Ullånger telephone area, which also contained the listings for Nora Parish, I found a dozen people named Fröberg.

In the afternoon I called the church in Nora and the person who answered, (probably the clergyman), mentioned that the only Fröberg he found in Nora having a telephone was Per Fröberg in Frök.

I phoned Per Fröberg, who said that there had been Fröbergs in Utvik, a village in Nora Parish, but he did not know where their descendants lived. He recommended that I call Sture Frölén in Härnösand, whose uncle had married a daughter of Dora Fröberg from Utvik. After a long search in the telephone book he found Sture's number.

I called Sture Frölén and he could give me telephone numbers to several children of Dora Fröberg Nilsson.

Finally I called Dora's daughter, Aina Nilsson Lindström, who confirmed that her grandparents had lived in Utvik in Nora Parish. She became very interested in getting a letter from you. She says she is not too good at reading English, but she has a daughter who could help her."

I assure my readers that I will always be deeply indebted to Dr. Vegelius as Aina Lindström and I have corresponded for several years. From the pedigree that follows one can determine our relationship.

Then on Christmas Day 1991, an early morning call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlin had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and she wanted to meet me. She was on leave from her duties as a member of the Swedish delegation of the United Nations interim forces stationed in Lebanon. My husband and I immediately went to the motel where she was staying and after introductions, invited her back to our home for the balance of her visit in Florida.

Then another surprise. Gun-Marie's daughter, Charlotte, was attending high school as an exchange student in Spokane, WA. Her mother made a few phone calls and arrangements were made for her to fly into Ft. Myers. Within hours we had met two Swedish relatives, whom we had not known of before. Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina Lindström, was planning to fly to Florida on 1 June. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing.

Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina Lindström, was planning to fly to Florida on 1 June. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing.

It was a long time from the first part of January until 1 June. Many overseas telephone calls were made - many letters and maps were sent and received. Explicit directions had to be given as Aina and her party would fly into Ft. Lauderdale on Florida's East Coast, rent a car and then drive across the state to Ft. Myers. It would be after dark before they would reach our home. None of the party had ever been to America before. The hours of 1 June 1992 passed very slowly.

Finally, a car pulled up outside our home, The doors opened and for the first time in my life, I met my half-cousin from Sweden - a relative, who until a couple of years ago I hadn't known even existed. It was truly an exciting and awesome experience.

Those who came were Aina and her husband Werner Lindström. Neither of them speak English although they do understand a little. Aina's sister, Esly Syrén, sometimes acted as a translator, but it was difficult. Aina's granddaughter, however, Petra Sohlin, and her fiancée, Peter Westin, speak very good English, since they had learned it in school and they did most of the translating.

Not only did Aina bring me many gifts, typical of Sweden, she even brought me several jars of home-made jam, that she had made in her own kitchen. She also brought the name and address of yet another member of our mutual family - a granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. Since my grandfather's sister had thirteen living children, I now shall have many more Swedish cousins to attempt to find.

Aina and I poured over photo albums and exchanged notes on what we each knew of our grandparents and their families. We talked of her grandchildren and of mine. She taught me a few words of the Swedish language and I tried to teach her some English phrases. Getting acquainted with each other was not difficult. We had a most enjoyable time together.

The visit with my Swedish relatives has ended and they have returned to their homes in Härnösand and Uppsala. To say that this was one of the most important and exciting events in my lifetime is an understatement. From not ever knowing of any Swedish relatives, I now have dozens! And now is the time to begin planning my trip to the land of my forefathers.

Should anyone reading this account be a relative or have information that can be added to my family history, I would certainly be interested in hearing from them. And again, my thoughts go to the late Dr. Vegelius, grateful for all the time and energy he spent on my behalf. It was he who encouraged me to write this account of how I found my Swedish connections.

I assure my readers that I will always be deeply indebted to Dr. Vegelius as Aina Lindström and I have corresponded for several years. From the pedigree that follows one can determine our relationship.

Then on Christmas Day 1991, an early morning call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlin had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and she wanted to meet me. She was on leave from her duties as a member of the Swedish delegation of the United Nations interim forces stationed in Lebanon. My husband and I immediately went to the motel where she was staying and after introductions, invited her back to our home for the balance of her visit in Florida.

Then another surprise. Gun-Marie's daughter, Charlotte, was attending high school as an exchange student in Spokane, WA. Her mother made a few phone calls and arrangements were made for her to fly into Ft. Myers. Within hours we had met two Swedish relatives, whom we had not known of before. Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina Lindström, was planning to fly to Florida on 1 June. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing.

It was a long time from the first part of January until 1 June. Many overseas telephone calls were made - many letters and maps were sent and received. Explicit directions had to be given as Aina and her party would fly into Ft. Lauderdale on Florida's East Coast, rent a car and then drive across the state to Ft. Myers. It would be after dark before they would reach our home. None of the party had ever been to America before. The hours of 1 June 1992 passed very slowly.

Finally, a car pulled up outside our home, The doors opened and for the first time in my life, I met my half-cousin from Sweden - a relative, who until a couple of years ago I hadn't known even existed. It was truly an exciting and awesome experience.

Those who came were Aina and her husband Werner Lindström. Neither of them speak English although they do understand a little. Aina's sister, Esly Syrén, sometimes acted as a translator, but it was difficult. Aina's granddaughter, however, Petra Sohlin, and her fiancée, Peter Westin, speak very good English, since they had learned it in school and they did most of the translating.

Not only did Aina bring me many gifts, typical of Sweden, she even brought me several jars of home-made jam, that she had made in her own kitchen. She also brought the name and address of yet another member of our mutual family - a granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. Since my grandfather's sister had thirteen living children, I now shall have many more Swedish cousins to attempt to find.

Aina and I poured over photo albums and exchanged notes on what we each knew of our grandparents and their families. We talked of her grandchildren and of mine. She taught me a few words of the Swedish language and I tried to teach her some English phrases. Getting acquainted with each other was not difficult. We had a most enjoyable time together.

The visit with my Swedish relatives has ended and they have returned to their homes in Härnösand and Uppsala. To say that this was one of the most important and exciting events in my lifetime is an understatement. From not ever knowing of any Swedish relatives, I now have dozens! And now is the time to begin planning my trip to the land of my forefathers.

Should anyone reading this account be a relative or have information that can be added to my family history, I would certainly be interested in hearing from them. And again, my thoughts go to the late Dr. Vegelius, grateful for all the time and energy he spent on my behalf. It was he who encouraged me to write this account of how I found my Swedish connections.

Pedigree of the Fröberg Family

Anders Gustaf Fröberg, b. in Härnö (Vn.) 22 Feb. 1878 (s. of Olof Fröberg in his second marriage, see Tab. 1); d. ?; m. ca. 1899. He was the father of Dora Fröberg Nilsson, who in turn was the mother of Aina Nilsson Lindström.

Aina Nilsson Lindström's grandfather and Frances Froberg Wooley's grandfather were thus half-brothers.

My Swedish Connections

Frances Froberg Wooley*

This is the story of how I found my Swedish relations.

Shortly after the beginning of my search a few years ago in order to fill the gaps on my husband's pedigree chart, I decided I would try to obtain information concerning my Swedish grandfather.

At this point in time, the only thing I actually knew was that Olof Froberg (Fröberg), my grandfather, had gone to sea as a young man. The story I had been told was as he left Sweden, his mother stood on a hill above him waving her apron in farewell. He was never able to return to his home in Sweden. On one of his sea voyages he had met my grandmother who was traveling from Norway to the United States. They were married in Chicago, Cook County, IL in 1880.

With only the above information and the year of his birth, obtained from his marriage license, which was 1856, I submitted a query to SAG. A response was received sent by the late Dr. Jan Vegelius of the Department of Statistics at the University of Uppsala in Sweden. He provided some information about the name Froberg (Fröberg) and gave me names and addresses of nine individuals bearing this surname. I wrote letters to all these people but received only one reply, which turned out to be a non-relative.

In the meantime, in a collection of postal cards, which my grandmother Froberg had given me when I was a child, I found two which had been sent from Sweden and which were written in the Swedish language. I located someone who could translate them and learned that they had been sent from Härnösand in northern Sweden. They mentioned some changes which had occurred in a building which had been done since my grandfather last had been there (the restoration of the Cathedral of Härnösand). They were signed by Hanna Fröberg. This was exciting and so I sent this information to Dr. Vegelius together with the one reply I had received from the listing he had sent me.

Dr. Vegelius wrote again. He had continued to work on my query and with the additional information I had furnished him, he made several inquiries on my behalf. The following is the text of his next letter:

* Frances Froberg Wooley resides at 886 La Costa Lane, North Ft. Myers, FL 33917.

"I went to our city library and asked to be shown the telephone directory for the province of Ångermanland, located in the north of Sweden. In the Ullånger telephone area, which also contained the listings for Nora Parish, I found a dozen people named Fröberg.

In the afternoon I called the church in Nora and the person who answered, (probably the clergyman), mentioned that the only Fröberg he found in Nora having a telephone was Per Fröberg in Frök.

I phoned Per Fröberg, who said that there had been Fröbergs in Utvik, a village in Nora Parish, but he did not know where their descendants lived. He recommended that I call Sture Frölén in Härnösand, whose uncle had married a daughter of Dora Fröberg from Utvik. After a long search in the telephone book he found Sture's number.

I called Sture Frölén and he could give me telephone numbers to several children of Dora Fröberg Nilsson.

Finally I called Dora's daughter, Aina Nilsson Lindström, who confirmed that her grandparents had lived in Utvik in Nora Parish. She became very interested in getting a letter from you. She says she is not too good at reading English, but she has a daughter who could help her."

I assure my readers that I will always be deeply indebted to Dr. Vegelius as Aina Lindström and I have corresponded for several years. From the pedigree that follows one can determine our relationship.

Then on Christmas Day 1991, an early morning call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlin had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and she wanted to meet me. FROBERG, MICHIGAN

by Frances Froberg Wooley

While working on a project for my employer where I measured distances between dealers and their nearest distribution center, I spent considerable time reading road maps of all the states. This is how I happened to stumble on a town in the state of Michigan named Froberg.

I was very interested because Froberg is my maiden name. Immediately, I wrote a letter to the postmaster at Froberg requesting information about the town with the same name as mine. It was a real disappointment when my letter was returned to me with this notation, "No postoffice at this location."

It wasn't until I became totally involved with trying to locate my ancestors that I again thought about the town of Froberg, Michigan. So, I checked to find out the county in which it is located and wrote a letter to the county seat, requesting information about Froberg.

Imagine my surprise when I received a reply from people also named Froberg. They had been given my inquiry by the Baraga County Historical Society and since they knew the history of Froberg, Michigan and their name was also Froberg, they responded and gave me the following information.

Olof Froberg lived in Sweden and never came to the United States. However, he had three sons and one daughter, and two of his sons, Victor and Oscar, immigrated to Minnesota about 1890. After about four years, Victor returned to Sweden, where he took over the family farm, married, and raised his family.

The other son, Oscar, born in Sweden in 1874, worked on railroad construction in several states. In 1906, he came to Michigan and married Ida Pauline Soderstrom. They had known each other in Sweden, having lived in the same town. She had come to America in 1901.

The story, according to one of Oscar's sons, is that the town of Froberg was originally known as the Bellaire Siding, having been named after the Bellaire family of the area. When Oscar moved to the Sturgeon River Valley in the upper penninsula of Michigan and did some logging, he needed railroad cars to ship out his logs. At times, the railroad company set the cars off at another Bellaire, Michigan located in Antrim County in the lower penninsula and well over two hundred miles from the Froberg logging site. To correct the problem, the railroad company asked Froberg if he would mind if they changed the name of the Bellaire Siding to the Froberg Siding, which they did.

I found this bit of history very interesting and can only thank Edward and Hazel Froberg of Barage, Michigan for sharing it with me. My Swedish grandfather would have been very pleased and proud to know there was a town in the United States that shared the same name as his, even if he had had nothing to do with the naming of it. And, up to this point, we have not been able to prove a connection between the Frobergs of Baraga County and those of Berrien County, Michigan, where my grandfather settled.

August 31, 1988

Dear Frances,

Thank you for your letter of July 4 ! As soon as I had got it I wrote to a former neighbour of ours who is now a clergyman in Ångermanland, the province where Härnösand is situated. Unfortunately he has not yet answered my letter.

I have been in my home province of Dalsland most of the summer and returned only ten days ago. Therefore there were so many other things to handle first, but yesterday I finally got time for your case.

First I looked in a book containing the names of all Swedish villages, farms and so on. There we could find four places by the name of Utvik. Two of them were in Ångermanland, one in the parish of Nora and one in the parish of Ullånger.

I went to our city library and looked at the telephone book of Ångermanland. In the Ullånger telephone area (which also contained Nora) I found a dozen persons by the name of Fröberg.

In the afternoon I called the church at Nora and the person who answered (probably the clergyman) mentioned that the only Fröberg he found in Nora (with a telephone) was Per Fröberg in Frök.

I phoned Per Fröberg, who said that there had been Fröbergs in Utvik, but he did not know where their descendents lived. He recommended me to call Sture Frölén in Härnösand whose uncle had married a daughter Dora Fröberg from Utvik. After a long search in the telephone book he found Sture's number.

I called Sture Frölén and he could give me telephone numbers to several children of Dora Fröberg Nilsson.

Finally I called Dora's daughter Aina Nilsson Lindström, who confirmed that her grandparents had lived in Utvik in Nora. She became very interested in getting a letter from you. She says she is not so good at reading English but she has a daughter who can help her.

Unfortunately I forgot to check if her grandmother's name was Hanna, but the probability that we have solved the problem is quite high.

Mrs. Aina Lindström/N. Fällöudden 502/871 91 HÄRNÖSAND/SWEDEN

Mr. Robert W. Froberg

Dear Mr. Froberg,

I have exciting news for you and fellow Frobergs! As you may already know, extensive work has been done throughout the world on a project relating to your Froberg family name. Now a new book, "THE WORLD BOOK OF FROBERGS" is about to be published and it includes individual Frobergs who immigrated to the New World between the 16th and early 20th centuries.

The first Froberg we found came to Minnesota in 1882. Her name was Caroline. Like thousands of others, she sought a better life for herself in this land of opportunity.

Caroline, or any of the other Frobergs who are documented in this new book, may be the sole reason you and I live here today. This hard-to-find Froberg immigration information was obtained from reference books indexing ships' passenger lists, genealogical registers and other official records. In addition to information about Caroline and these other early Froberg settlers, you'll also be provided with an international directory of virtually every Froberg household (with address). You are listed in this section of the book.

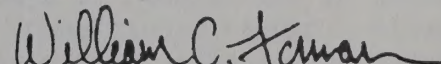

This has been an enormous project! There are now over 257 households bearing the Froberg name in the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, England, Scotland, Wales, Northern Ireland, Ireland, Germany and Austria. Using a sophisticated computer network, more than 220 million records were searched worldwide to provide you with this never-before-published Froberg International Registry. It has been our goal to locate as many Frobergs as possible.

This unique publication also covers information about the origin and meaning of names, genealogy, heraldry and the development of family crests with ancient symbols and what they mean. You'll even find exciting details about how you can search for your Froberg ancestry, trace your family tree, locate your family members worldwide and learn even more about your family's origin.

To my knowledge, this remarkable collection of valuable information is available ONLY in "THE WORLD BOOK OF FROBERGS." Please note, however, that this First Edition is expected to be the only printing of the Froberg book, ever. I am writing to all the Froberg families listed in the Froberg International Registry at this time in order to keep publication costs low, and therefore, enable every family to save money on this important book. But you must order now!

To reserve your copy(s), you must order right away. The number of copies printed will be determined by the number of print orders we receive by February 27, 1991.

Sincerely,

William C. Forman

P.S. Even though your copy is printed for you alone and I believe you'll be pleased with it, if you are dissatisfied for any reason we guarantee a full and prompt refund. Please see your FROBERG APPROVAL ORDER FORM for details.

Dear Fran;

I owe you an apology for taking this long to answer your letter with all the Froberg line information. We will soon return to Horseheads, New York for the summer and I found your letter when starting to pack my genealogy materials. I am sorry for the delay and thank you for all the information.

However, the information you received was not correct. My basic line is not the Froberg line. I am researching Johansson and Strand. My grandfather was Malcolm Johansson and changed his name when he came to U.S.A. to Malcolm Strand. His sister, Freda Johansson married Edolph Froberg in April, 1898. Since Freda is my great-aunt, I wrote to her children and grandchildren in order to include a bit of information on them in my record. This is how the Froberg information came to me, but I do not expect to do anything further with this line.

I am sorry that I cannot help you; but wish you the best of luck with your research.

Sincerely,

Jane E. Roe

Dear Frances & George!

Thanks for your letter, I got it today. I'm sorry that we make so much trouble for you. The plans are changed. Charlotte and Rick are going to marrie in the state of Wa and after that she's going home to Sweden. They don't think that's worth 1000 $ to go to Florida when he has to stay in US. The swedish rules are: You must have the permit to stay and work stamped in the passport before you go to Sweden. During the investigation he's not allowed to be in the country.

Therefore they decided to marry in W.A. He has to stay until all the papers are OK. Mybe he's here in September. At least I hope he will be here before the baby is born.

I'm going with her to the doc, dentist and the police when she's coming home.
She has to go to the Police because he's coming.
So you will have five of ~~your~~ relatives this time.
I hope I can go then later.
I told Charlotte to write to you about all these things.

You asked about my parents staying. They are going back to Sweden 15th of June and I'm sure from the east. Because you have to leave US from the same place that you arrived to. And in this case they are going by charter to Miami.

Now I've been home for three weeks. It feels very strange, empty in a way.
The weather here today is lovely, really summer warm.
But next week it will be cold again.

We have problem at my work. In our area we have two schools and now they are going to fire around ten teachers there. I suppose no I'm quite sure that I'm one of the few.

I'm not the last employed but with so many it's like that. So maybe I don't have any work
after the summer vacation.
We will see.

Maybe you can find a millioner for me.

Anyway, I hope George will be better and also that you will have a really good time together with my parents, the kids and my aunt. Take care

I hope all your children and families are fine

Gin Clavie

Hi ~~xxxx~~ --

I just have to get this all down before I forgot some of the details because what has happened has been the most incredible surprise of my entire life!!!

Christmas AM, got up early and went for my usual walk. Came home and George told me someone had called and when he told them I wasn't there, they said they would call back later. I asked him who it was, and all he could remember was it was someone who said she was "Charlotte's mother" and she sounded foreign. I couldn't think of anyone who would fit this description.

A few minutes later, the phone rang. It was a woman asking for me. She identified herself as "Charlotte's mother." Then I knew who she was! Charlotte is the exchange student from Sweden studying in Spokane, WA, the granddaughter of my half-cousin whom I have just found in Sweden and this was her daughter, Charlotte's mother calling me! She was in Ft. Myers, having arrived the night before and was at a motel downtown. I immediately told her we would pick her up and go out for ~~brunch~~ as it was Christmas day and that is what we had planned. BRUNCH

I was so nervous and excited I could hardly think straight! Future plans call for Charlotte's grandmother to come to U.S. next spring when Charlotte graduates from high school in Spokane and then we would meet. I never expected to meet any of the family before that time. But -- now it was happening.

When I knocked on the motel door and it was opened, the woman standing there said, "You look just like my mother." and gave me a big hug. I will try to describe how she looked to me. Gun-Marie is about five feet, five inches, has light brown short curly hair, weighs about 120 pounds. She wears glasses and has a beautiful smile. She has a British accent and although her English is very good, she sometimes gets things turned around. She was ready and asked if I knew of another motel she could go to as this one wasn't much -- the travel agent in Israel had arranged it. I said, "Bring you things and come stay with us." and that is where she is now. I guess if she hadn't reached us, she would have just found another motel, rented a car, and perhaps just vacationed here by herself. I don't know -- haven't gotten around to that as yet.

We went to brunch at Grandma's Kitchen out on I-75. Although we didn't learn all about her that first morning we have had many conversations and this is what I know. She works for the United Nations and is stationed in Lebanon. She normally wears a uniform -- complete with tie, shirt and hat. She many times wears a bullet-proof vest and carries a machine gun. I don't know exactly what her duties are there -- haven't gotten that far yet -- but she formerly was a schoolteacher in Sweden. She is 38 years old -- just three months older than our Jim. She is divorced -- has two daughters. One lives in Sweden -- about 20 -- the other one is Charlotte who is the exchange student.

After getting her settled in at our mobile home -- and I wasn't exactly company so things were not spic and span, she called her daughter in Spokane. In the excitement of the day and her being here, it was arranged that Charlotte would come to Ft. Myers as soon as a flight could be arranged. After trying all the airlines, a seat on TWA was arranged for on Friday evening, this being Wednesday, Christmas Day.

As would happen, I have this temp job over the holidays and they are depending on me to be there as arranged, so Thurs. AM. I had to go to work. Its working at a home mortgage company and all I have to do is answer the phones -- can read in between -- $5 per hour. But George took her over to the pool, introduced her around, and she soon got to know some of the "regulars." Then in the afternoon, George drove her out to the airport so she could prepay Charlotte's airline ticket. We went out to dinner at Mrs. Appletons.

Friday again I had to go to work. Gun-Marie located the travel agency down at Weaver's Corners and made a reservation to rent a car for today. Then Friday nite after a quick supper here, I drove her out to the airport and we picked up Charlotte.

Again, what a wonderful surprise. Charlotte is 18, blonde, blue-eyed, speaks perfect English and is always correctng her mother when she messes up a sentence. She is a beautiful teenager -- charming and bubbly. She is about five feet, six inches, very fair-skinned probably a size 7 or 8. Lovely smile. I think our granddaughter, Amy, will look exactly like her when she grows up. They have same facial features. Her mother says she sings but we haven't heard her yet. Both of them have fit right in and I feel like I've known them forever. I think this is the best Christmas present I have ever had!

Sat. AM we went over to the flea market for fruit and vegetables and then to the Edison Mall to shop and buy jeans. Went to Chinese place by Wal-Mart for dinner. Gun-Marie bought lottery tickets and won $5.

Today we went to get the rental car and Gun-Marie and Charlotte are off to Sanibel Island to see and swim in the Gulf. Although Gun-Marie has been to U.S. before (last Christmas to Spokane to visit her daughter) they have never been to Florida before so tomorrow they plan to drive to Miami, then up to Orlando and then visit DisneyWorld and Epoct Center before returning her on Thur. nite. They will have to leave Friday.

As I think over this past week -- actually only four days -- I can hardly believe what has happened. It is like a dream come true. So I am looking forward to next June when I will meet Charlotte again, and also then her grandmother, my half-cousin, Aina. I just had to tell you about it. And that's the rest of the story.

Much love, Ann and John

I have known for a long time that I was not alone in the world. I have known that I was not alone in the world. I have known that I was not alone in the world.

Christmas Eve, 1941, was a night of great joy and sorrow. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world.

A few minutes later, the night was over. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world.

I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world.

When I looked at the world, I saw a world of pain and suffering. I saw a world of pain and suffering. I saw a world of pain and suffering.

We went to church at Christmas. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world. I was alone in the world.

After looking at the world, I saw a world of pain and suffering. I saw a world of pain and suffering. I saw a world of pain and suffering.

There are 18 counties in Norway. Prior to 1918 the term for county was amt, which in 1918 was changed to fylke. With the change of term also came a change of names for most of them, while the old historical borders were kept. Below are listed the names of the counties both prior to and after 1918 with the abbreviations used in the Postal Guide and the number of clerical districts (prestegjeld) and parishes (sogn) in each:

See table of postal guide illustration.

LOCATION OF RECORDS

The parish registers for the last 100 years or thereabout are located in the individual parishes around the country. All the records prior to that time are located in respective provincial archive (statsarkiv). Th parish registers in the provincial archives have all been microfilmed and are available at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah and through loans at all its branch libraries throughout the United States and Canada.

The addresses and jurisdictions of the provincial archives in Norway are as follows:

Statsarkivet i Oslo, Postbox 8 Kringsja, N-Oslo 8, Norway
For counties of Østfold, Oslo, Akershus, Buskerud, Vestfold and Telemark

Statsarkivet i Hamar, Strandgaten 71, N-2300 Hamar, Norway
For counties of Hedmark and Oppland.

Statsarkivet i Kristiansand, Vesterveigen 4, N-4600 Kristiansand S, Norway
For counties of Aust-Agder and Vest Agder.

Statsarkivet i Stavanger, Domkirkeplassen 3, N-4000 Stavanger, Norway
For the county of Rogaland.

Instructions

FT. MYERS FLORIDA FHC

009-015

1. Use this form to order photocopies of the International Genealogical Index on microfiche or an index source. Please use a separate form for each type of request. For example, do not use the same form to request copies of both a patron submission and an extracted record.
2. Please provide all information necessary to identify the item to be copied.
3. The library may need to limit the number of copies or decline some photocopy requests because of copyright or other restrictions. Sources which have batch numbers that start with H, M17, M18, T000011 to T000137, T90, T9991, 694, and 696 cannot be photocopied.
4. If you have any questions, please ask a staff member at the family history center to review your completed form before you mail it.
5. Please send your check or money order (payable to the Family History Department) with the forms. There is a $2.00 minimum.
 - $.25 (cents) for each copy when you provide page numbers. (For patron submissions, the sheet number is the page number.)
 - $2.00 for each copy from an extracted record (batches C, M, P, etc.) or without a specific page number.

NOTICE WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

International Genealogical Index Microfiche

Copies are $.25 each if page numbers are provided or $2.00 if the Family History Library must look up page numbers.

[illegible]

Patron Submission

Copies of patron submitted forms are $.25 each. You can order all-digit batch numbers except those that start with 694, 696, 725, 744, 745, 766. You can also order batch numbers that start with F, T998, and T9990. The first two digits of the batch number (7812603) indicate the year the form was submitted (1978). (The submitter's address may not be current.)

[illegible]

Extracted Record

Copies of extracted records are $2.00 each. You can order batch numbers that begin with C, E, J, K, M (except M17, M18), P, and 725, 744, 745, 754, and 766. You will receive a copy of the original birth or marriage record that was extracted. If you include the Parish and Vital Records computer printout number, you will receive a copy of the printout, not of the original sources.

I am trying to locate ancestors of my grandmother and ask for your assistance. If there is a charge other than what I have included, please advise.

HELENE, b. 24 Jun 1860 - baptized in church of Sarpsborg, Norway 26 Jul 1860 as dau. of worker Anders Andersen Opsund and his wife, Marie Helvig Andersdatter. (Pg. 37 in first parish reg. of Sarpsberg)

1865 Census - Sarpsborg, Norway:

Anders Andersen - log driver - age 49 - b. in Tune parish Marie Helvig Andersdatter - wife - age 49 - born in Tune parish
Anton Anderson - son - age 18 - unmarried
Mathea Andersdatter - dau. - age 21 - unmarried
Maren Kristine Andersdatter - dau. age 15
Helene Andersdatter - dau. age 5
(children all born in Sarpsborg)

My grandmother left Norway when she was about 16 or 17. On board ship she met my grandfather, Olof Froberg, who was a sailor from Sweden, and on 21 Sept. 1880 they were married in Chicago (Cook) Ill. In 1908 they moved to Benton Harbor (Berrien) Mich. where she died on 2 Mar. 1938.

Because of the difference in ages of the last two children listed in the above census, and the age the mother would have been at her birth, I do not feel that these were Helene's parents. I had always been told that when she was born, her mother was ill with tuberculosis and knowing she was going to die soon, breathed into Helene's mouth willing her to die with her. I believe these people above are adoptive parents, possibly relatives. Is there some way I can find this information? Would there be guardianship papers or any actual birth records?

If possible, would like to know name of ship she travelled on and any information on family -- this one or another -- possibly siblings, grandparents, etc.

Please advise cost of researching this for me. Thank you.

Sincerely,

F. Froberg Wooley

DEAR FRANCES:

I AM WRITING IN REGARD TO AN ENTRY IN EVERTON'S ROOTS CELLAR FOR OLOF H. FROBERG, b. 1824 IN SWEDEN. I WOULD LIKE TO OBTAIN A FAMILY GROUP SHEET AND/OR ANY INFORMATION YOU MAY HAVE ON HIM, IF POSSIBLE. I AM RESEARCHING THE FAMILY SURNAME OF FREBURG, BUT HAVE ALSO FOUND SPELLINGS OF FREDBURG, FREEBERG, ETC. THEREFORE, I WANTED TO CHECK ON YOUR RESEARCH IN THE OFF CHANCE THAT IT COULD POSSIBLY HELP ON MY SEARCH.

I HAVE ENCLOSED AN ENVELOPE FOR YOUR USE. I WILL LOOK FORWARD TO HEARING FROM YOU. EVEN THOUGH IT IS A "LONGSHOT", SOMETIMES THESE PAY OFF!!

THANKS FOR YOUR HELP!

SINCERELY,

LAUREL OLSON

Wednesday, April 28, 1982

My name is Frances Rose Froberg Wooley. I was born at Mercy Hospital in Benton Harbor, Michigan on January 12, 1926, the only child of Rose Barfelz and Albin Froberg. They had been married almost eight years.

Rose Ernestine Barfelz was born in Bridgman, Michigan on August 11, 1883 to Augusta Kunde and Carl Barfelz, third child and also third girl in the family. Augusta and Carl came to the United States in 1893 (Spring) from Posan (Poland) Germany.

Albin Froberg was born in Chicago Ill - 10-12-1896 to Helena <sup>Anderson</sup> ~~Johnson~~ and Olaf Froberg. Helena came to the United States as a young orphan from <sup>Moravia</sup> ~~Sweden~~; her mother died when she was an infant from TB. (Relatives told her that her mother breathed into her mouth when she knew she herself was dying because she didn't want to leave her baby behind.)

Olaf had gone to sea as a sailor at the age of fourteen, and met Helena when she was on her way to the United States.

Olaf and Helena had five children:

Anna, who married Al Von Sar and had two daughters, Violet (married John Pate) and Lauretta (never married)

one child Patty

Oliver (married and divorced several time)(also called Henry)

Albin (my father)

Dave (never married - died very young from a ruptured appendix)

Arthur (married Thelma Krause Lange Burandt) and had four children

Muriel (Duda), Janice (Lange), Vincent, and Wayne

William (married Bertha Zick)

and had two sons

William (married Jean <sup>died</sup> Tessman, then Helen _____) (died 5/1986)

~~and had two sons~~

and James (married Betty Richey)

Susie (married Jon Wetmore and had two daughters)

James (married

SALLY (girl)

DENNISON

James (married Betty Richey)

Children:

Susie

James

Sally

Atrhur Froberg's children and William and James Froberg's children all have children, but I have not kept in touch with them.

Buried in Crystal Springs Cemetary, Benton Harbor, Mich. (Berrien County)

Dear Frances:

We haven't had success in locating relatives in Sweden. Claude's grandfather and grandmother came to America in 1865 or 1866. He was born there in April 16, 1843, his mother in <sup>11-22-</sup>1874.

We learned Claude's grandmother's maiden name from his mother's death certificate.

If you know the State and County of the death of your father and grandfather I would get their death certificates. You also need the date of death.

Usually a relative signs the death certificate. It also lists the father's name, and the mother's maiden name if any one had that information

I would try the 1900 Census records for relatives living at the same address. We don't have the 1890 census available as most of it was burned, but there is some for the eastern states. The 1910 Census is also available.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints have lots of information if you have a branch near you. I have a lot of information I got through a branch here on my side of the family.

Try to get Probate Court records that lists living real relatives. These records can be gotten from the County in which they died. It is called "The County Seat", to which one applies for Probate Records.

I couldn't find any records of my great-great grandfather until I got his probate records. It listed all my great-grandmother's brothers and sisters.

My mother died when I was (8) eight years old, and I knew very little about her family beyond brothers and sisters, father & mother.

We now have information on her family back to 840 AD in England on one branch, and to France on the Twis side. Morris on the England side. Others have pooled information their information with me.

The Norman Church mentioned on page two is a source of locating others working on the same family.

I'm not able to give you much help, as I don't have very much information on your family.

I wish we knew Carl August Froberg's (Claude's grandfather) brothers and sisters as they might have been related, but no one kept any records.

I guess they were so busy learning a new language, and working hard to raise their children that they didn't think about those things.

Hope you have some luck with some of this information. Of course, you may have already tried.

Sincerely,

Dimple Aulgar

Dear Fran -

I'm afraid I can't give you much Froberg help. I have sent your name to my brother-in-law, who has done some research on the Frobergs.

Our family descends from Andrew (Anders) Froberg, also born in Sweden, in approx. 1839. He lived in Ridgway and Ridgway Township, Elk County, PA most of his life after emigrating.

Someone who had done extensive research on the Frobergs and related families was

Mrs Jane Rob
412 Lyndhurst Ave
Horseheads, NY 14845

I just received this address and do not know if she still lives there. I understand this address is several years old. I intended to write to her to gather information, but have not yet done so.

My husband tells me that the Frobergs from Finland were originally Swedish and moved to Finland many years ago.

If you have information you think our family could use, I'd be glad to have it. Froberg is a rather unusual name and it is probable that originally many were related.

It may interest you to know that my husband has a sister, Frances Patricia. His branch of the family accounts for Larry in Montana, Jim in Baltimore, George in St. Marys<sup>PA</sup> as well as Bob here. All of them have sons, so the name goes on.

I hope you will hear from Jim soon.

Sincerely,
Sandra

The information I have given you is information I have gathered myself, mostly from census data and grave markers.

It is possible that Anders was a brother of Olof. Family legend says he came to the U.S. with two brothers. I have been told that the story of three brothers coming to the U.S. together is common — and usually untrue.

Dear Frances,

Thank you so much for sending the information. My husband and I found it very (a copy) interesting. I'll forward it to my brother-in-law. Maybe this will jog his memory and you will hear from him.

My husband's great-grandfather was Anders (Andrew) Froberg. He was born ca 1839. He came to the U.S. between 1870-74. He had, I believe, only one son, Edolph, born in Sweden in 1868.

Edolph had only one son, George. George had the four boys I mentioned earlier. None of the male children of any of these boys - there are six - have yet married.

There are other Frobergs around. Some come from Denmark, although probably originally from Sweden. Others spell the name Froberg. This is probably German. When my husband travels in Germany, they often spell his name that way.

We once met a woman who was baptized and married by a Lutheran minister in Massachusetts. When my husband was in grad school, he was taken on an extensive tour of Corning Glass Works. When they learned his name, they asked if he had a brother, Larry. His answer caused consternation because a Larry Froberg worked for a competitor. Fortunately, Bob was able to convince them that his brother was still a college student.

My brother-in-law keeps promising to send me information. If/when he does, I will let you know if there is a connection.

Thanks again for the information.

Sincerely,

Sandra Froberg

a pastor. He died in February, 1936 at the age of 78, in Minneapolis, leaving his wife and children Dr. Conrad Rogne; Ida, wife of Rev. Harold Farseth, and Mrs. P. M. Rensvald.

Ragnhild, born March 20, 1869, married Chresten Olson, a Florida township pioneer who homesteaded in Section 26 in 1879. Chresten was born at Pavestad, Norway on February 25, 1850. He immigrated at the age of 19 to La Crosse, Wisconsin and also worked at Winona and Rochester, Minnesota before coming to Florida. They were married in Canby on June 30, 1890, and made their home on the farm in Florida until 1916 when they moved to Canby. Their children were Milo, Henry, Oscar, Elmer, Roy, Alma, Esther, Alvida and Agnes. Mr. Olson served as a county commissioner from 1902 to 1909. He died March 4, 1931, and Mrs. Olson died January 12, 1962 having attained the age of 92 years.

Thedwell Rogne was born January 31, 1874 in Manitowoc, Wisconsin and was five years old when the family migrated to Florida township. He was married May 3, 1906 to Gunda Orvold, and they farmed in Florida township until they retired in 1945 and moved to Canby. Their children were Elmer, Arnold, Mrs. Iver Forland, Mrs. Kent Bredeson, Mrs. Lavern Sontag, and Mrs. Alvin Heise. Mr. Rogne died August 18, 1954.

Lars Olson Kopperud and his wife Bertha Wethal, 1880 settlers in Florida township, Section 10, were born in Norway. They were married there at Ullensaker on April 9, 1875 and came to America in 1878. Their children were Ed, Chris, Anton and Laura. Mr. and Mrs. Kopperud moved to Canby in 1920, leaving their son Anton in charge of the farm.

Anton Bernhard Kopperud was born July 13, 1888 in Florida township. He married Arna Syverson March 27, 1920. Arna passed away January 2, 1935 and Anton followed in death February 10, 1939. He began serving in public office at the age of 21, when he was elected treasurer of his school district. He was elected county commissioner in 1936, and served on the county welfare board and the county relief administration. He was clerk of Florida township for seventeen years, and in 1929, on the fiftieth anniversary of the township he compiled a history documented by the records of his office. It was read at the fiftieth annual meeting of Florida township on March 12, 1929.

Among the incidents recorded in Kopperud's history was the snow-storm death of a young man named Julius Graveland, lost in a snowstorm in the winter of 1882. His body was found the next spring in Section 23 just north of where Burr was later established. Another tragedy was the death by lightning of the two little Knute Halstenson children, a boy and a girl, and a boy named Monroe Boyington, on June 28, 1897. They were herding cattle and had taken shelter in a little shack.

What John Swenson was to Canby, Alfred Froberg was to Burr. Ar-

living in the township in 1882 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Froberg, he was a foremost promoter of the development of Burr, served as storekeeper and first postmaster, and was a grain buyer for one of the first elevators. He was born in Sweden May 1, 1865 and immigrated with his parents in 1879, residing in Massachusetts nearly a year and then moving to Beloit, Wisconsin, where the father was a mechanic. In 1882 they settled on land in Section 35, one mile south of Burr. Alfred had received his education in Sweden, but he learned English by taking a correspondence course. He married Effie West, daughter of the John Wests, on May 25, 1896. Their children were Eleanor, Esther, Viola, Alfred Jr., Minnie, Myrtle, Nellie, Edward and Evelyn. Alfred was assessor, school clerk and township supervisor. After Burr was established by the name of Stanley in 1886, the railroad putting in a siding and a station, Froberg became interested in the grain buying business. He moved to Burr in 1895, and in 1902 put up a home and a large store building, and as a sideline he wrote insurance and promoted real estate. The name Stanley was changed to Burr in 1895 when a post office was established, with Froberg as postmaster. Mr. Froberg died at his home in Burr August 1, 1924. His father died May 12, 1909.

The second owner of Torger Olson's claim was J. Martin Jensen, who came from Iowa in 1882. Jensen was born at Leland, Illinois on July 14, 1852 and the family moved to Mitchell county, Iowa, in 1858. He was married in 1875 to Maria Hanson, who died in 1916. Their children were Mrs. Carl Iverson, Mrs. Adolph C. Westby, Mrs. Elmer Erickson, Ebert, Henry, Guy and Jesse. Mr. Jensen died September 27, 1930.

Knute Halstenson chose the south half of Section 34 for his homestead and tree claim in 1883, moving the family out to Florida township from Canby, where he had been working on the section for three years. They came to Canby in 1880 from Valdres, Norway. Knute was born in Valdres January 21, 1855, and was married to Sigrid Olsdatter, born March 16, 1852 at Aadalen. Their children were Helge, Melvin, Milo and Mrs. Sam Knutson.

The first home was a dug-out on the bank of the creek. At the time the claim was secured, Halstenson understood the farm to be government land; however, it was found to be state university land, and instead of receiving it as a grant, he paid for it at the rate of $6 and $8 per acre.

Helge Halstenson was born August 14, 1874 in Norway. His father immigrated first to America, coming May 17, 1880. The family followed a few months later, arriving in Canby the day before the October, 1880 blizzard began. Helge married Julia Sorby, daughter of Lars and Boletta Sorby of Florida township, on December 7, 1898 at Canby. Their children were Clarence, Clara, Selma, Hazel, Alice, Jennie, Comfort, Elvin and Marvin. Helge died April 18, 1932.

Johnson, Lowell and Karen Christianson, Ardell Collins and Judy Dene-kamp. The children were enrolled in Canby and Gary for the following term.

School District 95, the Burr school, was organized in 1902, and the school house was in Section 26, half a mile south of the village.

District 97 was also organized in 1902, and its location was first in the southwest corner of Section 12. It was moved about half a mile north to its final location. It was known in years past as the Hendrickson school or the Redtop school, from the color of its shingles. Districts 40, 95 and 97 closed in 1959 during the re-organization of the Canby high school area, and its pupils from that time have been transported to school in Canby.

While there never was a church built in Florida township, there have been two Lutheran congregations formed and existing consecutively. On May 15, 1883, Immanuel Lutheran congregation was organized under the leadership of Pastor S. E. Sorenson of the "Konferentsen" synod, according to O. M. Nordlie's book on the history of Norwegian Lutheran congregations in America. There were 46 souls recorded in 1883 and 78 in 1887. However, the group apparently dissolved in 1888.

Bethlehem Norse Evangelical Lutheran church was organized at Burr April 28, 1892, under the auspices of the United Synod. The affiliation was changed to the Norse synod in 1897, with Pastor Olaf Hoel of Canby serving the congregation until 1912 and Paul Moen from 1912 until his death. Several members of the organization left to join Florida Lutheran church which was organized in Freeland township, Lac qui Parle county, in 1879, and the membership of Bethlehem dwindled from 61 souls in 1892 to 55 in 1913. A few remained together, meeting in the Burr school, until 1925 when they joined St. Stephen's Lutheran church in Canby.

A more permanent group is the Burr Ladies Aid, which was formed in 1882 and is still an active organization, meeting regularly and working for worthy charities. When the latest addition was built to Senior Haven retirement home in Canby, the Burr ladies aid in 1968 gave $300 to be used for the purchase of a new piano or organ.

Engebret Simonson, who homesteaded in Section 2, taught parochial school in the homes and school houses before the churches were organized.

The little unincorporated village of Burr started out in life by the name of Stanley, which was what the railroad named its station when a siding was laid there in 1886, in Sections 23 and 24. Until 1895, the only business activity in the two-block townsite was grain buying. Farmers were anxious to have a trading center at Stanley, and finally Alfred Froberg opened a store there in 1895. At the same time, a post office was designated, and Froberg was given the privilege of naming it Burr, so the name of Stanley was dropped. Froberg served as postmaster from 1895 to 1907, when the post office was discontinued. It was revived a year later, February 6, 1908, with C. B. Kroger, the new storekeeper, as postmaster.

Swedish America- A Modern Viking Odyssey

By Charles Dickson

While records of Swedish immigration date back to 1638 with settlements on the Delaware and the vicinity of present-day Philadelphia, some historians believe Viking explorers may have reached American shores five centuries earlier. Intense migration did not begin until the 1860s when interests were stimulated by the press, by literature, and through general discussion in which opportunities in America were idealized. The majority of these Swedish immigrants were recruited from among the classes that felt attracted to America for reasons other than monetary, although reasonable assurance of economic success was essential. Later, economic motives became more important because of crop failures in the homeland. These were intertwined with political, social, religious, and other factors.

While some significant immigration to the U.S. was drawn to such eastern cities as Providence, Rhode Island; Hartford, Connecticut; and Portland, Maine the majority of newcomers went from western New York to the middle west, upper middle west, Rocky Mountains, and the West Coast. By 1930 there were more than one and a half million Swedes in America with about half a million being foreign-born and the other million being American-born of Swedish or mixed parentage.

From the eastern ports, the movement was to expand to western New York around the city of Jamestown. Then along to the ports of Lake Erie in Ohio, particularly Ashtabula; then over Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska, and the Dakotas. Later they came to Denver, Salt Lake City, and large cities on the West Coast from Seattle to Los Angeles.

The metropolitan areas of Chicago and Minneapolis received large numbers of Swedish immigrants; some smaller cities such as Rockford, Illinois and Jamestown, New York were dominated by Swedish culture.

Several rural communities in America have names which indicate their Swedish heritage: Stockholm, Maine; Gothenburg, Nebraska; Svea City, Iowa; and Lindsborg, Kansas.

There are today a number of significant repositories of Swedish family histories which contain valuable records of early immigration. The Swedish Pioneer Historical Society library on North Spaulding Avenue in Chicago contains rich documentary records of the Swedish-American experience including letters, diaries, family histories, newspapers, periodicals, and books to aid scholars in research study. The American Swedish Institute on Park Avenue in Minneapolis contains not only historical records but artifacts of Swedish and Swedish-American culture. The Fenton Historical Society of Jamestown, New York contains an entire room of records on Swedish immigration to that region of western New York. The Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center on the campus of Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois maintains extensive records of national immigration patterns and will aid those interested in genealogical research. The Swedish Colonial Society on Locust Street in Philadelphia is the oldest Swedish historical society in America. Its purpose is to collect, preserve, and publish records of early immigration including those of the Gloria Dei (Old Swedes) Episcopal Churches of Philadelphia and Wilmington, Delaware. Finally, the American Swedish Historical Museum on Pattison Avenue in Philadelphia has over 11,000 volumes and is especially rich in materials related to the New Sweden colony of 1638-1655. They also conduct genealogical searches.

Swedish immigrants were primarily Lutheran in religion. In their homeland they belonged to the State Church. In America, they established the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran Church, whose first congregations were in New Sweden, Iowa in 1848 and Andover, Illinois in 1850. The first Swedish Baptist church in America dates back to 1852 and became part of the General Baptist Conference with headquarters in St. Paul, Minnesota. The Swedish Mission Church, a free church movement with roots in Sweden, established what is today the Evangelical Mission Covenant Church. Many Swedish settlers who came to Utah and the Rocky Mountain states became members of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. There are excellent family records in the L.D.S. Library in Salt Lake City. There was also a Swedish Methodist Conference which later merged into what is today the United Methodist Church.

Numerous colleges have been established whose libraries contain excellent sources of genealogical information. These include Bethany of Lindsborg, Kansas; Gustavus Adolphus of St. Peter, Minnesota; Bethel of St. Paul, Minnesota; Upsala of East Orange, New Jersey; North Park of Chicago; and Augustana of Rock Island, Illinois.

SCANDINAVIAN GENEALOGY RESEARCH MANUALS

Volumes I, II, & III
0304, $19.25; T03. Ringbinder.

SWEDEN

BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO SWEDISH RESEARCH

0348, $4.00; T03. Finn A. Thomsen. 23 pp., ringbinder, 1984. Contains all basic information for finding and researching relatives in Sweden. Names and maps of counties and provinces of Sweden, major cities, common Swedish genealogical terms and common Swedish given names and much more.

BEGINNING SWEDISH RESEARCH

1854, $15.00; C09. Nancy Ellen Carlberg. 150 pp., paperback, 1989. This is a step-by-step guide to help you figure out what the name of your ancestor should be or might have been in case it was changed, where the records are held, and what records are available.

CRADLED IN SWEDEN

0349, $22.95; E03. Carl-Erik Johansson. 8 1/2 x 11", 203 pp. A practical help to genealogical research in Swedish records, this book includes language, jurisdictions, archives, handwriting of old records, naming systems, geography and history of Sweden. Parish name changes have also been included.

GENEALOGICAL GUIDEBOOK AND ATLAS OF SWEDEN

0350, $10.65; T03. Finn A. Thomsen. Ringbinder, c1981, 115 pp. This book lists the counties and provinces of Sweden and their location on the maps. All the parishes are listed by district, county and location on given maps.

UNITED KINGDOM

BRITISH FAMILY NAMES

THEIR ORIGIN AND MEANING

1894, $20.00; C09, #315. Rev. Henry Barber. 298 pp., cloth. (1903), repr. 1990. The main body of this book consists of a dictionary of about 8,000 British surnames, with such information as nationality, origin or etymology and, in some instances, references to sources such as Domesday Book, the Roll of Battle Abbey, etc. Barber also frequently cites the place of origin most commonly associated with the surname. Commences with an essay on British surnames and various lists of ancient appellations.

CENSUS RETURNS, 1841-1881

On Microfilm

0352, $7.00; G02, #2181. J. Gibson. 50 pp., wrappers, 1989. (These films include England, Wales, Scotland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man.) This guide shows what microfilm is available and where it is.

ELECTORAL REGISTERS SINCE 1832 and Burgess Rolls

0353, $7.50; G02, #2187. J. S. W. Gibson & Colin Rogers. 2nd ed., 60 pp., wrappers, 1990. Published annually since 1832, electoral registers list the names and addresses of everyone entitled to vote, noting the qualifications which brought each voter onto the register such as current residence or ownership of property. During most of the 19th century the printed registers were arranged in alphabetical order by constituency, while later they were arranged in street order by parish. Thus they are used widely by genealogists as a tool to locate individuals in the various decennial censuses. Until now there has never been a guide showing just where these amazingly informative lists can be consulted, but this present work addresses that problem and provides a county-by-county inventory of published electoral registers held in libraries and record offices throughout Britain.

THE HEARTH TAX, Other Later Stuart Tax Lists, and the Association Oath Rolls

0354, $7.50; G02, #2191. Compiled by Jeremy Gibson. 60 pp., wrappers, updated 1990. The Hearth Tax, for which records survive between 1662 and 1674, is the best known of taxation sources for local and family history, listing the inhabitants of most houses in England and Wales by county and parish. This booklet at last provides a clear and simple guide to the lists that survive in the Public Record Office and elsewhere, with notes on dates, condition, and published transcripts. Similar records for Scotland and Ireland are listed. Also included is an assortment of subsidy rolls, poll tax lists, and the "Marriage Tax" of the late 1690s. Additionally, references are given for the Association Oath Rolls for England and Wales, the Channel Islands and Transatlantic Colonies, which were signed by many of the adult male population.

IN SEARCH OF YOUR BRITISH AND IRISH ROOTS

IRISH AND SCOTCH-IRISH ANCESTRAL RESEARCH

0356, $60.00; G02, #1755. Margaret Dickson Falley. Two vol., 813 and 354 pp., indexed, hardcover. (1962), reissued 1984. The first volume describes genealogical collections and indexes in all of the major Irish repositories, as well as the published indexes, catalogues, and printed sources that are available in both Ireland and the US. The second volume is mainly a bibliography of family histories, pedigrees, and source materials.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS, 1750-1920

In England and Wales, Channel Islands, Isle of Man.

0357, $7.50; G02, #2186. J. Gibson. 64 pp., maps, wrappers, 1989. (These papers have much data of genealogical interest. This fine list shows where and when the papers were published, and where they can be seen today.)

MARRIAGE CENSUS

and Other Indexes in Great Britain.

0358, $6.50; G02, 2183. J. Gibson. 44 pp., wrappers, 3rd edition 1989. A guide to unpublished indexes to marriages, censuses, and other records in Great Britain and Ireland, most of which were privately compiled.

MILITIA LISTS AND MUSTERS

1757-1876, A Directory of Holdings in the British Isles.

0359, $6.50; G02, #2191. J. S. W. Gibson & Mervyn Medlycott. 42 pp., 2nd ed., wrappers, 1990. By law, a certain number of militiamen had to be recruited from among the able-bodied men in each parish. Thus lists of all those eligible had to be drawn up by the parish constable, and when these have survived (between 1757 and 1831) they constitute a veritable census. Along with the "Defense Lists"--the Posse Comitatus of 1798 and the Levee en Masse of 1803-4--and muster rolls of various militia regiments and local forces, these militia lists (in theory) are an almost complete census of the male population. Militias were generally raised on a county basis, and most of these voluminous records are found today in the various county record offices. This new work is a guide to the location of all such records in the county record offices throughout the British Isles.

POLL BOOKS c. 1696-1872, A Directory to Holdings in Great Britain.

0360, $7.50; G02, #2188. J. S. W. Gibson & Colin Rogers. 2nd ed., 60 pp., wrappers, 1990. Until 1872, when the secret ballot was introduced, voting was a public matter, and a record of just how people voted was frequently published. Going back to the 1690s, poll books have listed the names and parishes of the voters, often noting their occupations and voting qualifications, with their choice of candidate. Genealogists find these poll books indispensable because they identify individuals by parish, thus pointing the way to the location of other invaluable records. This guide lists concisely the location of all known printed and manuscript poll books in public repositories throughout England, Wales and Scotland.

QUARTER SESSIONS RECORDS In England and Wales.

0361, $5.00; G02, #2184. J. Gibson. 32 pp., wrappers. Second edition 1989. The Quarter Sessions records most likely to be of use to the genealogist are listed, and their locations are shown with their dates of coverage.

A SIMPLIFIED GUIDE TO RECORD OFFICES IN ENGLAND AND WALES

-- How to Find Them.

0362, $7.00; G02, #2185. J. S. W. Gibson and Pamela Peskett, Fourth Edition. 56 pp., maps, wrappers, Balt., 1989. Since the re-drawing of county boundaries in 1974 there has been a wholesale change in the location of record offices in England and Wales. Included are twenty one towns not previously covered. There are now many new county record offices, new archive departments (even certain divisions of the Public Record Office in London have changed location), and many consolidated and reconstituted diocesan record offices. This guide, designed to help you locate these record offices, has 92 maps to guide you. It also has addresses, phone numbers, a list of relevant publications, and a variety of information pertaining to each of the record offices in England and Wales.

SCOTCH-IRISH FAMILY RESEARCH MADE SIMPLE

0363, $8.00; S10. R. G. Campbell. 65 pp., 1987. Revised Edition. 1987. This book covers the "Irish of the North", or as we have come to know them the Scotch-Irish.

11 To possible relative named Fröberg. 12

Thank you, Frances, for your interesting letter.

I was born 1896, my father 1859!
my grandfather 1816

His father 1786

in Fröjered, he took name Fröberg my grandfather had 6 sons.

I don't know if they had any cousins on my fathers side, but I remember that my father said once that some relative

Fröberg had emigrated to USA and some to Finland. I myself have had 3 cousins emigrated to USA

Ragnar, Gunhild and Henrik Fröberg younger than I - all dead there.

I hope I can give you more information. It is possible that we are relatives. In spite of my age
I am very active so I enclose a report of today of my address on my Rotary entrance 50 years ago

Sincerely
Gösta Fröberg

Presidenten öppnade dagens sammanträde och hälsade gäster och medlemmar hjärtligt välkomna.

Gästande rotarianer: Distriktsguvernören Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar, Göteborgs RK; Stig Larsson, Mølleruds RK; Per-Olov Widesheim, Uddevalla RK; Erik Florén, Leif Lake, Karl-Love Lindahl och Sten Martvall, Vänersborg-Göta älv RK samt Lennart Bjerstaf, Magnus Blix, Göran Ericsson, Stig Larsson och Bengt Stare från Vänersborg-Brätte RK.

Besök i andra klubbar: Gunnar Lund hos Vänersborg-Göta älv RK den 21/3 samt Gunnar Johansson hos Vänersborg-Brätte RK den 17/3.

Klubbnytt: Presidenten påminde om styrelsemötet den 14/4 kl 18.00 i Skaraborgsbankens lokaler.

Dagens program: Distriktsguvernören Carl-Wilhelm Stenhammar inledde dagens program med en exposé över vad som under den senaste tiden förevarit inom rotaryvärlden. I Karlskrona-Rosenbom RK har man, som alla som läser Rotary Norden är informerade om, valt in fyra kvinnor. Detta kommer sannolikt att, efter förhör i Evanstone, leda till klubbens uteslutning. Distriktsguvernören ansåg hela affären såväl onödig som olycklig eftersom lagrådet i Singapore i maj troligen kommer att godkänna den proposition om kvinnliga medlemmar som då läggs fram.

Därefter redogjorde distriktsguvernören för Rotary's Convention i Philadelphia under pingsten. Som en särskild hedersbetygelse åt Sverige kommer en Sverigedag att arrangeras den 23/5 med medverkan av Björn Borg, Prins Bertil, Jan Carlsson m fl. Det kommer alltså att spelas tennis men också att skjutas med en av Regalskeppet Vasas stora kanoner (vilket medfört en viss nervositet hos de lokala myndigheterna) och naturligtvis hållas tal. Distriktsguvernören underströk att detta var en unik hedersbetygelse åt ett enskilt land och föranledd av Delaware-jubileet.

Efter denna internationellt betonade nyhetsinformation kom distriktsguvernören med ett sensationellt erbjudande åt dem som ville förlusta sig på hemmaplan. Lördagen den 28/5 klockan 13-18 är alla distriktets rotarianer med damer inbjudna till tedans. Lokalen blir Rotundan i Hindås, dansmusiken exekveras av Tranemo storband och sist men inte minst: Inträdet är GRATIS!

Distriktsguvernören vände sig därefter till Gösta Fröberg som blev rotarian för femtio år sedan. Gösta Fröberg kom alltså med i Rotary år 1938 och har upplevt en fantastisk utveckling av Rotary. Han fick dagen till ära mottaga ett av världspresidenten undertecknat diplom, ett medlemskort i 50-årsklubben, blommor samt ett nytt Paul Harris Fellow märke (av den äldre numera utgångna modellen) eftersom Gösta Fröberg i samband med fiolspel råkat skada sitt gamla.

Härefter berättade jubilaren själv minnen från sin första tid i Rotary. Han var med och startade Trollhättans rotaryklubb som hade sin första sammankomst den 3/1 1938 med 14 medlemmar närvarande. I samband med upprättandet av klassifikationerna uppstod vissa översättningsproblem vilket resulterade i att apotekaren Fröberg uppgav sig vara Chemist, en i och för sig korrekt översättning av apotekare men vars klassifikation enligt mer anglofila medlemmar motsvaras av Pharmacy, något som dock diskret rättades till.

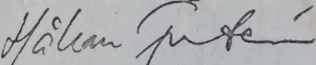

Sammankomsterna hölls på fredagar kl 12.45 och måltiden betingade ett pris på 2:75. Verksamheten fick dock ett abrupt och oväntat uppehåll på grund av en restaurangstrejk men efter fyra veckor var man i normala gängor igen. Man hade mycket intressanta föredrag då som nu. Det första bestods av greve Sparre, dåvarande chef för Aeroplan AB, som talade om "Moderna tendenser inom flygplanstillverkning". Andra ämnen från den tiden var stadskamrer Rhodin: "Trollhättans utveckling under 30 år" (detta föredrag befordrades till trycket och finns i Trollhättans arkiv), kraftverksdirektör Sylwan: "Elförbrukning" och Danielii: "Rost och rostfritt".

Dagens jubilar fortsatte så sin minnesvandring och medlemmarna fick lyssna till en med mycken humor kryddad framställning av en rotarians vedermödor och glädjeämnen. Inte minst gladdes vi åt en dräplig historia vari den mäktige direktören Nydqvist av Fröbergs maka, under en middag förväxlades med den lärde lektorn August Pettersson. En stor händelse under denna första tid var när titlarna lades bort medlemmarna emellan. Från den dagen, menade Gösta, skapades ett verkligt innehåll i begreppet rotarykamrat.

Särskilt mycket värmdes den avslutande berättelsen om hur Gösta Fröberg, som begärt sitt utträde i avsikt att bidra till klubben förnyring, blev uppringd av Lennart Bjerstaf som å det bestämdaste tillsade vännen Gösta att han under inga förhållande fick sluta eftersom klubben behövde honom. Gösta Fröberg lydde vilket vi idag är honom mycket tacksamma för.

Gösta Fröberg som verkligen levt upp till valspråket Service above self fick en hjärtlig och välförtjänt lång applåd för sitt mycket intressanta och humoristiska föredrag.

Med rotaryhälsning

Håkan Fredén

P.O. Box 2186

Winter Park, Florida 32790

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed a check for $16.00 for the Swedish-American Genealogist.

I would appreciate having the address of a Froberg in Sweden.
My husbands mother came to America in 1885 or 1886. Her parents were Charles August
Froberg, and Caroline Flinch - Froberg. They lived 40 miles from Stockholm.

If I had the name and address of a Froberg still in Sweden
I could possibly locate their relatives

Thank You,
Mrs. Claude Autgur

Your letter of inquiry, was given to me by Mrs Arthur La Plante. I am Hazel Shippy Froberg, and my husband Edward Emmanuel Froberg.

His Grandfather was named Olaf Froberg. He lived in Sweden and never came to the United States.

Olaf had three sons and a daughter. His brother Nelson came to the U.S.A. He settled near Escanaba Michigan, in the 1800's.

Olaf two sons came to Minnesota about 1890, Victor and Oscar. After about four years Victor returned to Sweden, and took over the family farm. He married and had a family.

Oscar worked on railroad construction, in several states. He was born on 1874.

In 1906, He came to Michigan and married Ida Pauline Soderstrom. She came to the U.S.A. in 1901/ Oscar and Ida knew each other in Sweden, they lived in the same town.

They had three sons. Ernest(deceased) Victor (deceased) and Edward. Victor has a son and a daughter living in Illinois.

Edward has four sons and four daughters.

Did you know that in 1980, there were 37 Froberg's living in Michigan?.

July 30, 1987

Now to you question about "Froberg" In the beginning it was Bellaire siding, named after the Bellaire family. When Oscar Froberg moved to the Sturgeon River Valley and did some logging, he needed railroad cars to ship out his logs. At time the railroad company set the car off at Bellaire Mich. This town is in the Lower Peninsula and over two hundred miles from Froberg's logging site. The Railroad company asked Froberg if he mind if they changed Bellaire to Froberg Siding, which they did.

I would like to ask a few questions.
Do you have many Froberg relatives in your area?
Is your Father living and where was he born?

There are quite a few Froberg's around Escanaba and Munising Michigan.

Sorry it took me so long in answering your letter,
Hope this letter gives you some satisfaction.

Edward E. Froberg.

Dear Frances;

Carl August Froberg migrated to Marshall, Missouri. We wish we knew why Missouri was chosen. He most likely had friends or relatives there.

He came to Kansas City, Kansas for a short time, and then moved to Rosedale, Kansas; all in Wyandotte County, Kansas. There is no Rosedale, Ks. anymore - having been consumed by Kansas City, Kansas many years ago.

As long as my husband can remember he was a stone mason. He died on the job not far from his home working at his trade. He was born April 16, 1843 and died March 28, 1923. He is buried in Forrest Hill Cemetery, Kansas City, Missouri - Jackson County.

There usually is Probate Records from the spouse that dies last. At some time the court records will show the children living at the time of death, and the disposition of property. Of course all States may not have the same laws. Most of mine have come from Missouri.

I could not find any any information on the family of my great-great Grandfather until I requested probate records. It listed my great-Grandmother as his daughter. I was excited to say the least. Ha. I believe his spouse was much older than he, and I didn't get any information on her.

Our Library is getting some new books on Missouri marriages and deaths so I hope to find some information in them when I can get the time to search.

Claude got a small inheritance from a brother of Carl August sent to America from Sweden in 1936, or 1937. Since he was deceased, and his daughter, Anna Cecelia Froberg- Aulgur, was deceased he got one-fifth of his mother's part. It was distributed by the Swedish-American Bank here in Kansas City, but we didn't think to ask any questions to learn who the brother was. It had been in the process of distrubution for several years. The brother in Sweden had died long before Carl August, but it took so long for Sweden to locate the heirs that Carl A. was also deceased. They told us it was very hard to get money out of Sweden, and that it would be very heavily taxes there before being divided.

They also mentioned that the brother in Sweden was a wealthy man. However, that long ago the wealth would be different than now. I mention this so that you can compare it with any information you may have or, learn later, as to relationship.

Claude's sister, Vivian, had small children, and I stayed with them as she had to sign papers. I think I would have remembered more about the circumstances as I was ten years younger than Claude, and 15 years younger than the sister, and those kinds of things fascinated me. My mother died when I was eight years old, and I became very interested family relations.

It is very dry here, and everything needs watering - so I'm tied down at home until it rains - no research. Flowers and vegetables wilt each day, and young trees have to have water each week.

Have also had illness in the family. One week I brought my Brother-in law and my sister up here for treatment. The next week I brought my brother here for treatment. By the time I get down there to get them - bring them to the Hospital for treatment it is a 505 miles round trip to take them home, and get back here.

Seems like I can get more information in the winter months.

Best Wishes,

Dimple

I didn't know there was a Froberg, Mi. until I looked to see where you were located, then noticed it.

Dear Frances,

I am glad that you appreciated my letter. It is strange that you have not yet your copy of SWEDISH AMERICAN GENEALOGIST (1987:IV). Maybe you should write to the editor and order it, if you haven't done that already.

Hopefully at least some of the nine Fröbergs will answer your letter. You never know.

Our Ö is normally pronounced rather like "i" in "first", while O as a rule is pronounced as "oo" in "cool".

Even if I mentioned it in my first letter, I will again stress the possibility of looking through the "birth records". If you know approximately from what part of Sweden your forefather was this information might help you very much.

Best regards,

Dear Ms Wooley: Thanks for your letter and your payment. I am forwarding to you a xerox copy of a letter from a Mrs. Aulgur who also is looking for Froberg connections. Also I am enclosing xerox copies of material from two volumes of the leading Swedish genealogical biographies, which may be related to you. Your question will be in the next issue of SAG.

Sincerely yours

FROBERG

Dear Francis:

I'm sorry I haven't answered your nice letter sooner. It has been so dry here we have had to water our garden and young fruit trees. We are six inches short of rain for the year.

I have been taking the Swedish-American Genealogist for three years now. In the last quarter they put my item concerning addresses in Sweden, and the Mr. Jan Vegelius sent the same names you sent me.

I haven't gotten around to writing to them yet. I have to find out what postage to use.

I would like to send return envelopes and postage if I can.

I think they might answer more quickly if they didn't have to make a trip for foreign postage.

I am anxious to get the letters ready. I hope you have heard from some of them.

I appreciate your sending them to me. I fell a couple months ago and dis-located my right shoulder. On the way to the doctor we drove over very rough "Rail Road" tracks, and it jarred me - and my shoulder went back in place. I had put my arm over on the door arm rest, and I went up & down in the car seat, but the door arm rest didn't move. I went on to the Dr., but I didn't have to use a sling. It was sore for some time, and of course, it was my right arm, and I'm right handed.

It was difficult to hold my arm up to type the letters, and I know I must type them - handwriting is so difficult to read.

Claude's Grandparents lived 40 miles from Stockholm when they left Sweden. His mother had herded their cow on a hillside where she found a stone-like material that peeled off like the material they used in wood heating stoves (also coal). I believe it was called mica. One could see the fire burning through it.

Well, I must quit for now. Have some bills to pay.

Sincerely,

Dimple Aulgur
Thanks again.

THE CLERICAL SURVEY RECORD OF SWEDEN

By Carl-Eric Johansson

The Swedish Church Law of 1686 states that the ministers of each of the about 2600 parishes in Sweden should keep a record of those attending the annual examinations. The parish ministers should keep certain rolls of all their listeners, house to house, farm to farm, and know their progress and knowledge of the assigned sections of the Catechism (Martin Luther's Little Catechism), and diligently admonish children, farm helpers and servant maids to read in book and with their own eyes see what God bids and commands in His Holy Word.

The Swedish word for this annual event is husförhör which can be translated house examination or clerical survey. The latter term is used by the Family History Library of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, which has microfilmed all the clerical survey records of Sweden from their origin several centuries ago to 1894. That year saw a change in the record keeping by the ministers. The examinations had slowly faded away in the last half of the 19th century and the record keeping mirrored this change from an ecclesiastical emphasis to a more civil one. The name of the record was also changed from husförhörsskrulle (clerical survey record) to församlingsbok (parish record) which is still in use.

The idea behind the record was that the ministers would check on and control the parishioners' ecclesiastical activities and knowledge of the State religion, which was Lutheran Protestantism since the reformation of the 1500's. Every adult member of the parish must partake of the holy communion at least once a year. This was to start with the person's confirmation at the age of 15 (or thereabout). Thus we find that the ministers at occasions did not record the members of the household under the age of 15. We also find that often the persons of the highest social class or estate - the nobility - were not entered on the roll, as they were considered above the communion control. The nobility enjoyed certain privileges that the other three estates - clergy (präster), burghers (borgare), farmers (bönder) - did not and this was one.

From the middle of the 1700's when the church records were made the foundation of the State record keeping of people, it was ordered that all persons should be entered on the clerical survey record. At the annual examination of the religious knowledge of the parishioners the minister would also check on their ability to read, and see that certain information about the civil status of each individual was properly recorded, so that at the year's end it could be submitted in statistical form to the Government Central Bureau of Statistics in Stockholm. This is the oldest such institution in the world, started in 1749 and is still in existence. This made the personal attendance at the annual examination very important and prior to 1889 you could be fined if not attending.

In the beginning there were no set forms for the records. Each minister made up his own but towards the end of the 1700's printed forms started to appear, each diocese making up its own forms, which changed with time. However it is about the same information on all of the different forms during the 1800's, so it is not too difficult to make sense out of them.

The clerical survey record is topographically organized in rotar (about 4-10 in each parish), villages and farms in the country side and rote, blocks and houses in the city. On the top of the page is listed the head of the household and below line by line the wife, children and other relatives. The children are usually listed in order of birth but sometimes listed with all the boys first and thereafter all the girls below. At the bottom of the page are found the names etc. of the servants. Besides the names of each person there would be listed the birth date and birth place of each individual. Sometimes the birth date would be replaced with the age of the person when the record was started. Added to this would be information about marriage (date), dissolved marriages, reading ability, religious knowledge and attendance at examinations and Holy communion.

The notes regarding the individual's ability to read and know the Catechism are usually in some kind of code, either personal for each minister or common for a whole area such as diocese. The keys to the codes were often recorded in the book on the inside cover, but many do not contain such.

The clerical survey records were kept constantly, that is, whenever the status of a person changed, the faithful recorder would enter it in the record. Such changes could entail moving in or out of the parish or moving from one place to another within the same parish, or a person's death, vaccination etc. The minister also recorded personal notes about an individual such as receiving a Bible, being sick, of weak mind, having two thumbs on the left hand (no problem identifying that person throughout his life in the record) etc.

Of course, not all parishes have clerical survey records back to 1688, when the law took effect. The books were often rewritten every five to ten years and sometimes the old one was thrown away, when the new one was ready to use. In Skåne (Malmöhus and Kristianstad Counties) it seemed to be custom to rewrite the record every year and to discard the old one. This means that few parishes in Skåne have clerical survey records prior to 1800. Many records contain indexes of every place within the parish and in some of the cities may also be found an index of all persons.

Some examples of the grading system

The following letters may be used as indications of knowledge:

- m - mediocre
- b - good
- o - excellent
- k - can read (recite) by heart
- f - understands

The knowledge may also be indicated by lines such as:

v - well
n - fairly well
i - poor
0 (zero) - nothing

- I - weak (poor) knowledge
- L - fair or passable
- J - justifiable
- I or L - good
- I - praiseworthy (cum laude)

[illegible]

NORWEGIAN LOCAL HISTORIES

By Carl ErIk Johansson

Among the most valuable tools in Norwegian genealogical research are the printed local histories, the so-called Bygdabok.

At least half of Norway is written up in these local histories.

The first part of the word — Bygd — is most difficult to translate. It refers to a geographical area, with or without boundaries, that is settled. It may be a parish, a district, a valley, a clearing in the forest, etc. that is inhabited by humans.

The latter part of the word Bygdabok — Bok — means book. Thus Bygdabok is a history of a certain area or, in other words, a local history. However, the Bygdabok is something more. Not only does it describe, usually in great detail, the area's fauna and flora, archeology, geography, schools and churches, but also its people, its population through the centuries, its farms and their owners and families through several hundred years.

The Bygdabok is most often a compiled history of all the farms within a parish, a valley, a district or a certain historical area, giving a genealogy of the farms, its owners and operators, its buyers and sellers, including a brief history of each family with marriages, children and other relatives.

These Bygdaboks have been compiled in Norway by local historians during the last century. It would be safe to say that at the present at least half of Norway is written up in these local histories. So, for example, a Bygdabok has been compiled from the following 39 of 53 parishes in Telemark County:

|------------|-----------|--------------|
| Bamble     | Høyalsmo  | Seljord      |
| Brevik     | Kragerø   | Siljan       |
| Bø         | Kviteseid | Skien        |
| Drangedal  | Langesund | Skotsøy      |
| Eidanger   | Lunde     | Solum        |
| Eidsborg   | Lardal    | Statthelle   |
| Flatdal    | Nissedal  | Tinn         |
| Fyresdal   | Notodden  | Treungen     |
| Gjerpen    | Porsgrunn | Tørdal       |
| Gransherød | Rauland   | Vinje        |
| Heddal     | Rjukan    | Ytre Flåbygd |
| Hitterdal  | Sannidal  | Øyfjell      |
| Holla      | Sauherød  | Åmotsdal     |

Additional histories from all of Norway are being written, printed and published constantly. They are often printed in two volumes, the first being a general history of the Bygd and the second the history of the individual farms.

The sources used in compiling the individual farm and family histories vary somewhat but consist mainly of church, census, probate, military and tax records. Added to these may be individual farm histories that have been kept by the owners through the centuries.

When doing Norwegian genealogical research, it would be well to find out if there is a Bygdabok from the research area and use it very early in the research. It should be noted, though, that the Bygdabok should be considered a secondary source and that the quality of the research and compilation varies greatly from book to book. However, they are marvelous to use in building the research skeleton. After that has been done, then the primary sources should be searched to confirm, correct and check the skeleton.

The most complete collection of Bygdabok is probably found at the University Library in Oslo which is supposed to keep a copy of all published books in Norway. The address is Universitetsbibliotek, Drammensvei 42, 0255, OSLO 2, Norway.

The Norwegian Institute of Local History has a register of most if not all of the local history associations in Norway. Its address is Norsk Lokalhistorisk Institutt Folke Bernadottes Vei 2, Oslo, Norway.

From the very large collection of Bygdabok (more than 100 feet of shelf space) at the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, we picked one at random.

It happened to be one from Telemark County called Solum Bygds Historie, Volume 2-Gårdshistorie (farm history). From the index we find that the 650 pages of the volume contain the histories of 73 farms, named (in the order they appear in the book):

GARDSHISTORIE

Klyve østre synes dog ikke å ha passet inn i lagmannens forvaltning, og 1678 er det gått over til bondeselveie, idet Niels Haraldsen er oppført som eier, den første selveier på Klyve i nyere tid.

Hans far, Harald, levde selv som byselsmann på Klyve, men var ellers en veistandsmann med betydelig jordegods: 1 Lien — 4 huder, Wiisestad — 1 1/2 hud, Nyhus — 2 lispd., Hakkestad — 3 lispd., Teigen — 2 lispd.

Om Haralds gårdsdrift og om den gården han brukte, forteller matrikkelen av 1665: Den tilhører Preven v. Ahnen, men er tilpantet Hans Iversen. Buskap: 3 hester, 24 storfe, 18 sauer. Utæd: 14 tn. kom. Avling: 55 th. kom. Lite skog. Intet fiske og intet rydningssand. Pålagt å anlegge humlehage.

Harold Gundersen var g. m. Joran Nilsd. De etterlot seg tre sønner: Niels som er nevnt ovenfor som eier av Klyve, Gunder og Christen. Den sistnevnte kjøpte i 1684 Bolvik av Iver Hansens Arvinger for 531 daler, men etter en lengre prosess måtte han i 1687 overlate denne gård til Halvor Borse som i 1692 anla sitt privilegerte jernverk der.

Niels Haraldsen var første gang g. m. Birthe Amunds., d. 1683. De hadde sønnene: Bertel og Amund og døtrene Kari og Martha. Han var annen gang g. m. Maren Olsd. Bjørnvedt, som døde 1705 og etterlot seg tre sønner: Ole, Gunder og Christen.

*Niels*s bror Christen som døde 1697, var g. m. Aslaug Kielsd. De hadde en sønn som het Gunder og som senere ble lensmann i Solum. Skiftet etter Christen var en innviklet historie, da han og Niels hadde hatt betydelige forretninger sammen. Boeteide bl. a. 1/2 av gården Klyve, ett hus i Hjeihen, to hus i Porsgrunn, buskap og avling og diverse krav på grunnleie av «Strandhusene», — bl. a. seks daler av ridmann Thomas Sommer på Lille Børsen og ni daler av sorenskriver Jespersen på Store Børsen. Enken og sønnen får hver 353 daler + andel i et gammelt krav på 801 daler hos Marcus Clod i Skien. Enken Aslaug ble 2. g. m. Lars Christensen, 3. g. med Christen Thorstensen og døde 1709.

Sønnene til Niels Haraldsen: Bertel og Gunder står i 1723 som eiere av Klyve o.sammen med Christen Haraldsøns sønn: Gunder. Den siste har halve gården: fem huder, alene, mens de to andre har den andre halvparten sammen.

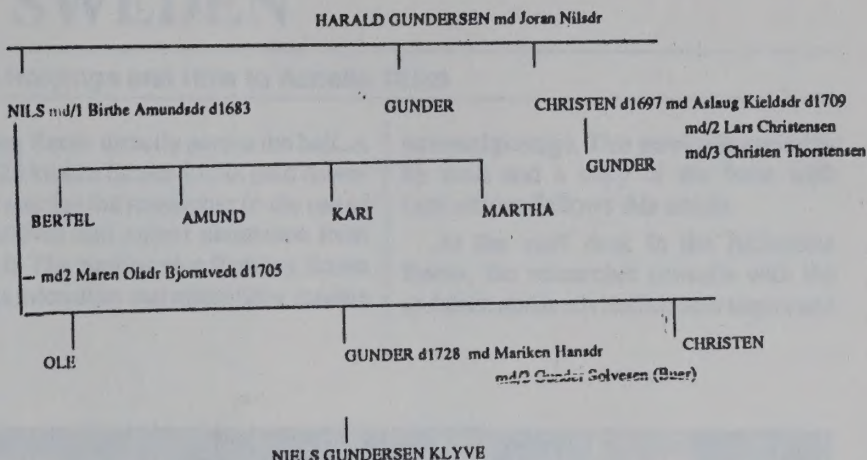

Buskapen på gården er: 4 hester, 24 storfe og 24 sauer. Utæd: 30 tr kom, og høyavling: 54 lass. Det er en husmannsplass der de kan så 1/2 tn havre og ei bekkverk der de maler til husbehov og under tiden også for naboen. Deter skog til «Huushjelp, Gierdesfang og Brendevæd. Seter hos andre».

Ved denne tid er ladestedet Porsgrunn i utvikling, og allerede 1723 lå på Klyves grunn 32 hus med tomter og hager «Hvoraf aarligen oppeberges udi Grundleie 27 Rdl.»

Gunder Nielsen Klyve var g. m. Mariken Handsd. De hadde en sønn: Niels Gundersen Klyve. Gunder døde allerede i 1728, og den 31. mars 1729 ble enken Mariken viet til Porsgrunnskjøpmannen, trelasthandler og gårdeier i stor stil: Gunder Solvsen.

Again, at random we picked page 260 which happens to describe part of Klyve farm. (See illustration at the left) That single page covers four generations during a period from about 1665 to 1729 and gives a detailed history of the people and the farm. The genealogy found on that page can easiest be understood by looking at the descendency chart of Harold Gundersen (above) who, according to the tax list (matrikel) of 1665, was a leaseholder of the farm.

THE HOUSE OF EMIGRANTS, VÄXJÖ, SWEDEN

Its Archival Holdings and How to Access Them

By Pamella Schwannecke Olson

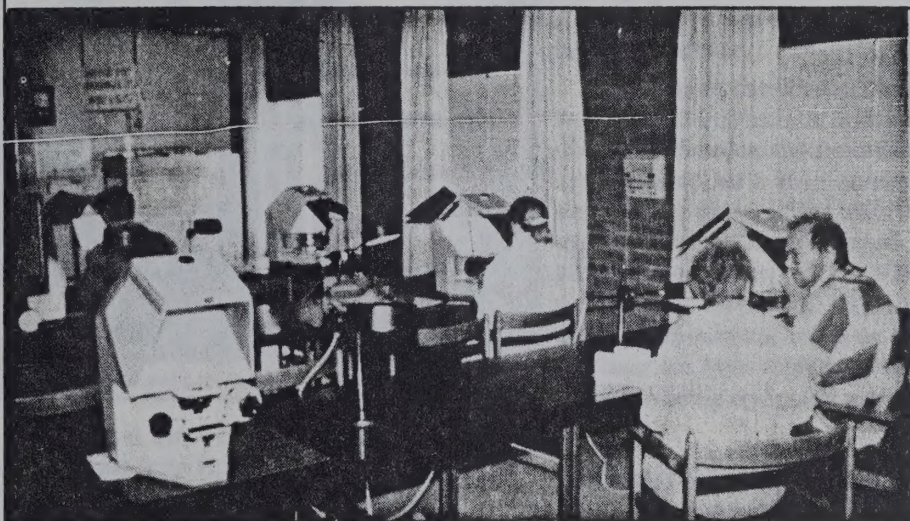

Researching a Swedish ancestor? You are fortunate. Given the Swedish propensity for accurate record keeping and the comprehensive parish records extant for that country, the possibility of locating the home of your ancestor and building a substantial family tree is almost a certainty. The House of Emigrants or Emigrant Institute at Växjö, Sweden, contains a superb collection of source material on Swedish emigration to North and South America, Denmark, Germany, Australia, and New Zealand, including the records of those emigrants who returned to their native land. The Institute's main purpose is to make their inventory of global material available to researchers. Equipped with the name of your emigrant and at least two additional facts (birthdate, year of emigration, or parish of origin), your search in their records should be rewarding.

The research facilities of the Emigrant Institute are located on the second floor of their handsome brick building. The stairs are to the right of the museum displays illustrating the background of emigration cycles. Upstairs, two areas are open to the public: the Reading Room and the Reference Room, which includes a library room with a small collection of books. Archival materials desired by researchers are brought to them for use in the Reading Room since the extensive facilities housing their source materials are not open to the public. It was my privilege to tour the archives, computer room and other facilities as a representative of Heritage Quest. Archivist Lars-Göran Johansson provided an instructive discussion of their holdings as he conducted my husband and me back stage at the Institute. In the Reference Room, a staff member will greet the prospective researcher and assign them a seat in the Reading Room directly across the hall. A fee of 25 kronor (about $3.70, paid downstairs) entitles the researcher to the use of the archives and expert assistance from the staff. The comfortable Reading Room with its microfilm and microfiche readers seats only twelve researchers. Seats are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis; however, reservations may be made by telephone before arrival. When the room is full, seats are assigned as they become available in order of the requisition requests filed.

Special provisions have been made to assist those who cannot stay to accomplish the desired research or who do not have enough basic information to access the files. They are given a form to take home, fill out, and return. For a fee of $40.00 the Institute will do one hour of research. This seems reasonable when one learns that they must pay the bank 35 kronor (about $5.00) just for cashing an American check and changing dollars to kronor, type up a reply, and pay for inter-with the desired research. The staff will assist with the microfilm readers, show a novice how to document and combine information from various sources, and will help with the language barrier by translating Swedish to English or vice versa. The source materials desired by the researcher are ordered on a special requisition form. Close to the consultant's desk in the Reference Room are shelves of index books called Registers and the archive's card catalogs. There are many volumes of Registers containing extensive indexes to the archive's various collections, such as the Swedish Passenger Lists, Biographies, and Diaries mentioned below. A copy machine is available. Around the corner in the Reference Room is a small room with a collection of

Swedish American Church Records run to 1,700 reels of microfilm at the Emigrant Institute. They have been filmed extensively in the United States and Canada by the Institute. The film negatives remain in the original churches. Camerawoman Linnea Pokok filmed in Washington and Oregon and the negatives from her filming are at the University of Washington. It is recommended that the researcher examine the membership records for Swedish-American congregations in the area where he lived. Such churches often recorded places in Sweden and dates of birth, marriage, and confirmation in the old country. A guide to these records, arranged by state, city or town, and congregation is Svenskamerikanska kyrkoarkiv, a printed survey of their holdings. There is also an

Swedish-American Societies and Clubs are another resource whose records have been microfilmed by the Institute. In the main catalog Svenska-amerikanska Förenings- och Företagsarkiv these films are listed by categories such as Vasa, Vikings, Temperance Organizations. Usually the original records are retained in the United States; however, the Swedish Society formed in New York in 1836 sent their original records to the Institute for safekeeping.

Swedish-American Newspapers on microfilm are an important resource. Svenskamerikanska tidningar is the catalog guide to the microfilms of the Swedish-American ethnic newspapers. There were about a thousand magazines and newspapers published by Swedish immi-

the United States by Lennart Setterdahl. Amerika letters, family Bibles and hymnals, photos, and personal papers such as those of the founders of churches in America, provide a valuable resource at the Institute. All the records of a Genealogical Bureau run for many years by Swedish researcher Ella Heckschers fill many shelves in the archive as do the Salvation grants, of which three are still being published in the United States. The Institute also has films of Swedish language papers in other countries including Melbourne, Australia, and books of excerpts from newspapers printed in Sweden with a concentration of Småland newspapers.

U. S. Federal Population Census from 1850 through 1910 have been purchased by the Institute for those states and counties in which most Swedish immigrants settled.

Diaries, Letters, and Interviews are among the priceless holdings of the Institute. A large set of interviews on tape was conducted with Swedish immigrants in Army Bureau for Missing Persons Records (since 1910). There are original newspapers and copies of biographies of Swedes in printed books. All these diaries, letters and other items are being indexed by computer as time and money permit. The Institute encourages the donation of copies of old letters, diaries, photographs and other unique archival items as a way to share with others.

The Computer Room at the Institute houses three terminals and is two years old. Under the direction of Catherine Bringselius Nilsson, they are currently working of several indexing projects. The most important project at present is a five-year effort to index all the Swedish-American Church records. Rockport, Illinois, had just been entered into the database.

Having completed our tour of the Institute and expressed our sincere appreciation to Mr. Johansson for his excellent commentary, I looked forward to a chance to utilize their collection for my own research.

I was assigned a seat in the Reader Room and discussed my problem with the staff assistant. The items I most wanted to see were some Swedish-American church records that I could not personally study in the United States without taking a trip to the midwest: records for churches in Joliet and Lockport, Illinois, and Brandon, South Dakota. Unfortunately for me, one of these films was out of the Institute being indexed by a volunteer. I began with the others, taking a break to walk around Växjö and eat lunch at a Conditori (delicious Swedish open-face sandwiches and pastries). Luck was with me that day. When I returned, they told me the film I had wanted had just returned in the morning mail. While working in the Reading Room, I observed other researchers receiving extensive help in translating items they had found in the Swedish records and met an American who flies to Europe frequently on business. He always allows an extra day to do research at Växjö, he told me.

The Emigrant Institute is a wonderful place to visit, study the background of the emigration phenomena in the museum displays and utilize their fine collection of records many of which are unavailable elsewhere. The Institute is open from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on weekdays. The best time to visit is in the spring, fall, or winter, as the building is thronged with visitors during the summer months when they receive most of the 35,000 people who come there each year. For additional information on the Växjö area and the displays on the cultural background of emigration at the Institute, please see Heritage Quest #25 p. 52.

A third article on research in Sweden will discuss the facilities and records available in Sweden's regional archives and public libraries.

We are forced to limit public services mainly to assistance in establishing where the emigrants came from in Sweden and their destination.

GUIDE LINES AND LIMITS SET FOR ARCHIVE RESEARCH SERVICES

Due to a tremendous increase in the number of requests for aid in Swedish archive research, we are forced to limit public services mainly to assistance in establishing where the emigrants came from in Sweden and their destination. Information about birth data will be furnished for the emigrants and their immediate families whenever readily available.

Before writing to us you should collect as much information as possible in your own country about the emigrant.

There is a basic fee of $40 for each emigrant traced. If the parish of birth is known to you and you wish to obtain extensive data for a family tree, you will be referred to one of our archivists to work on these projects during his evenings and other spare time or to a private family researcher. The same thing is valid for locating of possible living relatives in Sweden (Please ask for further information.)

Before writing to us you should collect as much information as possible in your own country about the emigrant.

1. Try to find out where the immigrant's children were baptized and confirmed. Their parents probably belonged to that church. If it is a Swedish-American congregation the place of birth is usually recorded.
2. Search for old letters and other documents from Sweden as well as photographs.
3. Obtain copies of naturalization records, marriage and death certificates, census records, city directories and deeds. This information is not always reliable but will help you locate the immigrant at a certain place at a given time.

Swedish archive research often has to start in America!

Please write clearly, always referring to the people by name and not as your grandparents etc. Be patient in waiting for an answer. Remember they cannot guarantee results.

If your preinformation is insufficient they will return your deposit.

You are always welcome to do the basic research yourself. Our offices and research section on the second floor of the House of Emigrants are open Monday through Friday 9-12 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. The exhibit halls are open weekends as well (Saturdays 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. and Sundays? 1-5 p.m.). Utvandrarnas Hus is located on Strandvägen close to the Railroad Station. ■

The United States County Courthouse Address Book

This small, but important book is a comprehensive, state-by-state listing of every county in the United States. Featured is the name of the county seat with a complete mailing address (including up-to-date 9-digit zip codes). Telephone numbers for each courthouse are included. Edited by Leland K. Meitzler of Heritage Quest.

SWEDISH REGIONAL ARCHIVES AND PUBLIC LIBRARIES:

MAJOR GENEALOGICAL RESOURCES OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

By Pamella Schwannecke Olson

Researchers should not hesitate to use the Swedish Government Archives, either in person or by mail. Public access to the archives has been a right since the mid-1800s, mandated by Swedish law. The Riksarkivet or Swedish National Archives in Stockholm was organized at the beginning of the 17th Century to house the Swedish state papers. Seven regional archives were opened at the beginning of the current century in Lund, Göteborg, Vadstena, Visby, Uppsala, Östersund, and Härnösand. Stadsarkiv serve the cities of Malmö and Stockholm. These archives contain the original parish records, probate files, inventory lists, court minutes and tax lists. Malmö and Göteborg archives also hold emigrant information files. The National Archives System receives heavy use today since genealogical labor, and settlement research have become popular movements in Sweden.

In May 1989, I visited the northernmost archive at Härnösand which holds the records for Västernorrland, Västerbotten, Gälveborg and Norrbotten. The Landsarkivet in Härnösand is an impressive yellow stone building at Rosenbäckshallén 18, not far from the city center. A huge facility built for military purposes in 1916, the building later housed an orthopedic hospital serving all Norrland. After the hospital closed, the Provincial Archive found it ideal for their expanding needs. The archives building was easy to find after we left our small, spotless Hotel Royal at Strandgatan 12, 871 45 Härnösand. Compared with U.S. cities, traffic was light and the archives has ample parking. There is no entrance fee and the receptionist directed us to the library where we received friendly and generous assistance from the staff.

Archivist Inga-Lill Söderberg pointing out original script in an ancient church book.

Major records available in Härnösand begin in the early 1600s with the County Administration records and Härnösand's Diocesan and Parish Church records. A parchment letter dates 1374 from Hälsingtuna Church is the oldest document kept at the archive. Of primary interest to genealogists are the original church books collected from the parishes. They cover the time period from when records were first kept in the 1600s up to about 1895. Parish registration of Sweden's population became a legal requirement in 1686; however, some parish books predate that era. These same parish church records are available on microfiche in the regional libraries throughout Sweden and on microfilm through the LDS Family History Libraries in the United States.

Arkivarie (First Archive Assistant) Inga-Lill Söderberg brought out the old parish record books for me to use and helped me trace Catherine Elisabeth Jakobsdotter Köck and her children through the church records. Using microfilm at Salt Lake City, I had noted their move from Attmar, Medelpad Parish, Västernorrland, to Borgsjö. I had been unable to find them in Borgsjö, Västernorrland. Now with Arkivarie Söderberg's experienced assistance, I found them in Bjästa, Bergsjö Parish, Gävleborg. The ancient script and those little accent marks which had deceived me were easily interpreted by an expert.

In gracious response to my request, Arkivarie Söderberg gave me a tour of the archival facilities and explained their holdings. There is a comfortable microfilm/microfiche reading room where researchers must work with the fiche to protect the fragile church books from wear and tear. I pointed out that we had just used the original books. "Oh," she said, "We often can bring out the books for visitors from America." I must admit there is a thrill to seeing the old parchment page on which the pastor recorded an ancestor's birth or marriage. These valuable original records are kept in temperature and humidity-controlled rooms at 18 degrees Celsius with a humidity tolerance of 40-50 percent. The microfilms are stored in a somewhat colder climate. Compactors are used to file large amounts of material in a space-efficient manner. Compactor shelves that move on tracks allow the archivists to adjust them for easy access between rows. Other sections of the archives are devoted to repair and rebinding of archival materials. A lunchroom with kitchenette is available to visitors.

Use of the Archive is heavy during the summer when many American visitors as well as vacationing Swedes arrive. A seat in the reading room can be reserved in advance and there is no charge to use the material. The staff speak English and will assist researchers.

Although the staff does not do research for the visitors, they use their expertise to make the contents of the archives and their applicability known, thus enabling researchers to find the sources they need. Their basic knowledge of how the communities were structured and functioned at the time of the researcher's period of interest is invaluable. As in the United States, with the growth of the population over a period of time, administrative areas

were revised, parish boundaries changed and new parishes formed. For example, much of the material concerning the district of Jämtland is held in the Hämösand Archive despite the fact that today Jämtland is under the jurisdiction of the archive at Östersund.

The Archive system's fundamental purpose is to preserve information for the community's future need for information. The Archives are the "public memory." This requires them to accept, safeguard, repair, restore, encapsulate, label and index materials placed in their care and make them available to researchers. Hämösand houses materials valuable not only to genealogists and historians, but also to physicians for genetic research, to economists, environmentalists and museum officials.

The word archive as used by the Swedish archive system is "a collection of documents, organically built up as the result of an enterprise." This means that the Provincial Archive houses over a thousand different archives or collections. Hämösand has probate records and inventories from the ancient days up to about 1868-1870 and is currently receiving later probate material. They are making registers (indexes) from these inventories. The tax lists from the early days, court records and proceedings, books from city halls and police departments form a major resource at Hämösand. There is also a small photograph collection.

The staff of the Provincial Archive also devote time to the formation of archives at the 750 authorities within their administrative district such as County Administrations, Tax Authorities, Courts of Law, Employment Exchanges, Schools and Parish Offices. The city and community archives retain the records back to 1862 for their areas including data on political parties, temperance movements, child and health care, etc. The Provincial Archive staff attempts to insure that the essential sources are preserved and superfluous material is eliminated.

A län is an administrative district and does not necessarily correspond to the historic geographical divisions or provinces of Sweden. The holdings of the various regional archives differ somewhat. For instance, Göteborg has court records to 1966, tax records to 1918, records of various assizes to 1900, magistrates courts to 1960, records of higher education institutions up to 1966 and the parish records to 1895.

In addition to the regional archives, Sweden has several specialized archives. The Riksarkivet in Stockholm corresponds to our National Archives and Library of Congress as it houses the minutes of the Swedish Riksdag (National Parliament) as well as medieval letters, papers of prime ministers and many tax records. The Krigsarkivet or War Archives, also in Stockholm, contains the general muster rolls, biographic material of officer's and soldier's contracts. The Central Statistical Bureau or Statiska Centralbyrån (SCB) in Stockholm has copies of all parish records from 1860 to 1967. These include the mandatory birth, marriage, and death records by year. The archives of the National Surveying Office in Gävle has maps and plats of all real property. The older maps are now being filmed and will become available on microfiche. No such list is complete without mention of the Emigrant Institute at Växjö which contains much original data on emigrants as well as copies of pertinent parish and emigrant records. [See Heritage Quest #25 and #26 for articles on the Emigrant Institute.]

For the convenience of the local population, various county libraries (Länsbibliotek) are designated to hold microfiche of all the parish records pertinent to their county. These fiche are also available on interlibrary loan within Sweden. I had opportunity to use the microfiche at the public library in Umeå, Västerbotten. In company with a relative who often uses their genealogical material, we were given the key to a special small room housing genealogical books, fiche and readers. Happily, I tracked my husband's morfar (maternal grandfather) through the filmed pages of the old books. During those hours a few other people came in to use the collections. There were ample reading machines and the room was quiet. There was, however, no way to make copies of the fiche. We returned the key on our way out.

The microfilm and microfiche of Swedish parish records are available for purchase from Svensk Arkivinformation SVAR. Write them at Box 160, S880 40 RAMSELE, Sweden. SVAR is a section of the Swedish National Archives.

Inquiries by mail are welcome at Härnösand. You will be notified if they have the material you need. The staff does only a small amount of basic research: approximately one-half hour at a charge of SEK 100 (about $15.00) payable in advance. More time-consuming research may be arranged with a qualified researcher associated with the archive for $20.00 per hour, a fee which does not have to be paid in advance. Last year we utilized this service. Agneta Olofsson, Genealogical Record Searcher (address: Kastellgatan 26, S-871 00) provided us with a detailed report of an hour's expert research. She was able to review all possible material focusing on the location of my husband's grandfather's farm with the time allowed.

The researcher with Swedish ancestry should have good results accessing the Swedish Regional Archive system thanks to their policy of making their collections available to all. ■

The House of Emigrants, Växjö, Sweden

Exhibits Define Why, When, How and Where of Emigration

By Pamella Schwannecke Olson

Karl Oskar looks determinedly ahead towards the new world: Kristina poignantly turns back to see her beloved homeland a last time. They are the subject of an evocative sculpture by Axel Olsson which stands in a place of honor at the House of Emigrants in Växjö, Sweden. The two-fold theme of this natural-wood carving illustrates the philosophy undergirding the only institute in the world devoted specifically to emigration and immigration research.

Sweden's House of Emigrants or Utvandranas Hus with its research center, The Emigrant Institute, contains a rich collection of primary and secondary records pertaining to emigration from Sweden to many countries throughout the world. In addition to making this inventory of global material available to researchers, the Institute seeks to enhance the visitor's understanding of the cultural forces promoting mass emigration from Sweden to not only the United States and Canada but also to Denmark, Germany, Australia, New Zealand and even South America through a series of museum-type exhibits.

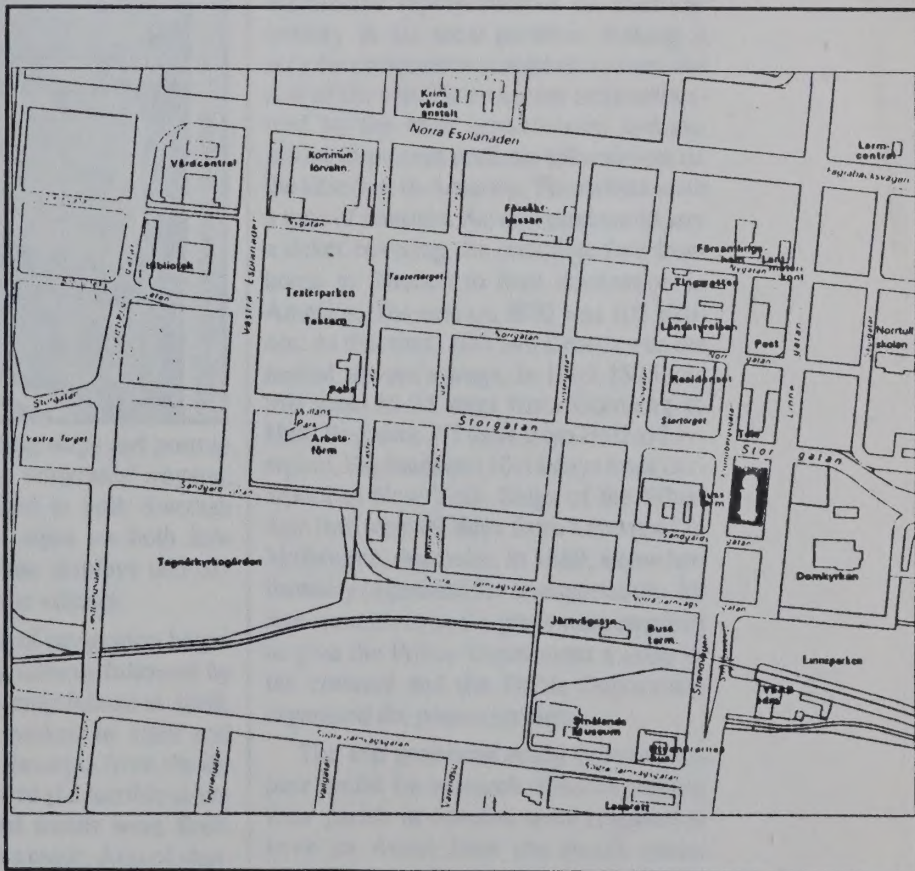

In May 1989, it was my privilege to tour the House of Emigrants as a representative of Heritage Quest and also to spend some time reading microfilm in their research room. Archivist Lars-Göran Johansson conducted me and my husband around the Emigrant Institute discussing the exhibits in detail, providing a preview of the research facilities, and showing us the environmentally-controlled storage archives and the computer room. He explained the details of their holdings and future acquisition plans. This article will emphasize the background of emigration as presented in the educational material incorporated in the exhibits. A second article will be devoted to a description of the fantastic variety and extent of research materials collected and indexed by the Institute, as well as to information on how the researcher can access these collections.

Prospective researchers, Mr. Johansson emphasized, should begin their visit with a thoughtful study of the museum-type displays. This series of definitive exhibits has been developed in response to the needs of Americans seeking their Swedish roots and Swedes seeking their American relatives. The exhibits, such as the Dream of America and the Australian exhibit, are designed to enhance the researcher's understanding of the reasons behind each historical wave of emigration. These waves were set in motion by political, religious social, and economic forces within both Sweden and the United States. The Archivist emphasized that it is vital for the researcher to understand these forces in order to make intelligent decisions for focusing his or her research agenda.

The statue of Karl Oskar and Kristina stands at the entrance to the Moberg Room, in recognition of the influence author Vilhelm Moberg's literary trilogy, The Emigrants, Unto a Good Land, and The Last Letter Home, had on the development of the Emigrant Institute. His books were later made into the popular motion pictures: The Emigrants and The New Land. Chartered in 1965 by Gunnar Helén (Governor of Kronoberg), the Utvandranas Hus moved into its present modern facility on the shores of Lake Växjösjön in 1968. That year, author Moberg donated his original manuscripts and research materials to the Institute. The Emigrant Institute is under the leadership of Director Ulf Beijbom, author of Swedes in Chicago, A Demographic and Social y of the 1846-1880 Immigration (Chicago 1972). Annual grants from the Swedish state, Kronoberg regional government, Västjörne municipal government and extensive private donations, led to the Knut and Alice Wallenberg Foundation, enable the archivists to constantly add to their collections and exhibits. After Knut Moberg's death in 1973, his study's cottage was moved to the Institute and his personal belongings are exhibited in the Moberg Room.

A real person formed the basis for Knut Moberg's stories about Karl Knutson and his wife, Mrs. Johansson inspired me. He explained that the author used the same type of research for his books as today's family researchers do, utilizing official records, diaries and interviews both in the U. S. and in Sweden. Mr. Moberg found the diaries of Andrew Peterson in the Minnesota Historical So-

1830s resulted not from an increase in the birth rate, but because significantly more children survived. Three factors led to the increase in population: the introduction of potatoes as a nutritious source of food, the widespread use of smallpox vaccine, and a prolonged period of peace. As the death rate dropped and the population grew rapidly, those without enough land searched in vain for work. There were few towns in Sweden in the 1800s. Thus moving to a town or city was not an alternative for those without employment on a farm. This push factor corresponded with a pull from America of available land and opportunity. The first stream of emigrants, mainly workers unable to own land, left Sweden in the 1850s. Exhibits illustrate these themes through dioramas of a Småland cottage, a shipping agent's office in Göteborg, a Minnesota log cabin, and the California gold rush. Other displays into deal with the crisis. Mass emigration resulted. Fifty thousand left for Germany, 100 thousand went to Denmark and 1.2 million emigrated to the United States. Earlier emigrants wrote to encourage relatives and friends to join them. Drawing my attention to a diorama of a lonely old lady in a hut, Mr. Johansson pointed out that many families had all their children leave during the second wave of emigration. This old lady, the documents show, subsisted by selling coffee to travelers.

Turning from exhibits illustrating the why and when of Swedish emigration, Mr. Johansson discussed how and where—the two questions asked by researchers. The fact that the largest number of emigrants left from the provinces of Småland, Halland, and Värmland often helps focus the search and pinpoint a place, he noted. Early emigration was by cart and railroad to nearby ports such as Kalmar and Karlshamn. Later the railroad went directly to the major exit ports of Göteborg (Gothenburg) and Malmö.

The major shipping lines in Göteborg established representatives all over the country in the local parishes, making it easy for prospective emigrants to learn the cost of the trip. These agents were authorized by the local governments and enjoined to present realistic information on the situation in America. The tickets were a type of contract. An emigrant could buy a ticket covering the complete fare from home in Sweden to final destination in America. The cost ca. 1870 was 105 Kronor. At that time, 100-140 Kronor was the annual servant's wage. In 1869-1875, the trip took 16-24 days from Göteborg to Hull, England; 3-7 days from Hull to Liverpool, England; and 10-14 days from Liverpool to New York. Ships of the White Star line took 69 days from Liverpool to Melbourne, Australia. In 1869, a new law formally organized the transportation. All representatives in the ports were required to give the Police Department a copy of the contract and the Police Department organized the passenger lists.

The trip generated many types of papers useful for research. Persons leaving their parish in Sweden were required to have an Attest from the parish pastor which they took with them to their new city and drew on them along with immigrant Peterson's last letter to his brother in Sweden to create the milieu for the lives of his characters.

The four historic reasons for emigration were all depicted by author Moberg in his trilogy, Mr. Johansson pointed out. Those emigrants wished political and religious independence from the controls of the state and the church. Economically, Sweden was experiencing a land and employment crisis. Almost entirely a farming population prior to 1900, Sweden had a major population increase starting in the 1820s. The baby boom during that decade and the clude models of sailing ships and portray the hardships of the emigrants' voyage. Exhibits are identified in both Swedish and English. Audio tapes on both languages accompany the displays and explain the themes to the visitors.

The second wave of emigration began with a series of crop failures followed by a total, nation-wide crop failure in 1868. This second wave peaked in 1869 and again in the 1880s. Excerpts from the diaries of that era record the terrible situation. Farmhands and maids were fired. Beggars swamped the roads. Acts of charity by the more fortunate were inadequate parish in America. The paper attested to the baptism, confirmation and church standing of the emigrant. When the Emigrant Institute microfilmed church records of the 1930s. Also during this decade, Sweden began to develop her social welfare system. The records of those who returned are also available at the Institute.

in New York state, they found many of these Attests in the church files. Each emigrant's name was also entered on a parish Utflytningslangd (a list of those leaving the parish). Some left without official sanction and in those cases the church records for that individual often are blank, and the entries having suddenly stopped. The most important records of the emigration are the Malmö and Göteborg Police Passenger Lists and the American and Canadian Passenger Lists. In many cases, there were letters to and from contacts in the new land. The archive holdings contain 35,000 America letters catalogued by writer, recipient, and place name in both Sweden and North America.

Emigration slowed after the turn of the century. The economic situation had changed. By 1910, sixty-five percent of Swedes were living in towns. Farming was not the only option for employment. In North America most of the open land had been claimed. Many Americans do not realize that not all immigrants took out United States citizenship. In fact, 300,000 Swedish immigrants returned to their mother country—one-fifth of those who originally sought a new life. Economic exigencies influenced many to leave the United States during the Great Depression

Of particular interest to Swedish visitors searching for relatives in America is a map showing each town in the United States named for a place in Sweden. There is a New Sweden in Maine, Nebraska, and Texas. A majority of emigrants from Småland province settled in Minnesota. Chicago County was ninety percent Swedish. The bond with Minnesota is so strong that the Institute sponsors Minnesota Day on the 2nd Sunday in August each year. Last year a special exhibition celebrated the 350th anniversary of Swedish settlement in Delaware. Swedish visitors of all ages flock to the Institute. Many are studying emigration in enrichment classes or gymnasium (high school) and the Institute is a popular excursion for all levels of school children.

The House of Emigrants, located at Strandsvägen 4, Växjö, Småland, is open weekdays 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. An admission fee of 10 Kronor (currently less than two dollars) is charged to see the exhibits on the first and second floors. Among the treasures on display are several major works of art. Large canvases such as Geskel Saloman's Emigrants Arriving at Gothenburg and The America Letter by Jacob Kulle fascinate the visitor, as does the three-dimensional Arrival in New York by Willy Turesson. Carl Milles' study for an emigrant monument decorates the inner courtyard. Visitors may view a 35-minute film tape about the Emigrant Institute, purchase books and postcards, and relax in the coffee shop.

Those planning to visit the Emigrant Institute should be forewarned that they receive over 35,000 visitors per year and are extremely busy in the summer. The city of Våxjö is in the heart of Småland's crystal kingdom and there are many interesting things to see in the area. Våxjö Tourist Information is just a few blocks from the Institute at Kronobergsgatan 8. Hotels in the city are very convenient and reasonable accommodations can be found in small towns twenty minutes away.

Forty percent of the American visitors utilize the research department during their stay. A fee of 25 Kronor is charged to use the records and includes expert service from the permanent staff. A future article on the Emigrant Institute will take you on a tour with Archivist Lars Göran Johansson through the reading room, library and behind the scenes into the archives and computer room where selected collections are being fully indexed. Information will be included to assist you in using these collections. ■

According to Kurzweil, "Sallyann Sack has not only written what is surely the most thorough guide to genealogical sources in Israel. She has also offered an absolutely convincing case that a trip to Israel will serve the Jewish family historian well. And, at the same time, she has transformed the genealogical quest from a pastime into a pilgrimage. Now that her book exists, many Jewish genealogists will wonder how we got along without it. I consider the book essential." ■

Researching My Ancestors . . . Froberg, Michigan

Frances Froberg Wooley*

While working on a project for my employer, where I measured distances between dealers and their nearest distribution center, I spent considerable time reading road maps of all the states. This is how I happened to stumble on a town in the State of Michigan named Froberg.

I was very interested because Froberg is my maiden name. I immediately wrote a letter to the postmaster at Froberg requesting information about the town with the same name as mine. It was therefore a real disappointment when my letter was returned to me with the notation that there was no post office at that location.

It wasn't until I became totally involved with trying to locate my ancestors that I again thought about the town of Froberg, Michigan. So, I checked to see in which county Froberg was located and wrote a letter to the county seat, requesting information about Froberg.

Imagine my surprise when I received a reply from people named Froberg. They had been given my inquiry by the Baraga County Historical Society and since they knew the history of Froberg, MI and their name was Froberg, they responded and gave me the following information.

Olof Froberg lived in Sweden and never came to the United States. He had, however, three sons and a daughter, of which two of his sons, Victor and Oscar, emigrated to Minnesota ca. 1890. After about four years Victor returned to Sweden, where he took over the family farm, married and raised a family.

The other son, Oscar,<sup>1</sup> born in Sweden in 1874, worked on railroad construction in several states. In 1906 he came to Michigan, where he married Ida Pauline Soderstrom. They had known each other in Sweden, having lived in the same community. She arrived in America in 1901.

The story, according to one of Oscar's sons, is that the town of Froberg was originally known as Bellaire Siding, having been named after the Bellaire family of that area. When Oscar moved to the Sturgeon River valley in the upper peninsula of Michigan and did some logging, he needed railroad cars to ship out his logs. At times the railroad company set the cars off at another Bellaire in Antrim County,

Michigan in the lower peninsula and well over 200 miles from the Froberg logging site. To correct the problem, the railroad asked Froberg if he would mind if they changed the name of Bellaire Siding to Froberg Siding, which they did. I found this bit of history very interesting and can only thank Edward and Hazel Froberg of Baraga, MI for sharing it with me. My Swedish grandfather would have been very pleased and proud to know that there was a town in the United States that shared the same name as his, even if he had nothing to do with the naming of it. And up to this point, we have not been able to prove a connection between the Frobergs of Baraga County and those of Berrien County, MI, where my grandfather settled.

A Bible Inscription from Dalarna

An interesting Bible inscription with provenance from the province of Dalarna in Sweden has recently been found at the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis. An old illustrated family Bible, printed in Norrköping 1851 has the following inscriptions, here translated into English:

On the inside of the front cover

"This Holy Bible belongs to me, Johannes Larsson Hedin and my beloved wife, Maria Persdotter, with whom I was joined in matrimony 7 Nov. 1859 in Lima Parish and Gråheden village. This Bible was purchased 8 Jan. 1860 and cost me 11 Riksdaler and 25 öre Riksmynnt."

(Then follows the first verse of Psalm 168 in the old Swedish Psalm Book, "Store Gud som handen räckte", written by Johan Åström in 1816).

"Johannes Larsson Hedin
Lima and Gråheden 9 March 1862
Soli Dei Gloria"

—oOo—

On the end sheet at front of the Bible:

"As stated on the opposite page I was born at a summer cabin (fåbod) named Mattsås 21 July 1833. J. Hedin.

And my wife was born at Östra Ärnäs (also in Lima Parish) 11 July 1835 and died 12 Feb. 1902.

School District 95, the Burr school, was organized in 1902, and the school house was in Section 26, half a mile south of the village.

District 97 was also organized in 1902, and its location was first in the southwest corner of Section 12. It was moved about half a mile north to its final location. It was known in years past as the Hendrickson school or the Redtop school, from the color of its shingles. Districts 40, 95 and 97 closed in 1959 during the re-organization of the Canby high school area, and its pupils from that time have been transported to school in Canby.

While there never was a church built in Florida township, there have been two Lutheran congregations formed and existing consecutively. On May 15, 1883, Immanuel Lutheran congregation was organized under the leadership of Pastor S. E. Sorenson of the "Konferentsen" synod, according to O. M. Nordlie's book on the history of Norwegian Lutheran congregations in America. There were 46 souls recorded in 1883 and 78 in 1887. However, the group apparently dissolved in 1888.

Bethlehem Norse Evangelical Lutheran church was organized at Burr April 28, 1892, under the auspices of the United Synod. The affiliation was changed to the Norse synod in 1897, with Pastor Olaf Hoel of Canby serving the congregation until 1912 and Paul Moen from 1912 until his death. Several members of the organization left to join Florida Lutheran church which was organized in Freeland township, Lac qui Parle county, in 1879, and the membership of Bethlehem dwindled from 61 souls in 1892 to 55 in 1913. A few remained together, meeting in the Burr school, until 1925 when they joined St. Stephen's Lutheran church in Canby.

A more permanent group is the Burr Ladies Aid, which was formed in 1882 and is still an active organization, meeting regularly and working for worthy charities. When the latest addition was built to Senior Haven retirement home in Canby, the Burr ladies aid in 1968 gave $300 to be used for the purchase of a new piano or organ.

Engebret Simonson, who homesteaded in Section 2, taught parochial school in the homes and school houses before the churches were organized.

The little unincorporated village of Burr started out in life by the name of Stanley, which was what the railroad named its station when a siding was laid there in 1886, in Sections 23 and 24. Until 1895, the only business activity in the two-block townsite was grain buying. Farmers were anxious to have a trading center at Stanley, and finally Alfred Froberg opened a store there in 1895. At the same time, a post office was designated, and Froberg was given the privilege of naming it Burr, so the name of Stanley was dropped. Froberg served as postmaster from 1895 to 1907, when the post office was discontinued. It was revived a year later, February 6, 1908, with C. B. Kroger, the new storekeeper, as postmaster.

Researching My Ancestors . . . Froberg, Michigan

Frances Froberg Wooley*

While working on a project for my employer, where I measured distances between dealers and their nearest distribution center, I spent considerable time reading road maps of all the states. This is how I happened to stumble on a town in the State of Michigan named Froberg.

I was very interested because Froberg is my maiden name. I immediately wrote a letter to the postmaster at Froberg requesting information about the town with the same name as mine. It was therefore a real disappointment when my letter was returned to me with the notation that there was no post office at that location.

It wasn't until I became totally involved with trying to locate my ancestors that I again thought about the town of Froberg, Michigan. So, I checked to see in which county Froberg was located and wrote a letter to the county seat, requesting information about Froberg.

Imagine my surprise when I received a reply from people named Froberg. They had been given my inquiry by the Baraga County Historical Society and since they knew the history of Froberg, MI and their name was Froberg, they responded and gave me the following information.

Olof Froberg lived in Sweden and never came to the United States. He had, however, three sons and a daughter, of which two of his sons, Victor and Oscar, emigrated to Minnesota ca. 1890. After about four years Victor returned to Sweden, where he took over the family farm, married and raised a family.

The other son, Oscar,<sup>1</sup> born in Sweden in 1874, worked on railroad construction in several states. In 1906 he came to Michigan, where he married Ida Pauline Soderstrom. They had known each other in Sweden, having lived in the same community. She arrived in America in 1901.

The story, according to one of Oscar's sons, is that the town of Froberg was originally known as Bellaire Siding, having been named after the Bellaire family of that area. When Oscar moved to the Sturgeon River valley in the upper peninsula of Michigan and did some logging, he needed railroad cars to ship out his logs. At times the railroad company set the cars off at another Bellaire in Antrim County,

Michigan in the lower peninsula and well over 200 miles from the Froberg logging site. To correct the problem, the railroad asked Froberg if he would mind if they changed the name of Bellaire Siding to Froberg Siding, which they did. I found this bit of history very interesting and can only thank Edward and Hazel Froberg of Baraga, MI for sharing it with me. My Swedish grandfather would have been very pleased and proud to know that there was a town in the United States that shared the same name as his, even if he had nothing to do with the naming of it. And up to this point, we have not been able to prove a connection between the Frobergs of Baraga County and those of Berrien County, MI, where my grandfather settled.

A Bible Inscription from Dalarna

An interesting Bible inscription with provenance from the province of Dalarna in Sweden has recently been found at the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis. An old illustrated family Bible, printed in Norrköping 1851 has the following inscriptions, here translated into English:

On the inside of the front cover

"This Holy Bible belongs to me, Johannes Larsson Hedin and my beloved wife, Maria Persdotter, with whom I was joined in matrimony 7 Nov. 1859 in Lima Parish and Gråheden village. This Bible was purchased 8 Jan. 1860 and cost me 11 Riksdaler and 25 öre Riksmünt."

(Then follows the first verse of Psalm 168 in the old Swedish Psalm Book, "Store Gud som handen räckte", written by Johan Åström in 1816).

"Johannes Larsson Hedin
Lima and Gråheden 9 March 1862
Soli Dei Gloria"

—oOo—

On the end sheet at front of the Bible:

"As stated on the opposite page I was born at a summer cabin (fåbod) named Mattsås 21 July 1833. J. Hedin.

living in the township in 1882 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Froberg, he was a foremost promoter of the development of Burr, served as storekeeper and first postmaster, and was a grain buyer for one of the first elevators. He was born in Sweden May 1, 1865 and immigrated with his parents in 1879, residing in Massachusetts nearly a year and then moving to Beloit, Wisconsin, where the father was a mechanic. In 1882 they settled on land in Section 35, one mile south of Burr. Alfred had received his education in Sweden, but he learned English by taking a correspondence course. He married Effie West, daughter of the John Wests, on May 25, 1896. Their children were Eleanor, Esther, Viola, Alfred Jr., Minnie, Myrtle, Nellie, Edward and Evelyn. Alfred was assessor, school clerk and township supervisor. After Burr was established by the name of Stanley in 1886, the railroad putting in a siding and a station, Froberg became interested in the grain buying business. He moved to Burr in 1895, and in 1902 put up a home and a large store building, and as a sideline he wrote insurance and promoted real estate. The name Stanley was changed to Burr in 1895 when a post office was established, with Froberg as postmaster. Mr. Froberg died at his home in Burr August 1, 1924. His father died May 12, 1909.

The second owner of Torger Olson's claim was J. Martin Jensen, who came from Iowa in 1882. Jensen was born at Leland, Illinois on July 14, 1852 and the family moved to Mitchell county, Iowa, in 1858. He was married in 1875 to Maria Hanson, who died in 1916. Their children were Mrs. Carl Iverson, Mrs. Adolph C. Westby, Mrs. Elmer Erickson, Ebert, Henry, Guy and Jesse. Mr. Jensen died September 27, 1930.

Knute Halstenson chose the south half of Section 34 for his homestead and tree claim in 1883, moving the family out to Florida township from Canby, where he had been working on the section for three years. They came to Canby in 1880 from Valdres, Norway. Knute was born in Valdres January 21, 1855, and was married to Sigrid Olsdatter, born March 16, 1852 at Aadalen. Their children were Helge, Melvin, Milo and Mrs. Sam Knutson.

The first home was a dug-out on the bank of the creek. At the time the claim was secured, Halstenson understood the farm to be government land; however, it was found to be state university land, and instead of receiving it as a grant, he paid for it at the rate of $6 and $8 per acre.

Helge Halstenson was born August 14, 1874 in Norway. His father immigrated first to America, coming May 17, 1880. The family followed a few months later, arriving in Canby the day before the October, 1880 blizzard began. Helge married Julia Sorby, daughter of Lars and Boletta Sorby of Florida township, on December 7, 1898 at Canby. Their children were Clarence, Clara, Selma, Hazel, Alice, Jennie, Comfort, Elvin and Marvin. Helge died April 18, 1932.

a pastor. He died in February, 1936 at the age of 78, in Minneapolis, leaving his wife and children Dr. Conrad Rogne; Ida, wife of Rev. Harold Farseth, and Mrs. P. M. Rensvald.

Ragnhild, born March 20, 1869, married Chresten Olson, a Florida township pioneer who homesteaded in Section 26 in 1879. Chresten was born at Pavestad, Norway on February 25, 1850. He immigrated at the age of 19 to La Crosse, Wisconsin and also worked at Winona and Rochester, Minnesota before coming to Florida. They were married in Canby on June 30, 1890, and made their home on the farm in Florida until 1916 when they moved to Canby. Their children were Milo, Henry, Oscar, Elmer, Roy, Alma, Esther, Alvida and Agnes. Mr. Olson served as a county commissioner from 1902 to 1909. He died March 4, 1931, and Mrs. Olson died January 12, 1962 having attained the age of 92 years.

Thedwell Rogne was born January 31, 1874 in Manitowoc, Wisconsin and was five years old when the family migrated to Florida township. He was married May 3, 1906 to Gunda Orvold, and they farmed in Florida township until they retired in 1945 and moved to Canby. Their children were Elmer, Arnold, Mrs. Iver Forland, Mrs. Kent Bredeson, Mrs. Lavern Sontag, and Mrs. Alvin Heise. Mr. Rogne died August 18, 1954.

Lars Olson Kopperud and his wife Bertha Wethal, 1880 settlers in Florida township, Section 10, were born in Norway. They were married there at Ullensaker on April 9, 1875 and came to America in 1878. Their children were Ed, Chris, Anton and Laura. Mr. and Mrs. Kopperud moved to Canby in 1920, leaving their son Anton in charge of the farm.

Anton Bernhard Kopperud was born July 13, 1888 in Florida township. He married Arna Syverson March 27, 1920. Arna passed away January 2, 1935 and Anton followed in death February 10, 1939. He began serving in public office at the age of 21, when he was elected treasurer of his school district. He was elected county commissioner in 1936, and served on the county welfare board and the county relief administration. He was clerk of Florida township for seventeen years, and in 1929, on the fiftieth anniversary of the township he compiled a history documented by the records of his office. It was read at the fiftieth annual meeting of Florida township on March 12, 1929.

Among the incidents recorded in Kopperud's history was the snow-storm death of a young man named Julius Graveland, lost in a snowstorm in the winter of 1882. His body was found the next spring in Section 23 just north of where Burr was later established. Another tragedy was the death by lightning of the two little Knute Halstenson children, a boy and a girl, and a boy named Monroe Boyington, on June 28, 1897. They were herding cattle and had taken shelter in a little shack.

NORWEGIAN RESEARCH

By Carl-Erik Johansson

The main record sources in Norwegian genealogical research are 1) parish registers, 2) census records, 3) probate records and 4) printed locality histories (bygdebok), which abound in Norway. More than half of the country's parishes and areas are covered by these excellent books that often lists the owners and occupants of the farms through several centuries.

This article will deal with part of the content of the parish registers, mainly as confirmation and moving in or out of the parish may be recorded. The parish minister kept the main record but an additional record was often kept by the parish clerk (klokker).

The style and content of the parish records vary widely from one period to another. Prior to 1814 there was no established format for the record or its keeping. Each minister used his own imagination and ability to enter each event, so that the record became more or less a log of his own ecclesiastical endeavors. See the divided into clerical districts (prestegjeld), each of which may contain one or several parishes (sogn).

The most important ecclesiastical unit or jurisdiction for the genealogist is the clerical district (prestegjeld) as most of parish registers were kept there. Due to the inaccessibility of certain areas and the sparse population in others of Norway a priest would often be in charge of an area too large to contact on a regular basis. A clerk (Klokker) would be appointed in each parish with the clerical district to assist the priest. And often both kept records, the klokker for his parish and the priest for all parishes within his clerical district. Thus, if a parish register is not found under the name of the parish, it is probably listed under the name of the clerical district.

The Parish Registers (Church Records)

The State Church of Norway (Lutheran since the 1500s) was charged by the Norwegian Government to keep records of the population since the latter part of the 1600s. The charge was to keep a record of the religious ordinances performed by the clergy. In each of the parishes in Norway — about 1000 in all — a record was kept of the christening and/or birth of a child, the banns and/or marriage of a couple and burial and/or death of a person. In addition some other events in a person's life, such sample from 1728 with transliteration and abbreviations written out in full and a line by line (nearly word by word) translation into English.

In 1814 the church introduced for the first time a standard form which the ministers were required to use. Changes were made around the years 1828 and 1875. All three standard forms are arranged in columns with headings. See an example of the column heading with translation for the three sets of 1814-1827.

HOW TO FIND A PARISH

Ecclesiastically Norway is divided into dioceses (stift or bispedømme) made up of deaneries (prostie). These are in turn

Each parish is subdivided into farms and villages, each with a special name. In Norwegian research it is an absolute necessity to know the names of the farms and villages. Many times two or more persons in a parish would have the same name and be distinguished only by their residence. In fact, most often a person would use as his surname the name of the place where he lived. If he moved he would take the new locality name.

An easy way to identify a parish is by using the Norwegian Postal Guide, called Norsk Stedfortegnelse. It covers just about every place, large or small, in Norway in alphabetical order. It indicates what the place is, that is, farm, village etc. and the clerical district and county (fylke) in

Dear Madam,

I am happy to inform you that I have found your grandmother - Helene, born June 24, baptized in the church of Sarpsborg July 28, 1860 as the daughter of the worker Anders Andersen Opsund and his wife, Marie Helvig Andersdatter.

The baptism is noted on page 37 in the first parish register of Sarpsborg.

If you want me to do further genealogical investigations for you, I advice you to let me work for e.g. US $ 90 (6 hours). But in case, just tell me, do not forward any money. It will take about three months till I can do the research.

Yours truly

Terje Gudbrandson

"Han Ola og Han Per"

The comic strip entitled "Han Ola og Han Per", appeared in the Norwegian immigrant newspaper Decorah-Posten from 1918 to 1935. It is most likely the only strip created by and for any ethnic group in America.

Dr. Einar Haugen, focuses on the importance of this strip as a socio-linguistic document reflecting an immigrant society in transition. Through the strip's main characters - Ola, Per and Lars - the reader is introduced to a type of Midland Norwegian, a dialect of East Norwegian Lowlands and urban Norwegian served with an American-English wrapping.

Get familiar with the language once spoken in Spring Grove, Minnesota, and enjoy the drawings as well.

Dr. Einar Haugen,
Professor of Scandinavian Studies and Linguistics at Harvard University since
Retired 1975.

Norwegian Deserters

The problem of desertion - the illegal entry of Norwegian seamen to American harbors - has often been discussed among Norwegian historians. How many were they - and how did they effect the Norwegian settlements? Based on new sources - the Annual Reports of the Swedish-Norwegian consul in New York, David C. Mauk throws new light on this problem. He highlights the relationship between changing economic conditions and the frequency of desertion, and attempts to document maritime transients and deserters' importance for Norwegian settlements in Brooklyn and Manhattan between 1850 and 1900.

tion at the University of Trondheim,

Marcus Thrane (1817-90). From a lithograph from the late 1840's.

Marcus Thrane and "Dagslyset"

Marcus Thrane, often called Norway's first socialist, was among the first to spread the word for liberal reform and worker's rights. In 1864 Thrane and his family arrived in New York. Two years later they left for Chicago, where Thrane became editor of his own newspaper "Dagslyset". Thrane came to believe that only by limiting the power of the church in the daily life of immigrants, could they successfully assimilate into the American republic. His radical and controversial point of view made him both loved and hated. His opponents regarded him as "the Devil's own agent on earth" while a subscriber of his newspaper once wrote: "I love Dagslyset more than the prettiest girls".

Order "Norse Heritage" and learn more about this fascinating and rather unknown history of the Norwegian socialist and editor in Chicago, written by Terje I. Leiren.

Terje I. Leiren,
Professor of Scandinavian Studies and History at the University of Washington, Seattle.

Young unmarried women showed their independence by traveling alone to America, gaining economic freedom by taking employment there.

Women and domestic service

Based on 25 interviews, author Janet E. Rasmussen brings us daily life glimpses of immigrant working women from the Pacific Northwest. Not surprisingly, "tjenestejente" or servant girl comprised the largest single occupational group among female emigrants from Norway.

Paid household labor in the United States was dominated by black women and immigrant women. What was it like being a Norwegian maid? How were their wages? How did they cope with the problem of belonging to a low status group? Did their job situation cause isolation or did it contribute to assimilation?

These are among the many interesting questions raised by Janet E. Rasmussen in her article. Enjoy it and find the answers.

Janet E. Rasmussen,
Professor of Scandinavian Studies and Dean of Humanities at Pacific Lutheran University, Tacoma, Washington.

Professor Odd Lovoll, NAHA editor says: "The yearbook presents an impressive collection of readable and scholarly well-grounded articles, which demonstrates both the breadth and the new directions of historical literature on Norwegian-American life. It is an important contribution to this literature and should appeal to anyone interested in understanding the American experience of Norwegian immigrants and their descendants."

Erik Bye, the foremost Norwegian promoter of Norwegian-American relations today, is fascinated by the Norse Heritage Yearbook. "It's a valuable addition to Norwegian emigration literature," says Erik Bye. "Let this be the most well read book on the bookshelf", he recommends.

NORSE HERITAGE — 1989 YEARBOOK

The Norwegian Emigration Center was established in Stavanger i 1986. By providing opportunities for research and serving as a source of information, the center seeks to promote increased contact between Norwegians and friends of Norway around the world. It is also a national genealogical center providing assistance to all persons of Norwegian ancestry wishing to trace their roots. More than 5000 people have communicated with the trained permanent staff of the center either by mail or in person. The number of requests for genealogical assistance is steadily increasing. The center has some 15,000 volumes in its library, an important part of which is the book collection of the former Cleng Peerson Memorial Institute.

The Norwegian Emigration Center is a non-profit foundation whose board chairman is former Rogaland Governor Dr. Lars Vaage. The board also includes representatives of the City of Stavanger, Rogaland County, The State Archives in Stavanger, the Stavanger Chamber of Commerce and the Rogaland Research Center, as well as the Sons of Norway.

The Norwegian Emigration Center has been the owner of the Promise of America Exhibition, which was first shown in Norway and then in New York City, St. Paul and Moorhead, Minnesota and Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The exhibition will now, appropriately, find a permanent home in Tysvaer, the home of the pathfinder of Norwegian emigration to America, Cleng Peerson.

The Norwegian Emigration Center also organizes the annual Norwegian Emigration Festival, offering a varied program of exhibitions, concerts, seminars, and excursions to sites of historical interest. The highlight of the festival is the reenactment of the 1825 sailing of the "Restauration" from Stavanger, which takes place on board the 52-foot sloop "Anna af Sand", built in 1837 (see above picture).

THE NORSE HERITAGE YEARBOOK is the foundation's latest contribution to research in emigration history (or immigration history, depending on your perspective). It contains articles about Norse culture around the world. In this first volume, we focus on the lives of Norwegians in North America, but we also look at Norwegian emigration to the island continent of Australia. Read about the irregular immigration of Norwegian seamen to Brooklyn, the development of skiing in the Pacific Northwest, Norwegian immigrant women in domestic service in the first decades of the 20th century, labor leader Marcus Thrane and his newspaper Dagslyset (The Daylight) in Chicago and many other, fascinating articles about Norwegians in America.

In this book, you have a unique chance to feel the pulse of your ancestors. Don't miss it! Order your own hard-cover copy now, and consider getting one as a gift to a relative or friend as well.

HOW TO TRACE YOUR ANCESTORS IN NORWAY

By Yngve Nedrebø

This booklet may help you trace your Norwegian ancestors. You will also find it useful if you just want to know where to apply to track down relatives still living in Norway.

What is your aim?

Suppose you want to know more about your roots in Norway. Obviously, you can't trace all your ancestors. You must restrict your search, perhaps by trying to trace back one line of the family first and then taking the others in turn. Or, you can concentrate on one particular branch of the family which has lived for generations in the same place, and cut out other branches.

Before you start, you should try to decide how you are going to approach. First of all you must decide exactly what you want to find out.

Problems

You must also recognize that it is sometimes difficult to trace the lineage of your ancestors very far back. This may be due to a number of different reasons. The information you start off with may be so meagre or inaccurate that it is impossible to know where to begin the search. Your ancestors may have moved about so much that it may be impossible to keep track of them.

Important sources of information may have been destroyed - by fire, for instance. Even in the most favourable circumstances, it is often difficult to trace a line farther back than to the second half of the 17th century, as few consecutive records were kept before that time. And research frequently comes to a stop long before that.

It matters a great deal what your ancestors were - whether they were farmers working the same farm for generations, whether they were tenant farmers, labourers or servants, officials or town merchants, seamen or fishermen. Owing to the type of occupation, some families are easier to trace than others.

It is, however, worth noting that in earlier times the inhabitants of Norway were basically stationary. Even today Norwegians are not so much «on the move» as Americans. In general, conditions vary so much that you must not be surprised if quite a considerable expenditure of time and money yields only a modest amount of information. Above all, a genealogist must learn to be patient.

Names

Special attention should be paid to names. In the old days Norwegians were identified by their Christian name and their father's name: Olav Håkonsen (or Håkonsson, -søn), i.e. the son of Håkon, Sigrid Håkonsdatter (or -dotter), the daughter of Håkon.

In addition a third name was very often used, usually a farm name. This «surname» does not necessarily identify a family or a relationship: it signified the dwellingplace. When farmer Ole Olsen Li moved from Li

More than 5000 people have communicated with the trained permanent staff of the center either by mail or in person. The number of requests for genealogical assistance is steadily increasing. The center has some 15,000 volumes in its library, an important part of which is the book collection of the former Cleng Peerson Memorial Institute.

The Norwegian Emigration Center is a non-profit foundation whose board chairman is former Rogaland Governor Dr. Lars Vaage. The board also includes representatives of the City of Stavanger, Rogaland County, The State Archives in Stavanger, the Stavanger Chamber of Commerce and the Rogaland Research Center, as well as the Sons of Norway.

The Norwegian Emigration Center has been the owner of the Promise of America Exhibition, which was first shown in Norway and then in New York City, St. Paul and Moorhead, Minnesota and Sioux Falls, South Dakota. The exhibition will now, appropriately, find a permanent home in Tysvaer, the home of the pathfinder of Norwegian emigration to America, Cleng Peerson.

The Norwegian Emigration Center also organizes the annual Norwegian Emigration Festival, offering a varied program of exhibitions, concerts, seminars, and excursions to sites of historical interest. The highlight of the festival is the reenactment of the 1825 sailing of the "Restauration" from Stavanger, which takes place on board the 52-foot sloop "Anna af Sand", built in 1837 (see above picture).

THE NORSE HERITAGE YEARBOOK is the foundation's latest contribution to research in emigration history (or immigration history, depending on your perspective). It contains articles about Norse culture around the world. In this first volume, we focus on the lives of Norwegians in North America, but we also look at Norwegian emigration to the island continent of Australia. Read about the irregular immigration of Norwegian seamen to Brooklyn, the development of skiing in the Pacific Northwest, Norwegian immigrant women in domestic service in the first decades of the 20th century, labor leader Marcus Thrane and his newspaper Dagslyset (The Daylight) in Chicago and many other, fascinating articles about Norwegians in America.

In this book, you have a unique chance to feel the pulse of your ancestors. Don't miss it! Order your own hard-cover copy now, and consider getting one as a gift to a relative or friend as well.

HOW TO TRACE YOUR ANCESTORS IN NORWAY

By Yngve Nedrebø

This booklet may help you trace your Norwegian ancestors. You will also find it useful if you just want to know where to apply to track down relatives still living in Norway.

What is your aim?

Suppose you want to know more about your roots in Norway. Obviously, you can't trace all your ancestors. You must restrict your search, perhaps by trying to trace back one line of the family first and then taking the others in turn. Or, you can concentrate on one particular branch of the family which has lived for generations in the same place, and cut out other branches.

Before you start, you should try to decide how you are going to approach. First of all you must decide exactly what you want to find out.

Problems

You must also recognize that it is sometimes difficult to trace the lineage of your ancestors very far back. This may be due to a number of different reasons. The information you start off with may be so meagre or inaccurate that it is impossible to know where to begin the search. Your ancestors may have moved about so much that it may be impossible to keep track of them.

Important sources of information may have been destroyed - by fire, for instance. Even in the most favourable circumstances, it is often difficult to trace a line farther back than to the second half of the 17th century, as few consecutive records were kept before that time. And research frequently comes to a stop long before that.

It matters a great deal what your ancestors were - whether they were farmers working the same farm for generations, whether they were tenant farmers, labourers or servants, officials or town merchants, seamen or fishermen. Owing to the type of occupation, some families are easier to trace than others.

It is, however, worth noting that in earlier times the inhabitants of Norway were basically stationary. Even today Norwegians are not so much «on the move» as Americans. In general, conditions vary so much that you must not be surprised if quite a considerable expenditure of time and money yields only a modest amount of information. Above all, a genealogist must learn to be patient.

Names

Special attention should be paid to names. In the old days Norwegians were identified by their Christian name and their father's name: Olav Håkonsen (or Håkonsson, -søn), i.e. the son of Håkon, Sigrid Håkonsdatter (or -dotter), the daughter of Håkon.

In addition a third name was very often used, usually a farm name. This «surname» does not necessarily identify a family or a relationship: it signified the dwellingplace. When farmer Ole Olsen Li moved from Li to another farm, e.g. Dal, he was called Ole Olsen Dal. A farm labourer could be named in the same way, without being related to the farmer.

Sometimes, however, the preposition «på» (at) could be placed between the patronymic and the farm name, indicating that the person concerned had his occupation at that particular farm.

Similarly, a tenant farmer (a cottager, or husmann) was very often entered in the official registers under the name of the farm to which his little home belonged, sometimes with the preposition «under» before the name. Thus a cottager connected with the farm Lunde could be called Hans Petersen Lunde, or sometimes Lunde-eie (eie = possession), even if his home was commonly known by another name.

You should recognize, therefore, that a surname in addition to the forename and the patronymic is not always the same as a modern family name. Family names in Norway are, in fact, a product of only the last few generations (in Norway, the use of fixed family names was made compulsory by law in 1925), except among the traditional upper classes (the clergy, military and civil servants, and the upper sections of the bourgeoisie).

On arrival in the USA, the immigrants either bore, or in many cases adopted, a third name. Usually it was the name of the farm from which they had just come. In some cases they preferred to take the name of another farm where they had lived at some time, or they might even take the name of their home parish. Some immigrants dropped the old farm name and adopted the patronymic as a family name. It happened that Ole Andersen and his son Anders Olsen took the same surname, Anderson or Olsen.

On the whole, the immigrants were not very particular about which surname they adopted. The main point seems to have been that the name could be written and pronounced in English. In America, names such as Nelson and Johnson were already widely known and much easier to pronounce than most Norwegian farm names. Even in the cases where the farm name was retained as a surname, it was often modified so greatly under the influence of the new language that it is now unrecognizable.

Even the Christian names were changed. The forenames and the patronymics were written, for instance, by the immigration officer or the census taker in the USA as they sounded to him (Håkonsen = Hawkinson, etc), or they could be given English equivalents (Gulbrand changed to Gilbert, Aslaug into Alice, etc).

Speaking of names, you may benefit from a special feature: In Norway there were, especially in the rural districts and often up to our own days, very strict rules for naming customs. Thus, the eldest son was named after his paternal grandfather and the second son after his maternal grandfather. The eldest and second daughters were similarly named after their paternal and maternal grandmothers.

When the grandparents' names were used up, the great grandparents' names were the next to be used, though without strict rules as to the order. In some cases special circumstances might interfere with these rules. Thus the name of a deceased spouse should be used first of all, and the name of the father or mother if the child was baptized after his or her death.

It was a saying that «the name and the farm must go together»; for that reason a child intended to be the owner of the farm when coming of age should be given the name of a previous owner, relative or not.

- A certain knowledge of these naming customs is often useful when you search for ancestors. In recent times the customs have been modified or even dropped. One way of modification has been to use only the initial letter instead of the whole name, thus allowing the use of more fashionable names.

Coats of arms

Familievåpen

The use of family coats of arms has been restricted to relatively few families, in particular the nobility, state officials, and the upper middle class. The so-called bumerker, used to mark tools and as signets and signatures, are not coats of arms. Their initials and emblems, however, can sometimes help to solve genealogical problems.

Kinsfolk in Norway?

At present it is often a very difficult task to trace possible relatives still living in Norway of the 19th century emigrants whose descendants have lost contact with the old country. One reason is that it is a very time-consuming job to track all the branches of the family from, say, 100 or 150 years ago and down to our own times; it is in fact easier to work in the opposite direction. Another reason is that in such cases you are in need of a number of different and widely spread archival sources. Some are kept locally by governmental or municipal officials, while others will be found in the various central archives. You may also often be more or less dependent on what old people in the parish are able to remember and tell you.

Thus it may be quite a job to track down relatives still living in Norway. No public authority is under any obligation to undertake such an investigation for you. Certainly, within the limits of reason, keepers of archives, local pastors, and others will do what they can to give you information. Nevertheless you must understand that the task must first and foremost be based on your own efforts - assuming, of course, that you do not hire a professional genealogist in Norway to do the work for you.

It may be mentioned, however, that newspapers (especially the smaller local papers) have frequently offered assistance, often with good results. But this help, too, is not something you can take for granted.

Should you fail to trace your present relatives in Norway after consulting the appropriate authorities and having left, on the whole, no avenue unexplored, you may be able to get help from the Salvation Army (Frelsesarmeen). This world-wide organization has a special branch for inquiries of that kind: The Missing Persons and Inquiry Department (Etersøkelsesavdelingen). It should be noted, however, that the field of activity of this office does not include ordinary genealogical investigation.

How to Trace Your Norwegian Ancestry in the Norwegian Emigration Center

The main sources for ancestry research are the emigrant indexes. They contain the names, the ages and birth places of emigrants from Norway. The Norwegian Church records make it possible to identify the emigrants and relate them to their Norwegian ancestors. The censuses from the late 19th century in many cases enable the researcher to find the emigrant together with the rest of his Norwegian family before he left Norway. Hundreds of local Norwegian history books have detailed information on families through the centuries. They are often of great help in tracing living relatives of descendants of emigrants.

Sources from several archives all over Norway have been copied and are available in The Norwegian Emigration Center. You can write to the center for information or you can visit the center in Stavanger. Please remember to send us as much useful information as possible such as name, birthplace and birthdate of the emigrant and also the year of emigration if you know it. It can also help if you know the port in Norway from which the emigrant left.

Genealogical research takes time and requires expert employees. The staff take great pride in their work. Our aim is to find your ancestry and to increase the contact between Norwegians all over the world. This may give Norsemen on all continents a better reason for visiting Norway.

Stavanger and Rogaland – The Heritage Gateway to Norway

The annual Norwegian Emigration Festival takes place from mid June to mid August. A wide choice of exhibitions, concerts, folk-dance and seminars are offered. The festival highlights will be in Stavanger in the last two weeks of June. Here you can go to concerts in the 12th century cathedral; you can watch a play about the first emigration in 1825 staged in the harbour on board an old sloop similar to the «Restauration», the ship that brought the first Norwegian emigrants to the United States. A variety of exhibitions on Norwegian history from the Viking Age to the 20th century are shown in the Cultural, Archeological and Maritime Museums.

For those wanting to tour the region there are diverse excursions taking you to mountainous areas or by sea to the hundreds of islands near Stavanger. Here you can visit the birthplace of the father of Norwegian emigration, Cleng Peerson.

Stavanger has an international airport at Sola which connects Rogaland with the whole world.

Re.: Your letter dated: May 30, 1986

We regret to inform you that at the moment Statsarkivet i Oslo is not staffed to undertake genealogical investigations for private persons. You should therefore contact a professional genealogist for this purpose, and we may refer you to the following address:

Terje Gudbrandson
Inkognito terrasse 1
N - 0256 Oslo 2

He charges at the moment US$ 15,- an hour. You have to wait 7-8 weeks for answer. Statsarkivet i Oslo is not responsible for research carried out privately.

We cannot take photocopies of parish records because repeated copying may expose them to damage. However, when a certificate is needed for legal purposes, we can issue certificates of birth, marriage or death provided we are given the following information: 1) Full name 2) Year of birth (marriage or death) 3) Name of parish.

After 1859 the city of Christiania (Oslo) consisted of an growing number of parishes. In order to issue a certificate for a person living there after that time, we therefore have to know the name of the city parish in which he lived at the time in question. Please note that these certificates are issued in Norwegian only. The charge for each certificate is NOK 10,- (or US$ 2,-).

Yours sincerely

Dear Madam,

I am happy to inform you that I have found your grandmother - Helene, born June 24, baptized in the church of Sarpsborg July 28, 1860 as the daughter of the worker Anders Andersen Opsund and his wife, Marie Helvig Andersdatter.

The baptism is noted on page 37 in the first parish register of Sarpsborg.

If you want me to do further genealogical investigations for you, I advice you to let me work for e.g. US $ 90 (6 hours). But in case, just tell me, do not forward any money. It will take about three months till I can do the research.

Yours truly

Then on Christmas Day, 1991, an early morning phone call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlin had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and wanted to meet me. She was on leave from her duties as a member of the Swedish deligation of the United Nations interim forces stationed in Lebanon. My husband and I immediately went to the motel where she was staying and after introductions, invited her back to our home for the balance of her visit in Florida.

Then we had another surprise. Gun-Marie's daughter, Charlotte, was attending high school as an exchange student in Spokane, Washington. Her mother made a few phone calls and arrangements were made for her to fly into Ft. Myers. Within hours we had met two Swedish relatives never known before. What a wonderful Christmas present!

Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina, was planning to fly to Florida on June 1. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing. OK

It was a long time from the first part of January until June 1. Many overseas telephone calls were made -- many letters and maps were sent and received. Explicit directions had to be given as Aina and her party would fly into Ft. Lauderdale on the east coast, rent a car and drive across the state to Ft. Myers. It would be after dark before they would reach our home. None of the party had ever been to this country before. The hours on June 1, 1992 passed slowly.

Finally, a car pulled up outside of our home. The doors opened and for the first time in my life, I met my half-cousin from Sweden -- a relative that until a couple of years ago I did not know even existed. It was truly an exciting and awesome experience.

Those who came were Aina and her husband, Werner. Neither of them speak English although they do understand a bit. Aina's sister, Esly Syren, sometimes acted as a translator but it was difficult. However, Aina's granddaughter, Petra Sohlin and her finance, Peter Westin, speak very good English as they had learned it in school and did most of the translating

Not only did Aina bring me many gifts typical of Sweden, she even brought several jars of homemade jam that she had made in her own kitchen. She also brought the name and address of yet another member of our mutual family -- a granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. Since my grandfather's sister had 13 living children, I now shall have many more Swedish cousins to try and find.

Aina and I poured over photo albums and exchanged notes on what we each knew of our own grandparents and their families. We talked of her grandchildren and mine. She taught me a few words in the Swedish language and I tried to teach her some English phrases. Getting acquainted with each other was not difficult. We had a most enjoyable time together.

The visit with my Swedish relatives has ended and they have returned to their homes in Harnosand and Uppsala. To say that this was one of the most important and exciting events in my lifetime is an understatement. From not ever knowing of any Swedish relatives, I now have dozens! And now it is time to begin planning my trip to the land of my forefathers.

Should anyone reading this account be a relative or have information that can be added to my family history, I would certainly be interested in hearing from them. And again, I thank Dr. Vegelius for all the time and energy he spent on my behalf. It is he who encouraged me to write this account of how I found my Swedish connections!

In June of 1992, shortly before my newly-found Swedish cousin flew to the United States to visit and meet me for the first time and since I had interested her in genealogy, she became curious to know if there might be other family members in Sweden about whom she did not know.

In her search, Aina (Nilsson) Lindstrom of Harnosand was successful in locating the granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. My grandfather, Olof Froberg, left Sweden in 1872 and never saw his sister, Johanna, again. Her granddaughter, Aina Nyburg, then, is of the same generation as both Aina Lindstrom and myself. When Aina Lindstrom told her of the plans to visit me she asked her to write something to me which she did. Since it was written in Swedish, Aina Lindstrom's granddaughter, Petra Sohlin, translated the letter as it appears below and it was presented to me upon Aina Lindstrom's arrival at my home. (Words in parentheses are mine.)

think! My oldest brother's granddaughter asked me last year that I would write down "my memoirs" as she put it. I thought memoirs was a far too big word so I prefer to call my memories "recollections."

When I already for her account have written down the memory I have from the only meeting I had with my grandmother, Johanna Lundin, born Froberg, I will write it down to you.

I have not seen anywhere how many brothers or sisters Grandma had but obviously my father has gotten his second name from one of her brothers. My father's name was August Israel (Lundin). Aina knew about at least two of my grandmother's brothers, Israel and Olof. The last one is your forefather. Here is my memory of my grandmother.

1934 -- Thure, my husband and I celebrated Midsummer Eve on Abord with four good friends. We were sleeping in the SGU cabin but on Midsummer Day we went visiting my sister, Linnea, by the Lovgrens and from there we went to Grandpa's. When we came there, Grandpa sat on the couch. I curts and said, "Hello," and tried to explain who I was but I did not succeed.

"Who is this then?" said he to Aunt Kavin. "Aina, August's," said she and that was enough for him.

Grandma sat dressed in bed, small and weak. We talked to each other as it came along. Grandmother said at one occasion, "Before there were always someone 26 February 1992 -- I have now seen the pictures my sister has took care of when her mother, my stepmother, died in 1971. I did not find the picture there. I remembered seeing it in a red album but it's no longer there. It must have been dropped in someone of my Dad's movings. If I don't think so would catch a picture of her in the future I be glad to give it to you.

I can't speak your language and you can't mine! I ended the six year of elementary school as a 12-year old in 1925. We did not read no foreign languages in the ordinary school. But if you would like to write to me sometime there are younger people here who can speak the language.

fishing, but that ended. It was so good with fresh fish."

Then Grandpa said, "If someone wants a fish, he'll have to buy a net and place it in the water," and with emphasis, "I'm so sick of small perch!"

It was a little bit laughable when Grandpa said like that. I thought of that small weak, feeble Grandmother in that situation, in a rowing boat on Angerman River, putting out a fishing net. It sure sounded bad and someone could have gone out picking some small perch now and then.

Not far from Grandfather's house, Uncle Axel and Uncle Kaile (lived) with their families. That time Thure and I went by motorboat with Uncle Kaile back to where we came from. We were suppose to return home with "Turisten" from the landing stage. Later someone told me it could have been my sister Helga that Grandma had fished (with) like that often while she had the strength. Maybe it was her way of get a piece of privacy.

{Note from translator: The things that "Grandma" and "Grandpa" have said in the text above is dialect so I have translate it as good as possible.}

Grandmother (Johanna Froberg Ludlin) was born the 10th June 1854 and was at this time just celebrating her 80th birthday. She had gave birth to 13 children which 10 of them are grown up. She had never own any means of assistance, any sewing machine or anything (to) use which could have done the home and housework easier. She was supposed to knit and sew by hand what was needing. You can imagine that children early must learn to help and you can understand that not all socks were whole and all trousers patched. Grandma had many baby beds.

Albin was born on Chrstimas Day 1875 --it says in the church book that he is illegitimate -- then Alfrid was born in 1877, Beda 1878, Johan 1879 and August 23rd December 1880.

Then came Aina in February 1882, Augusta in June 1884 and Axel in February 1886. Then it's noted Aina Katarina twice, the first 4 December 1888 dead 21 October. The other 10 November 1889 dead 12 December. She who was born in the spring lived over summer while she born in October lasted only two months.

But Hilma Katarina, Aunt Kavin, born 5th November 1890 had strength and lived and so did Kalle, born 31 December 1891. The 13th, Bror Knut, who was born in Feburary 1893 lived only during summer. I don't know if his name was symbolic -- if Grandma succeeded to stop birthing any more children. In 1893 she was "only" 39 years old!

The moment on Midsummer Day 1934 is the only memory I have from both Grandmother and Grandfather.

I wish there would have been more moments! To know something about her life as young in the 1860's and 1870's.

How was it then? I don't think that Grandmother's life on Abord was very different than her mother's on Sabra, maybe in the number of baby beds.

The development in home and housework area was slow. Not much had happened before first World War. Maybe treadle sewing machines existed before but it took a while before all could buy one.

I bought a sew machine on installment in 1932. A Singer machine costed 320 Swedish crowns and 10 Swedish crowns per month in installment. My salary was 40 Swedish crowns per month plus free food and room. As a waitress on Lubecus Cafe you had to wear decent clothes.

I got a memory of Grandfather from John Weclin's mother by (about) that time. She was a friend of my mother-in-law and Grahdfather's niece. When she realized we were related she told me that when the young people danced in her days it was very fun to dance with him. He was big and strong and held the girls in the sky when it was _____. The lady became red on her cheeks and giggled when she remembered.

Of course, there is alot you can think about. I think of Kavin and Augusta, the aunts on Abord who stayed home and took care of their parents as long as they lived. When Thure and I was there, only Kavin was home, who naturally without behavior took as a duty to stay with her parents.

When Grandpa didn't cultivate the land anymore, Augusta had taken employment at a widower in Ramnik. I have seen that Grandpa died 1941. That means he was 91 years old and Aunt Kavin 51 years old. Then she had used all years to take care of her parents instead of arrange for herself. We didn't have much contact but I heard Aunt Kavin moved to Harnosand and works in a bakery, Flodin's Bakery.

How the grandparent's economy were I don't know. If Grandfather had any savings, I don't know either. I don't think Aunt Kavin had any salary except food and room. When she was 51 years old she had to start working and earn money.

Except from the croft on Abord, Granmdpa had a small brickworks on an islet called Kuya. How it went I did not remember to find out. I guess my brother, August, would have known something about it. I heard that the cooking at the brick was simple. You cooked gruel called "Kubagruel!"

To return to the aunts, they every summer during the later part of the 20th (probably means 20's), did a trip to Kramfors. One Sunday every summer they came with "Stromkarlen" dressed in white dresses and hats, new white shoes and the best of moods. They came like fresh air from a life which did not seemed to have any problems. I have later understand that this day was their vacation and it had to be nice! Once August had arranged so that the aunts could come on Saturday eve and be in a gang and go to a dance somewhere. They talked about that for a long time!

When I think about it, it was not only father who was an art of life! Also his sisters and brothers had the gift of having an easy mood and the power of taken care of the small subjects of rejoicing in life!

Aunt Beda ended up in Vadevalla. She and her husband came visiting once.

Aunt Anna was married with a barber and lived in Kristinehamn. We never met her husband. When she became a widow, she moved to Ramnik near my home.

I am afraid I don't have anything else to tell about Grandmother. I know we had a picture of her at home. My youngest sister saved the old pictures but she don't know who's on them. I will see if I can remmember how she looked. All I know is that the picture doesn't look like the old lady I met 1934.

June 21st 1989

Dear Mrs Woolley

I am sorry to say that we got your letter one day after my husband ~~had~~ Dr K M Nelson had passed away. He entered the hospital on <sup>Thurs.</sup> May 18th with a stroke and died on Sunday May 21. He had gotten bronchitis in January and had gotten better and been out but had never fully regained his strength.

There is a person living in Winter ~~Park~~ <sup>Park</sup> Fla. however who may be the one to help you. His name is Nils W<sup>m</sup> Olsson and he has done genealogies from Sweden to America. I can give you his address:

Mr Nils W<sup>m</sup> Olsson
Box 2186 662 Granville Dr.
Winter Park, Fla.

Tel. No. (305) 647-4292

When you do write him please greet him for me. He is a very good friend of ours (in fact he is related sheet to sheet to the Nelson family on Karl's first wife's side (Larsons)).

I am sure he will be able to help you. I am sorry about this. In fact we had gotten a letter ourselves from Aina but never got to answer it until just recently.

Princeton, Illinois is just 120 miles from Chicago southwest on Interstate 80 so if you are ever out this way please stop and visit ~~me~~ and also Karl's son and family Dr Dexter Nelson. He is a heart specialist. His Dad was a General Practitioner.

Karl also has another son in Chicago. Dr F. Burton Nelson who is a professor at North Park Seminary. They would also be happy to meet you. They live at 5348 N. Bernard in Chicago. BERNARD

'Old Dr. Nelson' passes away at 98

Dr. Karl M. Nelson, one of Princeton's most distinguished and beloved citizens, died Sunday. He was 98.

Dr. Nelson passed away at Perry Memorial Hospital, an institution where he had served as a physician for 53 years, from 1927 to 1980.

"Old Dr. Nelson," as he was known to Princeton residents, awoke at his home last Thursday experiencing extreme weakness. After an examination by his son, Dr. Dexter Nelson, he was admitted to the hospital.

The retired physician gradually grew weaker until Sunday, when, as a family member put it, "He just wore out."

Sixty-two of Dr. Nelson's 98 years were lived in Princeton, where he was an active and respected citizen. Nelson served as mayor of Princeton from 1947 to 1951.

Combining medicine and Christianity, Dr. Nelson began his career as a medical missionary to China, where he practiced from 1920 to 1927 in the service of the Evangelical Covenant Church in a hospital with no running water, no electrical facilities and no X-ray equipment.

Before Dr. Nelson left China, he saw to it that the hospital had running water, an electric plant and an X-ray machine.

Dr. Nelson's early days in Princeton saw him make 15 to 20 house calls per week, charging $3 to $4 per visit.

He once estimated he delivered 1,500 babies in his career, recalling, "I delivered 12 children in one family."

Nelson developed a busy general practice but still found time to serve Princeton as mayor for one term. He appointed the first board of health and helped start construction on the first wing of Perry Memorial Hospital.

An enduring legacy of his term was the placement of the first parking meters in downtown Princeton on Sept. 2, 1947.

Nelson served on the board of the Bureau Valley Civic League and introduced such notables as Admiral Byrd, Eleanor Roosevelt and Amelia Earhart to local audiences.

He was physician for the Covenant Children's Home for over 45 years, serving on the CCH Board and holding several offices in the Evangelical Covenant Church, Princeton.

He was born Karl M. Nilsson on Aug. 19, 1890 in Sweden and emigrated to the U.S. in 1905, living with relatives in Michigan before attending Chicago colleges and earning his medical degree from Rush Medical College.

Dr. Nelson's favorite saying was a phrase he brought back from China: "Ding How," meaning "Things are going well."

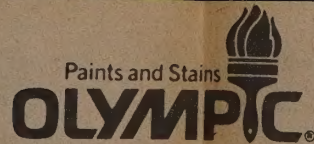

Thanks to Dr. Nelson's skilled, caring hands, things indeed went well for his patients and his community.

Dr. K.M. Nelson

Dr. Karl Nelson

PRINCETON — Dr. Karl Magnus Nelson, 98, of Princeton, died Sunday, May 21, 1989 in Perry Memorial Hospital, Princeton.

Born Aug. 19, 1890 in Nora parish, Saltea, Angermanland Province, Sweden, the son of Anders and Kristina Nilsson, he came to the United States in 1905, living with relatives in Menominee, Mich.

He then moved to Chicago, graduating from the North Park Academy, the University of Chicago and Rush Medical College. Following internship, he served as a medical missionary in China for the Evangelical Covenant Church. In 1920, he married Anna Larson, who died in 1959. In 1965, he married Evangeline Knutson, who survives.

After his term of service in China, Dr. Nelson came to Princeton in 1927 where he was in the practice of medicine, retiring in 1980.

He was a 50-year member of the Illinois State Medical Society and of the American Medical Association. He served on the staff of Perry Memorial Hospital and was its past president. He was active in many civic and community organizations and was a member of the Evangelical Covenant Church, Princeton. From 1947 to 1951, he served as mayor of Princeton.

He is survived by his wife, Evangeline, and two sons, Dr. Dexter Nelson of Princeton and Dr. F. Burton Nelson of Chicago; 15 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and three stepgreat-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, four sisters, one son and one great-grandson.

Graveside services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Oakland Cemetery with memorial services to follow at 2 p.m. in his church. Visitation will be from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday in Norberg Memorial Home, Princeton.

Memorials may be made to the Covenant Childrens Home, Princeton; the Evangelical Covenant Church, Princeton; or to a charity of the donor's choice.

Manlius alums to meet June 17

MANLIUS — The Manlius Alumni Banquet will be held June 17, at Hidden Lake Country Club, Sheffield.

Classes of 1939, 1964 and 1989 will be honored. A social hour will begin at 6 p.m. with a buffet dinner served at 7 p.m. A dance with Randy Steele, dee-jay providing the music, will follow from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The cost for the evening is $13 per person or $25 per couple.

Reservations should be made with Ann Kaufman, P.O. Box, Sheffield, 454-2405; William Wessel, Rte. 2, Walnut, 445- 5775; or Dorothy McReynolds, Box 8, Manlius, 445-6702.

Reservations should be made as soon as possible.

Manlius firefighters to sponsor baseball

Sam Popejoy and Robin Hewitt are in charge of water fights for Manlius Days, according to the May 12 meeting of the Manlius Fire Department.

At the same meeting, the group voted to sponsor youth baseball.

A fire school June 1-4 in Champaign was discussed, as was the Bob Neahring house fire. Jerry Saathoff's name was placed in nomination for membership, with a vote scheduled for the June meeting.

A gas grill was purchased for the department's use and a thank you note from the Cub Scouts was read.

Attendance awards went to Hewitt, Jack Wiggim and Mark Donahue. The next training meeting was announced as May 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the Mineral Fire

The girls are born in September 1943 and had just become 7 years when Linnea died.

When Ann Sofi was 3 1/2 years she got diabetes. She handled her sickness pretty well, has a man she lives with and two children: Magnus 25 and Margareta 17 years old. She is an educated nurse. She works half time as a nurse for one of "doctor stations".

Carl is a brother to my grandmother. He is still alive and I think he is 99 in August.

I meant your father in my letter.

It will not be more this time but I preceate if you could write to me when you got some contact with these people.

I'm sorry that this is not an answer of your letter but I hope I can do som resurding later.

By the way you asked about your grandmothers name or if it was a place. It is probable both.

It's usuall or was in Norway to take the place as a middle name.

It's a busy time now with gardening and

Dear Frances:

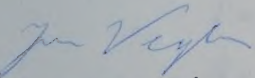

I am happy to read about your success in finding your relatives in Ångermanland. No doubt it seemed very promising even after my phone calls in August, but there was a possibility we were wrong.

I have reread my August letter to you. It was a bit tricky to find the right person, but not more than could be expected. It just struck me that it might be of interest to you to see my note paper from that evening, which includes some names, phone numbers and addresses. It also includes addresses to other Fröbergs in that area.

I am looking forward to hear the final results from our research. You said you might publish it in SAG. By the way, what is the last issue of SAG you have got ?

Yes, we are familiar with the Mormon church research. In fact I had much help from a lady there in some difficult parts of my own reseach in USA.

Dear Frances,

I have just got a copy of Vol.VII:4 of Swedish American Genealogist, where a book of mine is reviewed in page 193. There I also saw your wish to find the background of your grandfather Olof Froberg, born 1859 in Sweden. I can begin by saying that he is not included in the family book I have written, but that is not of much help to you. Neither do I know anything about the Fröberg family (families) in Sweden. I hope you will get letters from others with better knowledge of the Fröbergs, but if you don't I may give you some hints how to go on.

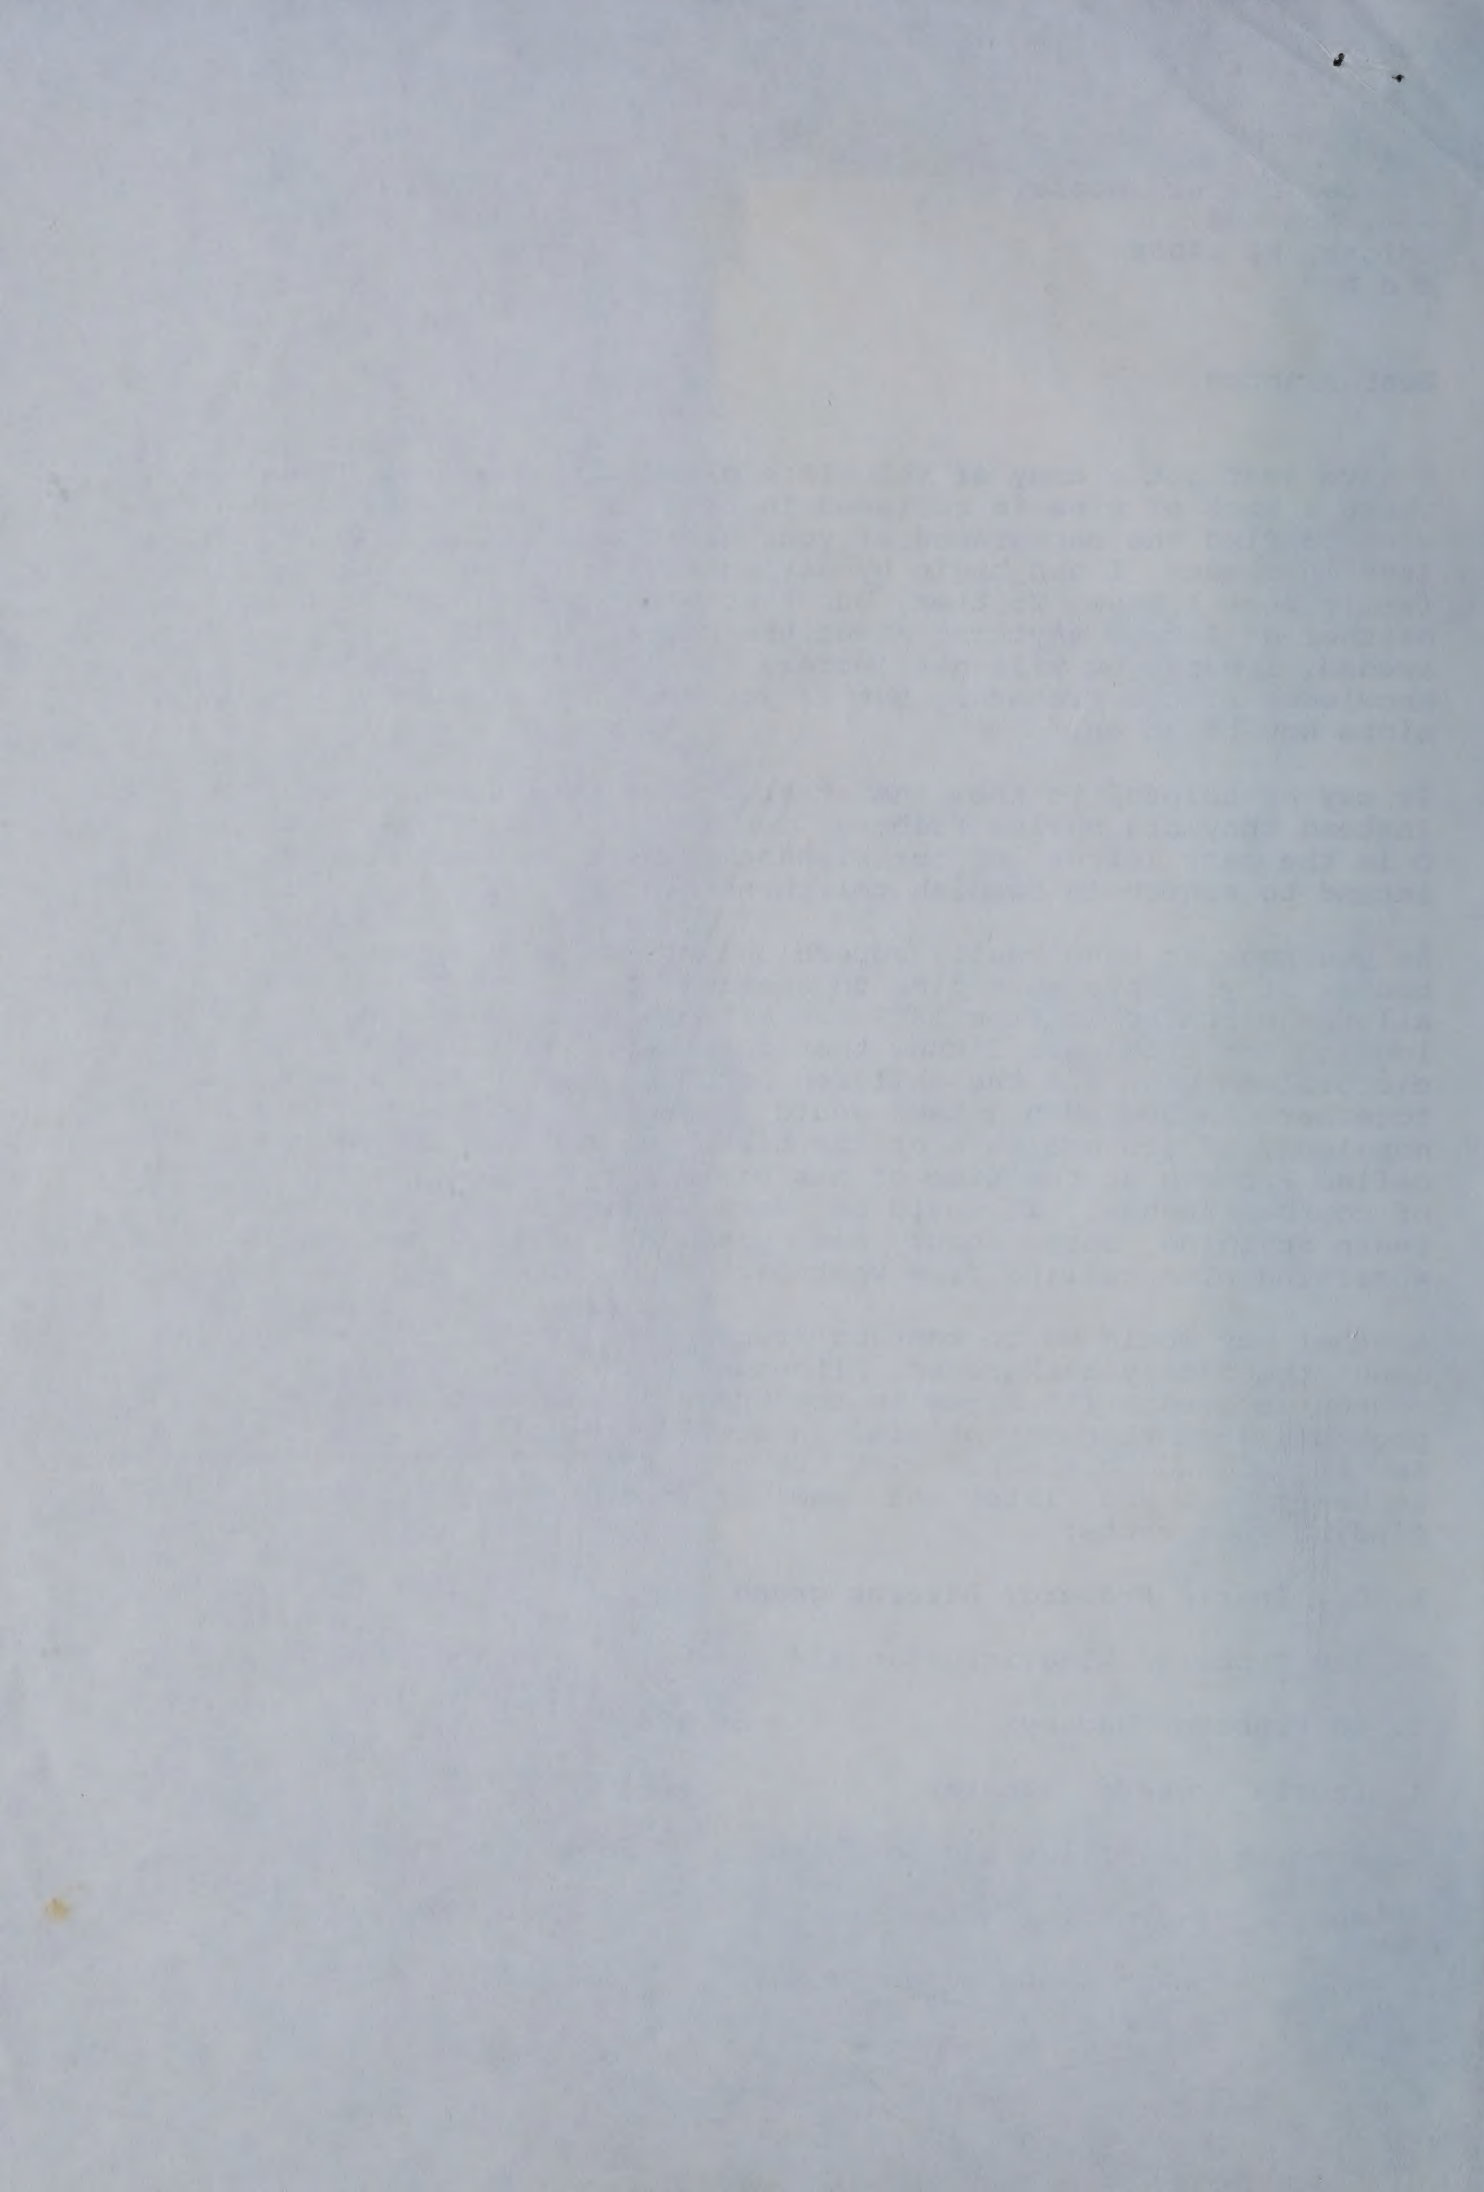

It may be helpful to know that there is no Swedish surname Froberg. Instead they are called Fröberg. The letter Ö is not the same as O. Ö is the last letter of our alphabet, which may be helpful if you intend to search in Swedish telephone books.

As you know we have really superb church books in Sweden, e.g. birth books. If you have much time to spend on this project, you may check all the birth books from 1859 for all parishes and towns in Sweden looking for Fröbergs. I know that for the years 1861-1895 they are microfilmed with all the children born the same year in each county together. Anyhow such a task would be very timeconsuming - but not hopeless, if you are sure of the birth year and if his parents were called Fröberg at the time of his birth !!! The last demand is vital of course. Anyhow, it would be very helpful for you if you could learn anything more about his place of birth, his dialect or something else telling from what part of Sweden he was.

Another way would be to contact Fröbergs in Sweden. Maybe they know about the family background. Although the name Fröberg is not too common in Sweden (13 names in the Uppsala telephone book), there is probably more than one origin. In order to help you I will list a few Fröberg addresses and wish you good luck. It will be interesting to hear from you later and see if you have been successful in finding your roots:

1. Dr. Ingrid Fröberg/ Bäverns gränd 18B/ UPPSALA/SWEDEN
2. Åke Fröberg/ Almqvistgatan 11/ UPPSALA/SWEDEN
3. Bo Fröberg/ Uddeby/ BERGSHAMRA/SWEDEN
4. Ingrid Fröberg/ Elmsta/ VÄDDÖ/SWEDEN
5. Sven Fröberg/ Vigelsjövägen 11A/ NORRTÄLE/SWEDEN
6. Gösta Fröberg/ Parkgatan 1/ VÄNERSBORG/SWEDEN
7. Ebba Fröberg/ Ridhusgatan 9/ UDDEVALLA/SWEDEN

8. Ivar Fröberg/ Karlstorpsvägen 143/

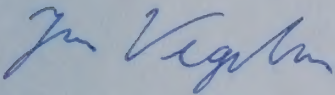

TROLLHÄTTAN/SWEDEN

9. Olle Fröberg/ Grönlid 736/

HAMBURGSUND/SWEDEN

Maybe the easiest and most efficient way would be to write a letter with a typewriter, have it copied and send one copy to each of the addresses. I have not contacted them, so I have no idea how they will react, but I think you should try.

Dear Mrs. Wooley:

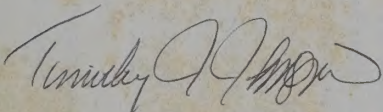

Thank you for your letter of 9 November 1988 and your patience for this reply.

A preliminary check of our records did not reveal any holdings on Olof Froberg. The most useful information for this type of search is whether he was a member of a specific congregation (i.e. Lutheran, Covenant, Baptist, etc.). With that information we could track him through church records. The records for most of the Covenant churches are housed here on the campus of North Park College. I would be happy to check those records if Olof was a member of the Covenant church. For other denominational records I suggest you contact the Swenson Swedish Immigration Research Center, Augustana College, Box 175, Rock Island, Illinois 61201.

Our charges for research are $6/hour if you are a member of the Swedish-American Historical Society and $12/hour for non-members. I believe the Swenson Center has similar charges, although you should contact them for the exact rates.

I hope this information will be of some use to you.

Sincerely,

ACTIVITIES

QUARTERLY

In 1950, the Society began publishing a quarterly known as the Swedish Pioneer Historical Quarterly, a respected, frequently quoted journal available in university and other libraries throughout the United States and abroad. In 1982, the name of this journal was changed to the Swedish-American Historical Quarterly. Articles are submitted from numerous sources—ranging from original document research to personal reminiscences. Examples of titles: “Why I Wrote the Novel about Swedish Emigrants,” by Vilhelm Moberg; “From Linköping to Lindsborg: Reminiscences, 1924-1929,” “The Civil War Letters of Olof Liljegren,” and “Lutefisk—Swedish Epicurean Delight.”

BOOKS

The Society sponsors and publishes books dealing with the history and meaning of the Swedish presence in America, as well as books of letters and personal reminiscences. These have included Letters from the Promised Land: Swedes in America, 1840-1914, by H. Arnold Barton; Swedish Exodus, by Lars Ljungmark; Wheat Flour Messiah: Eric Jansson of Bishop Hill, by Paul Elmen, and Travels in America, 1851-1855, by Rosalie Roos.

ARCHIVES

The Archives is a research center, established in 1968, which contains a rich documentary record of the Swedish-American experience. Emphasis is given to records of the Swedish-American experience in Chicago, once “the world’s second-largest Swedish city.” These holdings have provided a resource for scholars, students, genealogists, and American and Swedish journalists, among others. Materials include letters, diaries, family histories, organization records, newspapers, periodicals, pamphlets, music, photographs, books, oral histories, and reference files. The Archives is managed by the Center for Scandinavian Studies at North Park College and is open to the general public by appointment. Research is encouraged.

MEETINGS AND CONFERENCES

The Society sponsors an Annual Meeting each Fall in the Chicago area featuring discussions, workshops, and cultural activities as well as a dinner program. Spring meetings are held regularly outside Chicago and in recent years have taken place in Minneapolis, Rock Island, and St. Louis. Meetings generally focus on a specific theme. Conferences have been held on Swedish-American research resources, oral history, and genealogy in collaboration with a number of institutions and publications.

TRAVEL PROGRAMS

Since 1960, the Society has sponsored flights to Sweden for members and their families. Pioneer Tours have also been sponsored by the Society in the United States to such places of interest as Bishop Hill, Williamsburg, Door County, Lindsborg, Swedish Minnesota, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

RESEARCH GRANTS

The Society encourages research through grants from the Nils William Olsson Fund established in 1969. Grants have been given for scholarly projects in a number of fields, from the “Ribbons of Memories” Oral History project to a survey of Swedish-American historical sites.

VOLUNTEER, INTERN PROGRAMS

The active interest of members has resulted in the establishment of a volunteer program to assist in the work of the Society at its office and Archives in Chicago. Volunteers of all ages have helped with archival processing, genealogical responses, Swedish translations, special assignments for meetings and in other ways. Members are encouraged to volunteer by contacting the Society office. There is also an internship program with opportunities for students to earn academic credit while working in the Archives. Students have earned credit in Archival Science, History and Swedish. Opportunities exist in several other disciplines within the scope of the Archives.

HISTORY

BEGINNINGS

The Swedish Pioneer Historical Society emerged out of the Swedish Pioneer Centennial Association celebration in 1948, an observance of the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the first Swedish pioneers in the Midwest. In Chicago, 18,000 persons filled the Stadium on June 4, 1948, to hear President Truman, Prince Bertil of Sweden, Carl Sandburg and representatives from the Swedish-American religious denominations, colleges, cultural and fraternal organizations.

PIONEERING SPIRIT

In 1983, on the 35th anniversary of the Society, the membership approved a change in the name to Swedish-American Historical Society. It is believed that the Society has gone well beyond an emphasis on only the "pioneer" period and serves to promote interest in the entire Swedish presence in America, from the first settlers on the Delaware in 1638 to the present day. As the Society looks forward, the consistent slogan since 1948—"Established to record the achievement of the Swedish Pioneers"—has gained further relevance, challenging present and future generations to possess the pioneering spirit.

INTERNATIONAL MEMBERSHIP

The society is an international organization with members in most states, Canada, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, England, Germany, Australia and several other countries. A committee in Sweden is established to further the goals of the Society.

GIFTS AND GRANTS

The program of the Society is primarily supported by membership dues. Additional projects have been enhanced in a number of instances by substantial gifts and grants. In 1980, the National Endowment for the Humanities recognized the Society's important role when it awarded the Society a major grant which resulted in the publication of the "Guide to Swedish-American Archival and Manuscript Sources in the United States." The Society has also received foundation and institutional support as well as a number of individual gifts to further its publications, research, archives and other programs.

CARL SANDBURG MEDAL

The Carl Sandburg Medal was established by the Society in 1977 to honor the Swedish-American Pulitzer Prize writer, poet and scholar. The award is given for one or more of the following reasons: 1) Service to the Society; 2) Service to the Swedish-American community; 3) Service by a Swedish-American to the greater community. Recipients have included Vilas Johnson, Conrad Bergendoff, Selma Jacobson, Franklin D. Scott, Nils William Olsson and Wesley M. Westerberg.

DESIGN:

The Swedish-American Historical Society has adopted for its use the design drawn by the Swedish artist, Dan Jonsson. The American and Swedish flags that overlap in the design display the friendly relations that exist between the United States and Sweden. The original design was used in 1983 by the Swedish Post Office on its commemorative first day cover marking the 200th anniversary of the Treaty of Amity and Commerce signed by the two countries in 1783. The design is used by permission of the artist and the Swedish Post Office.

PURPOSE:

The Society's purpose is to stimulate and promote interest in Swedish-American contributions to the history and growth of the United States, collect and preserve documents and other valuable material, encourage historical research, and sponsor publications that will keep this heritage alive and strong.

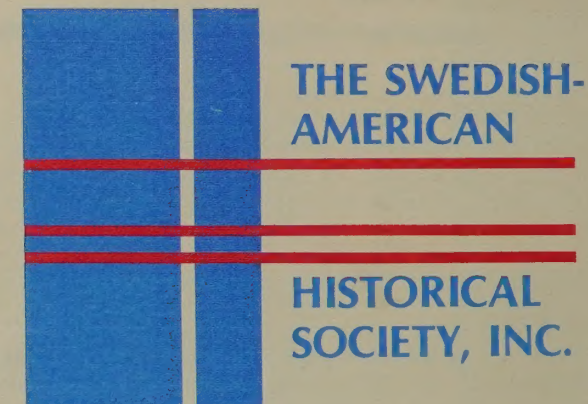

- The Society is a general not for profit corporation. Contributions to finance its operation are deductible in figuring federal income taxes.

- The Society is governed by a Board of Directors elected by the membership. Officers are elected by the Board of Directors.

The Office and Archives of the Swedish-American Historical Society are open by appointment and are located at, though independent of, North Park College, Foster and Spaulding Avenues in Chicago, Illinois.

"Established to record the Achievement of the Swedish Pioneers"

Dear Frances

Thank's for the letter of the 18th of March. If I had known that I would write letters to the USA, I should learn English earlier, but to learn new things when you are over 80 years old is very difficult and you easily forget new knowledges.

I'm glad that there are people like Harry <sup>AND</sup> och his wife Birgit who can help. They are not so good at English so it takes quite a lot of time to translate a letter. Harry works at an employment exchange and Birgit works at the surveying as cartographer. They have two children and two grandchildren whom they often visit. In 1979 all the family were visiting an uncle of Harry's who lives in Auburn, Mass.

I have sent a couple of letters to you, which i don't think you have recieved. Last summer I sent you two voven tablemats in the colour of Ångermanland (I send you one now) and in december I sent a Christmas Card and some photos. I don't think you recieved them? I wrote your adress as it says in the left corner of your letters. I probable must write down USA as well. Sorry! From now I'm sure it will work out.

You write about more information of our forefathers. You will get a copy of Johannas relatives right down to the 16th century. You maybe can find something of value in it. I also send you a copy of great grand-father's family which I haven't search for yet. You mention the Mormon Library! It reminds me that in 1920th there was en small church of Mormons i Kramfors. My stepmother's parents belong to that church. Once or twice a year arrived at couple of young handsome boys from Salt Lake City (missonaries). They preatched in Convent which was arranged. They lived here a year at the time and lived at someone of the members place.

Dear Frances, thank you for the invitation. Ten years ago I have been temted to go, but now I don't dare. I have been asthmatic for over 40 years and now the illness is going to change and I haven't got a new medicin that I can relay on. I can't thing of travelling to a foreign country and not know the language. It cares me a bit. Thank's any way.

I have been looking at a mapsheet over the area where you live and about 1300 km (800 miles) south of Miami is Nicaragua. In that country there is a Childrens home which the Women Clubs of Ångermanland support. We collekt clothes, sheets and all kind of textiles and also textbooks for the schoolchildren. Last autumn sent at typewriter and a bicykle. Earlier they got a couple af sewing-machines. We also collect money. There is a female cook who we try to help with money. Children up to sixteen years of age go in this school. They need paper, pencils, writebooks etc. There is no electricity in the school. With help from SIDA, which is an Swedish organisation of AID we were able to help them getting a waterpipe to the school. The cost of the waterpipe was 100000 swedish crowns (about 12500 US-dollar) and we collect 20000 swedish crowns and SIDA 80000 swedish crowns. If you are engaged in project abroad you must stand for 20 % and SIDA or other organisations for 80 %. The waterpipe is a blessing for the childrens home. Before they had to walk more than a mile to getting the water.

Returning to the language. Swedish people who seattled in the USA often talk their own language in the new homeland. I know a family who lived in the USA for 40 years and their daughter learn Swedish by listening to her parents talk. I understand it was difficult for you. What I know of you never heard the Swedish language spoken in your home.

This family i know, lived in Grand Rapids in Michigan. They return to Sweden in 1960th. Now and then they go visiting their daughter who lives in Texas. They also got their grandchildren and great-grandchildren there. The man in this family was 90 years old in 1993 and he celebrate his birthday with his daughter in the USA.

I stop here! Now does Harry get at lot of work with the translation af this letter before you can read what I write.

My warmest regards to both of you.

My Swedish Connections

Frances Froberg Wooley*

This is the story of how I found my Swedish relations.

Shortly after the beginning of my search a few years ago in order to fill the gaps on my husband's pedigree chart, I decided I would try to obtain information concerning my Swedish grandfather.

At this point in time, the only thing I actually knew was that Olof Froberg (Fröberg), my grandfather, had gone to sea as a young man. The story I had been told was as he left Sweden, his mother stood on a hill above him waving her apron in farewell. He was never able to return to his home in Sweden. On one of his sea voyages he had met my grandmother who was traveling from Norway to the United States. They were married in Chicago, Cook County, IL in 1880.

With only the above information and the year of his birth, obtained from his marriage license, which was 1856, I submitted a query to SAG. A response was received sent by the late Dr. Jan Vegelius of the Department of Statistics at the University of Uppsala in Sweden. He provided some information about the name Froberg (Fröberg) and gave me names and addresses of nine individuals bearing this surname. I wrote letters to all these people but received only one reply, which turned out to be a non-relative.

In the meantime, in a collection of postal cards, which my grandmother Froberg had given me when I was a child, I found two which had been sent from Sweden and which were written in the Swedish language. I located someone who could translate them and learned that they had been sent from Härnösand in northern Sweden. They mentioned some changes which had occurred in a building which had been done since my grandfather last had been there (the restoration of the Cathedral of Härnösand). They were signed by Hanna Fröberg. This was exciting and so I sent this information to Dr. Vegelius together with the one reply I had received from the listing he had sent me.

Dr. Vegelius wrote again. He had continued to work on my query and with the additional information I had furnished him, he made several inquiries on my behalf. The following is the text of his next letter:

* Frances Froberg Wooley resides at 886 La Costa Lane, North Ft. Myers, FL 33917.

"I went to our city library and asked to be shown the telephone directory for the province of Ångermanland, located in the north of Sweden. In the Ullånger telephone area, which also contained the listings for Nora Parish, I found a dozen people named Fröberg.

In the afternoon I called the church in Nora and the person who answered, (probably the clergyman), mentioned that the only Fröberg he found in Nora having a telephone was Per Fröberg in Frök.

I phoned Per Fröberg, who said that there had been Fröbergs in Utvik, a village in Nora Parish, but he did not know where their descendants lived. He recommended that I call Sture Frölén in Härnösand, whose uncle had married a daughter of Dora Fröberg from Utvik. After a long search in the telephone book he found Sture's number.

I called Sture Frölén and he could give me telephone numbers to several children of Dora Fröberg Nilsson.

Finally I called Dora's daughter, Aina Nilsson Lindström, who confirmed that her grandparents had lived in Utvik in Nora Parish. She became very interested in getting a letter from you. She says she is not too good at reading English, but she has a daughter who could help her."

I assure my readers that I will always be deeply indebted to Dr. Vegelius as Aina Lindström and I have corresponded for several years. From the pedigree that follows one can determine our relationship.

Then on Christmas Day 1991, an early morning call announced that Aina's daughter, Gun-Marie Sohlén had just arrived in Ft. Myers (where I live) and she wanted to meet me. She was on leave from her duties as a member of the Swedish delegation of the United Nations interim forces stationed in Lebanon. My husband and I immediately went to the motel where she was staying and after introductions, invited her back to our home for the balance of her visit in Florida.

Then another surprise. Gun-Marie's daughter, Charlotte, was attending high school as an exchange student in Spokane, WA. Her mother made a few phone calls and arrangements were made for her to fly into Ft. Myers. Within hours we had met two Swedish relatives, whom we had not known of before. Soon after these two relatives had returned to their respective homes, a phone call from Sweden informed us that Gun-Marie's mother, Aina Lindström, was planning to fly to Florida on 1 June. My Swedish family just kept growing and growing.

It was a long time from the first part of January until 1 June. Many overseas telephone calls were made - many letters and maps were sent and received. Explicit directions had to be given as Aina and her party would fly into Ft. Lauderdale on Florida's East Coast, rent a car and then drive across the state to Ft. Myers. It would be after dark before they would reach our home. None of the party had ever been to America before. The hours of 1 June 1992 passed very slowly.

Finally, a car pulled up outside our home, The doors opened and for the first time in my life, I met my half-cousin from Sweden - a relative, who until a couple of years ago I hadn't known even existed. It was truly an exciting and awesome experience.

Those who came were Aina and her husband Werner Lindström. Neither of them speak English although they do understand a little. Aina's sister, Esly Syrén, sometimes acted as a translator, but it was difficult. Aina's granddaughter, however, Petra Sohlin, and her fiancée, Peter Westin, speak very good English, since they had learned it in school and they did most of the translating.

Not only did Aina bring me many gifts, typical of Sweden, she even brought me several jars of home-made jam, that she had made in her own kitchen. She also brought the name and address of yet another member of our mutual family - a granddaughter of my grandfather's sister. Since my grandfather's sister had thirteen living children, I now shall have many more Swedish cousins to attempt to find.

Aina and I poured over photo albums and exchanged notes on what we each knew of our grandparents and their families. We talked of her grandchildren and of mine. She taught me a few words of the Swedish language and I tried to teach her some English phrases. Getting acquainted with each other was not difficult. We had a most enjoyable time together.

The visit with my Swedish relatives has ended and they have returned to their homes in Härnösand and Uppsala. To say that this was one of the most important and exciting events in my lifetime is an understatement. From not ever knowing of any Swedish relatives, I now have dozens! And now is the time to begin planning my trip to the land of my forefathers.

Should anyone reading this account be a relative or have information that can be added to my family history, I would certainly be interested in hearing from them. And again, my thoughts go to the late Dr. Vegelius, grateful for all the time and energy he spent on my behalf. It was he who encouraged me to write this account of how I found my Swedish connections.

DEAR FRANCES

THANKS FOR A LONG AND INTERESTING LETTER AND THANKS FOR THE HAPPY SANTA CLAUS.

IT BECAME A FUNNY EXPERIENCE FOR JESPER
AND JOHANNA TOO, A SANTA CLAUS, TALKING AND SINGING. JESPER AND JOHANNA ARE GRANDCHILDREN TO HARRY AND BIRGIT. HARRY IS MY NEPHEW, AND BIRGIT IS HIS WIFE.

THESE TWO ARE MAKING IT POSSIBLE FOR US TO READ OUR LETTERS, WHICH WE ARE WRITING TO EACH OTHER. HARRY IS WORKING AT THE EMPLOYMENT IN KRAMFORS. BIRGIT IS A CARTOGRAPHER AT THE SWEDISH LAND SURVEY. HARRY IS BORN IN 1941
AND BIRGIT IS BORN IN 1943.

SWEDEN GOT A CONSERVATIVE GOVERNMENT IN 1991.
THAT WAS NOT GOOD FOR THE COUNTRY. THE
UNEMPLOYMENT INCREASED FROM LESS THAN 3 %
IN 1991 TO MORE THAN 10 % IN 1994. THE GOVERNMENT REDUCED TAXES FOR RICH PEOPLE AND NIBBLE ON THE WELFARE FOR THE POOR PEOPLE.
THE WELFARE WHICH THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY
START BUILDING UP IN 1930 TH. THE CONSERVATIVES "MANAGE TO GIVE" OUR COUNTRY AN ENORMOUS
NATIONAL DEBT, WHICH THE SDP HAD DIFFICULTIES WITH AFTER THEY TOOK OVER IN SEPTEMBER 1994.
THE INTEREST OF THE DEBT IS SO HIGH THAT WE HAVE TO LEND MONEY TO PAY IT. AND THAT INCREASE THE DEBT THE NEW GOVERNMENT TRY TO TAKE MEASURES SO THE DEBT WILL NOT

INCREASE DURING THE TERM OF OFFICE. I HOPE THAT MANY ENOUGH HAVE BEEN LEARNING NOT TO TRUST THE CONSERVATIVES, BUT VOTE FOR SDP SO THEY CAN PROCEED THE REFINANCING OF THE ECONOMY.

I PROBABLY TOLD YOU VERY BRIEFLY OF MY GROWTH. I WAS A FOSTERCHILD FOR 18 MONTHS DURING SPRING 1920 TO AUTUMN 1921. WHEN OUR MOTHER DIED ON 28 OF MARCH 1919 SHE HAD JUST GIVEN BIRTH OF HER 10TH CHILD. HER DEATH WAS STARTLING. THE CHILD, ERLAND, WAS BORN AND THE MIDWIFE WAS NURCEING HIM. THERE WAS A GRAMOPHONE AT HOME, AND MY MOTHER ASKED MY FATHER TO PLAY THE RECORD HE BOUGHT IN TOWN (HÄRNÖSAND) THE LAST TIME HE WAS THERE. WHILE THE RECORD PLAYED, THE MIDWIFE FOUND OUT THAT IT WASN'T RIGHT WITH MY MOTHER. SHE LEFT US QUIET AND TRANQUIL. WE ALL HAS EARLIER BEEN HITTEN BY "THE SPANISH DISEASE", THE INFECTIOUS DISEASE IN EUROPE AFTER THE END OF THE 1ST WORLD WAR. MANY DIED IN THAT DISEASE BUT WE ALL MANAGE EXCEPT OUR ELDEST BROTHER WHO WAS BORN IN 7TH OF MAY 1903. HE WENT WITH OUR MOTHER IN THE GRAVE. IN 1920-1921 MY FATHER GET MARRIED FOR THE 2 NT TIME AND MOVED FROM HEMSÖN TO KRAMFORS AND IT WAS SUITABLE THAT I MOVED WITH THEM. I WAS 8 YEARS OLD AT THAT TIME. THE YOUNGEST ONE, ERLAND, WENT WITH OUR FATHER INTO THE NEW

MARRIAGE. THE NEW WIFE HAD ALSO A CHILD, EVERT, AND THEY GOT 5 NEW CHILDREN TOGETHER.

IT LOOKED CONVENIENT THAT I, 8 YEARS OLD, WAS ALLOWED TO COME HOME AND TAKE CARE OF THE CHILDREN.

WE HAVE BEEN LIVING IN DIFFERENT WAYS, YOU AND ME. YOU GROW UP WITHOUT SISTERS AND BROTHERS AND I GROW UP WITH 15. WHEN OUR MOTHER DIED WE WERE SENT TO DIFFERENT PLACES. WE ALL GOT IN TOUCH WITH EACH OTHER
WHEN WE GROWN UP. EVEN OUR HALF-BROTHERS AND HALF-SISTERS. I AM GRATEFUL AND HAPPY
THAT THEY EXIST. HELGA, WHO IS 87 YEARS OLD AND I 81 YEARS OLD ARE THE ONLY ONES WHO ARE LEFT OF THE FIRST TEN. THERE ARE FOUR LEFT OF MY HALF-BROTHERS AND HALF-SISTERS.
I HAVE 31 NEPHEWS AND NIECES. THEY
ARRANGED A COUSIN-MEETING IN JUNE 1994
AND 17 OF THEM MET. WE WILL TRY TO MAKE A TRADITION OF IT. HELGA'S TWO CHILDREN ARE COLLECTING PHOTOS FOR A FAMILY-ALBUM, AN ALBUM CONTAINING FIVE GENERATIONS. IT WILL BE VERY INTERESTING TO SEE IF THEY SUCCEED.
ALL THE RELATIVES ARE SPREAD OUT IN A LARGE AREA OF THE COUNTRY. WE WILL SEE HOW IT TURNS OUT.

IT HAS BEEN A POORLY WINTER, A GREEN-GREY, NICE WEATHER BUT CLOUDY.

THEN IN THE MIDDLE OF JANUARY WE GOT AT LEAST A HALF METER OF SNOW, AND IT BECAME COLDER, ABOUT  $-12^{\circ}\text{C}$ . ONE GET HAPPY WHEN THE SUN SHINES THROUGH THE HOLES OF THE

KINDLY REGARD TO YOU AND YOUR HUSBAND

Researching My Ancestors . . . Froberg, Michigan

Frances Froberg Wooley*

While working on a project for my employer, where I measured distances between dealers and their nearest distribution center, I spent considerable time reading road maps of all the states. This is how I happened to stumble on a town in the State of Michigan named Froberg.

I was very interested because Froberg is my maiden name. I immediately wrote a letter to the postmaster at Froberg requesting information about the town with the same name as mine. It was therefore a real disappointment when my letter was returned to me with the notation that there was no post office at that location.

It wasn't until I became totally involved with trying to locate my ancestors that I again thought about the town of Froberg, Michigan. So, I checked to see in which county Froberg was located and wrote a letter to the county seat, requesting information about Froberg.

Imagine my surprise when I received a reply from people named Froberg. They had been given my inquiry by the Baraga County Historical Society and since they knew the history of Froberg, MI and their name was Froberg, they responded and gave me the following information.

Olof Froberg lived in Sweden and never came to the United States. He had, however, three sons and a daughter, of which two of his sons, Victor and Oscar, emigrated to Minnesota ca. 1890. After about four years Victor returned to Sweden, where he took over the family farm, married and raised a family.

The other son, Oscar,<sup>1</sup> born in Sweden in 1874, worked on railroad construction in several states. In 1906 he came to Michigan, where he married Ida Pauline Soderstrom. They had known each other in Sweden, having lived in the same community. She arrived in America in 1901.

The story, according to one of Oscar's sons, is that the town of Froberg was originally known as Bellaire Siding, having been named after the Bellaire family of that area. When Oscar moved to the Sturgeon River valley in the upper peninsula of Michigan and did some logging, he needed railroad cars to ship out his logs. At times the railroad company set the cars off at another Bellaire in Antrim County,

Michigan in the lower peninsula and well over 200 miles from the Froberg logging site. To correct the problem, the railroad asked Froberg if he would mind if they changed the name of Bellaire Siding to Froberg Siding, which they did. I found this bit of history very interesting and can only thank Edward and Hazel Froberg of Baraga, MI for sharing it with me. My Swedish grandfather would have been very pleased and proud to know that there was a town in the United States that shared the same name as his, even if he had nothing to do with the naming of it. And up to this point, we have not been able to prove a connection between the Frobergs of Baraga County and those of Berrien County, MI, where my grandfather settled.

A Bible Inscription from Dalarna

An interesting Bible inscription with provenance from the province of Dalarna in Sweden has recently been found at the American Swedish Institute in Minneapolis. An old illustrated family Bible, printed in Norrköping 1851 has the following inscriptions, here translated into English:

On the inside of the front cover

"This Holy Bible belongs to me, Johannes Larsson Hedin and my beloved wife, Maria Persdotter, with whom I was joined in matrimony 7 Nov. 1859 in Lima Parish and Gråheden village. This Bible was purchased 8 Jan. 1860 and cost me 11 Riksdaler and 25 öre Riksmyn."

(Then follows the first verse of Psalm 168 in the old Swedish Psalm Book, "Store Gud som handen räckte", written by Johan Åström in 1816).

"Johannes Larsson Hedin
Lima and Gråheden 9 March 1862
Soli Dei Gloria"

—oOo—

On the end sheet at front of the Bible:

"As stated on the opposite page I was born at a summer cabin (fåbod) named Mattsås 21 July 1833. J. Hedin.

And my wife was born at Östra Ärnäs (also in Lima Parish) 11 July 1835 and died 12 Feb. 1902.

And my parents were Lars Hedin in Gråheden, born in Transtrand Parish (Kopp.) in February 1807 and died 6 Feb. 1877 and his wife, Valborg Larsdotter, born in Gråheden in March 1805 and died 12 Feb. 1882.

WELCOME TO GUDMUNDSTJÄRN

- a forestfarm where people lived a selfsupporting life for 165 years

Gudmundstjärn is one of the most remarkable places to see in this part of Sweden.

It is a deserted farm where people lived for 165 years supporting themselves with almost everything a human being needs to survive.

The buildings where the familys lived and worked from 1778 to 1944 have been restored into their original condition. The environment have been maintained.

At Gudmundstjärn you can see how people lived when they had six kilometres of wayless country to the nearest village and how they produced what they needed; clothes, food, tools and implements.

At certain hours every day a waterdriven sawmill is demonstrated as well as a waterdriven plane which makes chips for shingel-roofs.

At Gudmundstjärn, which is situated near a little tarn deep in the forest, you can also just relax and enjoy the swedish nature. You can have a cup of coffee and a sandwich or some cakes.

It is four swedish miles to go from the towncenter of Sundsvall. Look at the map on the last page of the pamphlet.

Välkommen till Gudmundstjärn

– ett skogshemman
från självhushållets tid

Teckning: Jan Olofsson, Sundsvalls Museum

Lugn och ro och en betagande norrländsk natur.

Dessutom en kulturhistorisk upplevelse som är ganska sällsynt i sitt slag.

Det är vad Gudmundstjärn i Indal har att erbjuda.

Gudmundstjärn är dels en vackert belägen liten tjärn, dels ett ovanligt väl bevarat skogshemman från självhushålllets tid, anlagt som nybygge redan på 1700-talet.

Byggnaderna har återställts i ursprungligt skick och byggnadsminnesförklarats. Miljön kring gården har bevarats genom att omgivningarna förklarats som naturreservat.

1778 fick en man som hette Olof Pärsson rättigheter att anlägga nybygget Gudmundstjärn i Indals socken i Medelpad. Året därpå började han förvandla skogen till åker och äng och sedan bodde fem generationer människor vid den lilla tjärnen mitt inne i skogen i 165 år.

Under hela den tid som Gudmundstjärn var bebott var det sex kilometer väglöst land fram till socknen. Familjerna på gården levde därför ganska isolerat.

De levde uteslutande på vad jorden och skogen gav. Nästan allt som behövdes tillverkades av familjemedlemmarna själva. När gården övergavs i mitten på 1940-talet var den ett av de allra sista riktiga självhushållen i vårt land. Dessutom ett ovanligt väl utvecklat sådant.

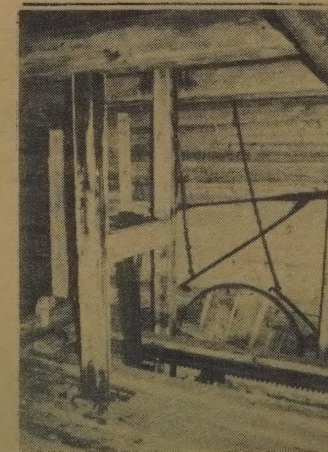

Det finns en byggnad för varje sak som människorna på Gudmundstjärn behövde göra för att klara överlevnaden. Gården ser därför ut som en hel by där den ligger uppe på sluttningen vid tjärnen.

Olof Pärsson byggde boningshus, ladugård, lador, bagarstuga, kvarn, härbre, smedja och några byggnader till. Hans son Nils Olofsson byggde basta för torkning av säd och dennes dotter Sara Lena, som var en märklig kvinna, fyllde på med såg och fåbod. Sara Lenas son, Nils Olof Eriksson, som kom att bli den siste bonden på gården, byggde nytt boningshus och ny ladugård. Han byggde också snickarbod och spånhyvel och han installerade tröskverk med turbindrift.

- Siste bonden på Gudmundstjärn var en passionerad fiolspelare. Här är en bild från början av seklet där han (längst till höger) spelar tillsammans med några musikaliska vänner.

PROGRAM

ÖPPET FÖR VISNING: Sommartid enligt särskilt program.

DEMONSTRATION av den vattendrivna ramsågen och spånhyveln varje lördag och söndag under öppethållandet.

ÖVRIGA ARRANGEMANG demonstration av hantverks- och jordbrukssysslor.

KAFFESERVERING.

everything is very hard to find.

About Israel I can't give you anything but Ann-Marie is going to search in Sth. I have tried in Gothenburg with the Sea museum and in Växjö with the emigrants but no results.

I think you got the dates once and maybe you can find something at the Mormon library. The Mormon library is the biggest in the world. They should have everything because I know that they have a big centre underground in USA. They have also photographed the Swedish church books to microfilm.

The enclosure contains the date you need. My grandfather Gustaf had more half sisters and brothers after him but that is of no importance.

Olof and Olofs father was born Springare in Själänd in Säbrai presumably they lived in Fröland on that account the name Fröberg. They changed presumably name when they moved to Fröland.

It was usually in Sweden at that time.

Johanna married Lundin 1877 and got, as you can see at the certificate, many children (13). Probably she got 16.

From These Lundins are only grand grand children left and when all the elder are dead is it difficult to get any info. I've had contact with some of them but no results.

I hope something of this could help you.

Dear Frances!

Many thanks for your letter. Sorry I have not written before but time is flying or is it just age? I hope everything is alright "over there". We are just fine. At the moment ~~unemployment~~ unemployment is high in Sweden. Young people suffer not having work. My granddaughter Petra works at a dept store. She finished school last summer.

We plan to visit USA
in June 1992. It will be myself, perhaps my sister, my granddaughter Petra and her boyfriend Peter. We would like to meet you. Charlotte living with the Akins, finishes school on June 7. We hope to get out as much as possible from this trip. We plan to go to Florida and stay for a couple of days and then go to Spokane to attend Charlotte's graduation. Then back to Florida again. We will stay at a motel and would appreciate if you would supply us with information regarding prices/alternatives and also regarding flights Florida - Spokane.
We will stay a couple of days in Spokane.

My daughter Jan-Marie visited the Akins in January this year.
Now she will leave for Lebanon where she would

she will join the U.N. forces during a six-months term. I will be worried, but she decides herself.

Regarding genealogy I am still at the same point as last time I wrote you. However, I have figured out that your grandfather was born Springare (family name). He later changed to Fröberg. "Springare" is a soldier name. Your great grandfather married Anna - Britta Strinnholm on November 19, 1847. I have not found out on what ships he sailed. I know only that he met your grandmother during one of his trips. Your grandfather's brother, Israel, sailed from/to ~~Amsterdam~~ Antwerp and Scotland on a ship called "Brigg Hamminon" on June 19, 1970. Israel was a logger/lumber. That is what I have learnt so far. Hope this information will be useful for you.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope it will be possible for us to meet in June next year.

Lots of love

Aina & family
